ON THE COVER

The 2026 Houston Astros enter the season with a star-studded roster that features eight former Major League All-Stars. Five of these All-Stars are represented on the Astros Media Guide cover and are joined by offseason acquisition Tatsuya Imai, who is a three-time Nippon Professional Baseball Organization (NPB) All-Star.

Franchise icon Jose Altuve returns to the Astros Media Guide cover for the 12th time in his career (also, 2013, 2015-19, 2021-26) and the sixth consecutive. His 12 appearances on the Astros Media Guide cover are by far the most in franchise history.

Three-time All-Star Yordan Alvarez also returns to the Astros Media Guide cover for the fifth time in his career (also, 2020, 2023, 2025-26) and second consecutive.

Carlos Correa, who was re-acquired midseason in 2025, is back on the Astros Media Guide cover for his fifth time (2016-17, 2019, 2021, 2026) and first time since the 2021 season.

Shortstop Jeremy Peña is making his second Media Guide cover (2023, 2026) after putting together his best full season in 2025. Peña was an All-Star last season after hitting .304 (150x493) with 30 doubles, 17 homers and 62 RBI in 125 games.

Like Peña, Hunter Brown was a first-time All-Star in 2025, and eventually finished third in AL Cy Young voting. Brown, who's making his first appearance on the Astros Media Guide cover, went 12-9 with a 2.43 ERA (50ER/185.1IP) in 31 starts in 2025.

ASTROS IN THE COMMUNITY

OVERVIEW

The Astros Foundation and Community Relations team manage a wide variety of community and charitable programs that focus on supporting youth baseball and softball, honoring members of our nation's military and first responders, aiding in the fight against childhood cancer, and helping address pervasive issues in our society such as homelessness and domestic violence. These efforts are an investment in the Houston community and speak to a culture of giving back that touches every facet of the Astros organization.

The 2025 season was a very successful one for the Astros Foundation, with $6 million donated to Houston area community programs and nonprofits over the year. Over 1,214 active Astros Foundation volunteers served at over 1,932 community events, totaling over 39,812 of volunteer hours. Overall, the Astros Foundation served over 72 non-profit partners in a variety of ways during 2025.

A cornerstone of the Astros Foundation is the Astros Youth Academy, which offers local youth an opportunity to learn about and experience the game of baseball and softball. In 2025, the 21st and 22nd appearances in the Nike RBI World Series were made by the Astros Youth Academy, as the softball and junior baseball teams traveled to Vero Beach, Fla.

Each year, the Astros Foundation continues to grow the Community Leaders program, which provides young baseball and softball players with the environment and resources they need to develop mentally and physically.

Through fundraising and volunteer efforts, the Astros Foundation supports many local non-profits, dedicating thousands of volunteer hours each year.

In 2017, the Astros Foundation was awarded the Allan H. Selig Award for Philanthropic Excellence, Major League Baseball's highest recognition of the charitable efforts of its clubs, for the Astros Community Leaders program.

ASTROS ITEMS

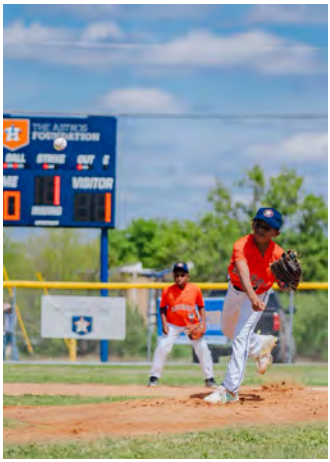
The Astros' commitment to our community includes assisting qualified local 501(c)(3) nonprofits with their fundraising efforts through in-kind donations, including promotional or autographed items, tickets or ballpark related in-kind experiences. All requests must be made online. Information is available at Astros.com/community.

ASTROS PLAYER, ALUMNI AND FRONT OFFICE APPEARANCES

Astros players, alumni, owners and executives make a select number of appearances throughout the year. Businesses and groups who wish to request an appearance by an Astros player, alumnus or front office member should complete and submit an appearance application at least four to six weeks prior to the proposed event. The application should include detailed information on the event including specific date, time, exact location of the appearance, how many people will be in attendance and the purpose of the event. The Astros online appearance request forms are available at www.astros.com/community.

THE ASTROS FOUNDATION

The Astros Foundation is the official 501(c)(3) team charity of the Houston Astros. We seek to harness the passion of our fans to support youth sports and education programs, the recognition/honor of our nation's military, childhood cancer and domestic violence awareness and efforts to reduce homelessness. Our cornerstone initiatives include the Community Leaders program, the Astros MLB Youth Academy and the Astros RBI Program (Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities).



The Astros Foundation hosts several marquee events throughout the year, including the Diamond Dreams Gala presented by Chevron, LG Homes Share2Care 50/50 Raffle, The United MVP Series, the Astros Foundation Charity Game Broadcast, Champions for Healthy Families presented by Shaftel Diamonds and the Hall of Fame Wine Dinner.

ASTROS COMMUNITY LEADERS

MLB Commissioner Rob Manfred and Astros Owner and Chairman Jim Crane with the Allan H. Selig Award for Philanthropic Excellence, which was awarded to the Astros Community Leaders program in 2017.

Developed by Astros Owner and Chairman Jim Crane, the Community Leaders program seeks to provide the next generation of young athletes with the environment and resources they need to develop physically and mentally. Baseball and softball teach young players the importance of teamwork, perseverance and commitment, principles that will serve them not only on the field, but throughout their lives.

The Community Leaders program has grown significantly since its inception in 2013. Through the help of its generous corporate partners, the program now impacts thousands of children and their youth baseball and softball leagues throughout the city, providing additional resources, instructional player and coaching clinics, infrastructure enhancements, uniforms and equipment. The Community Leaders program has expanded its footprint and scope to include established community centers and youth programs throughout Greater Houston, and down to Uvalde, Texas, and provides tens of thousands of uniforms and equipment to children at no cost.

For its efforts, the Community Leaders program received the 2017 Allan H. Selig Award for Philanthropic Excellence, Major League Baseball's highest honor for the charitable efforts of its clubs.

ASTROS YOUTH ACADEMY
2801 VICTORY DRIVE, HOUSTON, TX 77088

The Astros Youth Academy is the cornerstone of the Astros Foundation with the initiative to provide youth baseball and softball to the young athletes in the Greater Houston Area. Since 2010, the Academy's experienced staff have served over 31,000 participants, providing free baseball and softball instruction, life-skills training, academic support, and initiatives to young athletes year-round. The Astros Youth Academy staff plays a vital role in the expansion and development of the Foundations' Community Leader program.

The Academy is also home to the Houston Astros RBI program and host summer camps and year-round clinics. Astros RBI is in its 13th year as an Astros Foundation-run program. The Astros Nike RBI program has established a legacy of success nationally, particularly the Astros RBI Softball Team, which has won five recent MLB Nike RBI World Series titles (2018, 2019, 2021, 2023 and 2024). The Astros Nike RBI Senior Boys advanced to the MLB Nike RBI World Series in 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2022 and in 2023, finally broke through to win their first World Series title. The Junior Boys also advanced to this prestigious event in 2015 ,2016, 2017, 2018 and 2025.

Since 2014, over 200 RBI members have received baseball or softball opportunities to continue playing at the collegiate level, with 33 AYA members receiving baseball/softball college opportunities in 2025. Since 2015, 11 RBI members have been drafted by Major League Baseball teams, including the Astros first round draft pick in the 2023 MLB Draft, shortstop Brice Matthews, who made his MLB debut in 2025.

ASTROS FOUNDATION IN 2025

The 2025 season was a very successful one for the Astros Foundation, as $6 million was donated to various Houston community programs.

The 2025 Astros Foundation Charity Game was once again a successful event for the Astros and Space City Home Network, as over $600,000 was rasied for the Astros Foundation. Over 750 fans purchased charity game packages with player memorabilia.

Over 100,000 fans played the LGI Share2Care 50/50 Raffle in 2025, raising over $3 million withy 37 different charities being highlighted as Charity of the Game.

The Hall of Fame Wine Dinner, an intimate event on the field at Daikin Park, featuring just over 200 guests raised over $525,000 for the Astros Foundation. The event highlighted Hall of Famers Jeff Bagwell, Craig Biggio and Billy Wagner.

The Astros Foundation also put on the Diamond Dreams Gala presented by Chevron in November of 2025, a wonderful night of fundraising for the Astros Foundation and the Salvation Army, an organization combatting homelessness and supporting those in need. The event featured a fantastic dinner, live and silent auctions and a concert by Flo Rida. The night raised $2.1 million for the Astros Foundation and the Salvation Army, making it the most-successful Gala for the Astros.

In September 2025, the Astros and the Astros Foundation announced a $2.5 million commitment to rebuild the Ingram Little League Ballpark in Ingram, Texas, which was impacted by the devastating Central Texas July 4 floods. The Astros Foundation took the lead in this project, along with the Community Foundation of the Texas Hill Country, Major League Baseball, Texas Rangers, a number of other MLB teams, as well as Texas-based baseball programs and foundations. The ballpark, which is a key fixture of the local community, will be rennovated to include three primary fields, two practice fields, newly imagined batting cages and other amenities.

ASTROS FRONT OFFICE

CHASE THE FIGHT

JIM CRANE

OWNER & CHAIRMAN

On Nov. 17, 2011, Major League Baseball unanimously approved the purchase of the Houston Astros by a group headed by Houston businessman Jim Crane, marking the beginning of a new era of Astros baseball.

As Owner and Chairman, Jim Crane hit the ground running upon taking control of the Astros in 2011 by immediately putting his plan to rebuild the franchise into action. As a highly successful businessman in Houston and former standout college pitcher, Jim's credentials made him the perfect choice to build a winning team both on and off the field in Houston.

From the start, Jim was clear about his goals: to make the Astros a ballclub that can have sustained success at the Major League level by building a top-notch farm system and to provide Astros fans with an outstanding experience at Daikin Park.

In just six years, Jim Crane took the Astros from worst to first in spectacular fashion. Houston's farm system, which was ranked as one of the worst in baseball in 2011, recovered in a three-year span to be ranked as the best in baseball in 2014. Since then, that same farm system has produced multiple Major Leaguers and everyday players and has given the Astros the ability to pull off multiple trades, all signed off on by Crane, including the acquisitions of Justin Verlander in 2017, Gerrit Cole in 2018 and Zack Greinke in 2019.

Buoyed by promotions and acquisitions, the Major League club went from a 111-loss season in 2013 to ultimately winning its first World Series Championship in 2017. The club has continued to produce at the highest level, as the Astros posted 100-plus win seasons in four of the last nine years. Not only did the Astros reach the postseason in eight-straight seasons (2017-2024), but they advanced to the ALCS in seven-straight years (2017-2023) becoming the first team in AL history to advance to seven straight ALCS. In 2019, the Astros set a franchise record with 107 regular season wins and won the American League pennant. In 2022, the Astros won their second World Series title, going 11-2 (7-0 through the ALDS and ALCS) as they rolled through the postseason after winning their fifth American League West Division title and fourth American League pennant in six seasons. In 2023, the Astros won their sixth American League West Division title and advanced to their seventh-straight ALCS. In 2024, the Astros won their seventh American League West Division title. Overall, four of the club's five World Series trips, including both the 2022 and 2017 World Series Championships, have come under Crane's ownership.

Under Crane's leadership, the Astros announced in November 2024 a 15-year agreement on an exclusive naming rights partnership with Daikin Comfort Technologies North America Inc. (Daikin) that brands the home of the Astros as Daikin Park. The agreement, effective January 1, 2025, will run through the 2039 season, and includes official naming rights, other partnership benefits, and a give back to the Greater Houston community through educational programming and youth sports development in underserved communities.

In order to make the experience at Daikin Park one of the best in baseball, the Astros have made several large-scale renovations to the ballpark under Jim's leadership. The multi-million-dollar investment in center field, the addition of the Astros Hall of Fame Alley, the renovations and enhancements to the ballpark's suites, an upgrade to the video board, ribbon boards and audio system in the stadium, a new Team Store in center field and renovations of the Diamond Club are the most recent innovative updates that showcase Jim's commitment to making Daikin Park a great destination for fans of all ages.

Jim recognized the need for a new Astros Spring Training facility and successfully moved the team to West Palm Beach in 2017, where players and fans now enjoy a first-class, state-of-the-art facility, Ballpark of the Palm Beaches. Through a partnership, Jim also purchased an office building five miles from the Spring Training facility and had it redeveloped into a Hilton Garden Inn branded hotel which serves the public as well as Astros players, staff and families.

He also successfully brokered the purchase of the Double A Corpus Christi Hooks in 2015 and was closely involved with the acquisition of a Class A Advanced affiliate in the Carolina League in 2017. In 2019, that team had a new stadium built in Fayetteville, N.C., and a new name, the Fayetteville Woodpeckers. Ballpark Digest recognized the Woodpeckers' brand with the Logo/Branding of the Year Award in 2019. Additionally, Jim continued to add to the Astros minor league system acquiring the Sugar Land Skeeters franchise to serve as the Astros Triple A affiliate prior to the 2021 season. In January of 2022, the Skeeters underwent a successful re-brand to the Sugar Land Space Cowboys.

Under Jim's leadership, the Astros have supported several of MLB's diversity initiatives, including MLB's eighth annual Civil Rights Game and ancillary activities as well as MLB's Diversity Summit, a sports employment and business opportunity career and trade fair. Houston has twice hosted the Urban Invitational, a nationally-televised collegiate baseball tournament designed to give HBCUs and their baseball programs national exposure, as well as the Breakthrough Series, a collegiate and professional scouting showcase featuring a diverse group of top high school players in the country. In 2023, the Astros debuted the inaugural Astros Foundation Cactus Jack HBCU Classic, hosting six HBCUs for a nationally-televised tournament at Daikin Park featuring traditional HBCU rivals from Texas, Louisiana and Mississippi.

WHITNEY AND JIM CRANE

PASSION FOR THE GAME

Jim hails from St. Louis, Mo. where he became a loyal, spirited fan of the St. Louis Cardinals. As a teenager, he caddied for members of the Cardinals team at local golf clubs and parked cars for patrons at Cardinals games. Jim was impressed by the Cardinals' caring, family atmosphere and the team's close ties with the local community. He has carried these values forward throughout his life in business, philanthropic and personal relationships.

As a young man, Jim put his innate passion for baseball into action at Central Missouri State University (now the University of Central Missouri), where he was a standout pitcher for the Mules from 1973-76 under the late, revered coach, Robert Tompkins. Jim still holds the Mules' single-game strikeout record with 18, and in 1997, was inducted into the Central Missouri State University Athletic Hall of Fame.

Jim was the primary underwriter of a $1.2 million renovation in 1998 of the old Mules Field on the University of Central Missouri campus. On Jan. 21, 1998, the facility was renamed the James R. Crane Stadium/Robert N. Tompkins Field in honor of Jim and his beloved coach. Jim continues to contribute to the college annually to provide athletic scholarships for Mules baseball. On Jan. 29, 2017, Jim was enshrined in the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame for his outstanding pitching career at the University of Central Missouri, his generous donations to UCM baseball and his successful efforts in rebuilding the Houston Astros franchise.

Jim earned a Bachelor of Science degree in industrial safety from Central Missouri State University in 1976. This led to a loss-control job evaluating commercial risks for an insurance company and then a move to Houston in 1982, where he entered the freight forwarding business.

SUCCESS IN THE BUSINESS WORLD

In March of 1984, at the age of 30 and with $10,000 borrowed from his sister, Jim founded Eagle USA Airfreight (EGL, Inc.). In his first office located in Houston with a sole employee, Jim handled the loading and trucking himself. The company made money in its first month, and Jim ultimately built it into an organization of more than 10,000 employees with 400-plus facilities in 139 countries. EGL was named one of Houston's "Best Places to Work," and reached No. 599 on the Fortune 1000 list during Jim's tenure. Jim has been the recipient of a long list of awards and honors for his entrepreneurial activities and business successes. The company was acquired in an LBO transaction in August 2007.

In August of 2008, Crane formed Crane Worldwide Logistics (CWL), a premier global provider of customized transportation and logistics services. CWL continues to grow rapidly with experienced members of Crane's management team and sales force at the helm.

Jim's love of baseball is unabated, and he has added the game of golf to his athletic endeavors. He acquired the Floridian, a private golf resort in Palm City, Fla., in 2010. In 2017, Jim ventured into the restaurant business and opened Osso & Kristalla and Potente, named after his children. In 2018, he also took ownership of the Houston Open, the PGA TOUR tournament that was in danger of leaving the city. The tournament is operated under the Astros Golf Foundation transitioned to the newly renovated Memorial Park Golf Course in 2020.

JIM CRANE AT THE 2025 TEXAS CHILDREN'S HOUSTON OPEN

STEPPING UP AND GIVING BACK

As Astros Owner and Chairman, Jim has embraced the opportunity to give back to the City of Houston and beyond. Since he took ownership of the club, the Astros Foundation has donated and invested over $50 million into the Houston community and beyond.

The Astros Foundation donated $6 million to various Houston non-profits in 2025. The funds supported the causes that are the five main pillars of the Astros Foundation, including youth baseball and softball initiatives, childhood cancer awareness, domestic violence awareness, military and first responder causes and homelessness.

In response to the devastating flooding on the Fourth of July 2025 in Central Texas, Crane and the Astros immediately stepped up to help our neighbors in need, announcing a donation of $1 million to support relief efforts of those impacted by the flooding.

Then in Sept. 2025, as the Astros hosted Central Texas Strong Day, the Astros and the Astros Foundation announced a $2.5 million commitment to help rebuild and transform Ingram Little League Ballpark in Ingram, Texas following the flooding. The new ballpark includes three primary fields, two practice fields, newly imagined batting cages and other amenities, open in time for the spring season in 2026.

In 2022, the Astros Foundation embraced the community of Uvalde, Texas, making them a part of the Astros family in the aftermath of the shooting of 19 students and two teachers at Robb Elementary School on May 24, 2022. Crane, 85 front office staff and the Astros Foundation mobilized to visit the Uvalde community in July 2022 to bring some healing to the community through the game of baseball. The Astros then welcomed 3,500 citizens of Uvalde to Daikin Park for a special Uvalde Strong Day on Aug. 14, 2022 as the Astros took on the Oakland A's. It was also announced that the Uvalde Little League would become a part of the Astros Community Leaders Little League program, providing a multi-year commitment of over $1.2 million to maintain their little league fields, provide new fencing, concession stand, uniforms, equipment and more. The Astros also made Uvalde a special stop on the 2023 Astros Caravan, with Alex Bregman and Lance McCullers Jr. visiting with students at Uvalde Elementary and Flores Elementary among four community stops with the 2022 World Series trophy in January 2023.

In 2021, the Astros Foundation led the way in the fight against COVID-19, partnering with the City of Houston to use Daikin Park as both a COVID-19 testing site and as a vaccination site.

In April of 2020, during the early stages of the pandemic, Jim stepped up to connect the Astros Foundation with Crane Worldwide Logistics, which resulted in millions of medical supplies being delivered to Houston hospitals within the Texas Medical Center. The goal of the partnership was to provide funding, logistics and transportation support for much-needed medical supplies and Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) being used by healthcare professionals to treat COVID-19 patients.

In 2020, Jim also connected the Astros Foundation and Crane Worldwide with Astros players Carlos Correa and Martin Maldonado plus other MLB players from Puerto Rico to assist with delivering medical supplies to the island during the COVID-19 pandemic. In that endeavor, the Astros Foundation and Crane Worldwide covered 100% of the freight and transportation costs and also coordinated the logistics to get those much-needed medical supplies to Puerto Rico.

Crane and the Astros Foundation are the first to jump to action after natural disasters in the area, holding supply drives at Daikin Park to support relief efforts for communities impacted by storms and other natural disasters. Most recently, the Astros Foundation supported the communities affected by the wildfires in Los Angeles in January 2025. Drives were held to collect supplies for communities in Louisiana impacted by Hurricane Laura in 2020, Hurricane Ida in 2021 and Hurricanes Helene and Milton in 2024. In 2021, the Astros Foundation and Alex Bregman held a water distribution drive to support local Houstonians during recovery from Winter Storm Uri. Most recently, the Astros held a water and ice distribution drive to local Houstonians in the aftermath of Hurricane Beryl in July 2024.

In the immediate aftermath of Hurricane Harvey in 2017, Jim and the Astros ownership group were among the first to pledge $4 million to relief efforts. Jim also facilitated the shipment of more than 240,000 pounds of disaster relief supplies to Puerto Rico, where he was instrumental in transporting families of Astros and other MLB players, as well as hospitalized patients in critical condition, to safety.

In 2018, when the City of Houston was in danger of losing the Houston Open golf tournament, Jim helped establish the Astros Golf Foundation to ensure that the historic, PGA Tour tournament would remain in Houston. As a result, since 2019, the Houston Open has been presented by the Astros Golf Foundation and has had a tremendous impact on the Houston community, becoming the single-biggest fundraiser for the Astros Foundation. The Astros Golf Foundation spearheaded a $34 million renovation to Memorial Park Golf Course, which now plays host to the Houston Open. One of the key goals of the Astros Golf Foundation is to provide much-needed resources and funds to the citizens and community of Houston through park improvements, charitable fundraising and investing in youth programs.

Jim is committed to providing local children the opportunities he feels baseball afforded him in his youth. One of his first initiatives after purchasing the Astros was the creation of the Astros Community Leaders program, which won MLB's prestigious Allan H. Selig Award for Philanthropic Excellence in 2017. As part of the program, a multi-million-dollar partnership was formed with the City of Houston's Parks and Recreation Department and included participation from several corporate partners, whose financial donations supported the field refurbishments, year-round maintenance, league programming and uniforms. Now, tens of thousands of young athletes receive free uniforms, equipment, tickets to Astros games and professional instruction through the Community Leaders program. The parents, coaches and league participants also benefit from different types of clinics through the Community Leaders program, attending clinics on coaching, groundskeeping, nutrition, education, and much more.

"Baseball was very important to my development," Jim said. "Playing baseball made me a lot more confident and comfortable in my ability to achieve things. I'd like to be able to help more kids get the opportunities that I had through baseball."

Jim has been the recipient of a long list of awards and honors for his entrepreneurial activities and business successes. In 2019, Jim was recognized as the MD Anderson "Living Legend" and was also presented with the Ben Taub Humanitarian Award at their Jubilee of Caring event. He also won the 2019 Houston Sports Award Executive of the Year award. In May of 2018, he received the Public Service Award from the American Leadership Forum and was also inducted into the St. Louis Sports Hall of Fame where he received the August A. Busch, Jr. Award. On November 1, 2018, Jim was inducted into the Texas Business Hall of Fame and in December 2018 received the Jack Buck Award from the Missouri Athletic Club in St. Louis, Missouri.

In 2025, Jim was honored with Houston Business Journal's Lifetime Achievement Award. In February 2024, First Tee Houston honored Jim Crane and the Astros Golf Foundation for their Game Changer Award as part of their 20th anniversary celebration.

DANA BROWN

GENERAL MANAGER

Dana Brown was named the 14th General Manager in Astros franchise history on Jan. 25, 2023.

Brown became the second African-American general manager in Astros history, joining Bob Watson (1994-95). He enters his fourth season as GM in 2026.

After the Astros won their fourth-straight American League West title in 2024, Brown became the first Astros general manager to win division titles in his first two years as general manager.

In 2023, his first season as the Astros general manager, the team won the American League West and finished with a record of 90-72, advancing through the divisional round to their seventh-straight American League Championship Series.

Following the 2024 season, Brown had a busy offseason, signing one of the top first basemen in the league, three-time Gold Glove winner, Christian Walker. He also acquired 2024 All-Star third baseman Isaac Paredes, top prospect Cam Smith and right-handed pitcher Hayden Wesneski in a trade with the Chicago Cubs.

Prior to the 2024 season, Brown made the first managerial selection of his career, naming longtime coach Joe Espada the 20th manager in Astros franchise history. He also orchestrated a big offseason signing of five-time All-Star left-handed reliever Josh Hader to bolster an already strong bullpen. In February 2024, Brown also extended Astros star second baseman Jose Altuve for five seasons, through 2029, keeping the eight time All-Star, 2017 MVP and future Hall of Fame candidate as an Astro for life.

During the 2025 offseason, Brown made a number of moves to improve the club. He orchestrated a three-team trade with Pittsburgh and Tampa Bay, acquiring right-handed pitcher Mike Burrows from the Pirates, while sending outfielder Jacob Melton and pitcher Anderson Brito to Tampa Bay. Brown also made splash by signing Japanese pitcher Tatsuya Imai from the Seibu Lions of the NPB to a three-year Major League contract.

Under Brown, the Astros signed starting pitcher Christian Javier to a contract extension through 2027 in spring training 2023. At the 2023 trade deadline, Brown made his first major move, reacquiring Cy Young Award-winning pitcher Justin Verlander and cash considerations from the New York Mets, in exchange for minor league outfielders Drew Gilbert and Ryan Clifford.

Brown joined the Astros after spending four seasons (2019-22) with the Atlanta Braves organization as their Vice President, Scouting. In that role, he oversaw several successful drafts in which the Braves selected impact players such as outfielder Michael Harris, right-handed pitcher Spencer Strider and infielder Vaughn Grissom. In 2022, Harris earned National League Rookie of the Year honors while Strider finished second.

The Braves success during Brown's tenure there, which included five straight division titles and a World Series championship in 2021, was in large part the result of a solid farm system.

Prior to joining the Braves, Brown spent nine seasons (2010-18) with the Toronto Blue Jays as a special assistant to the general manager. In that span, the Blue Jays earned an American League East Division title in 2015 and a Wild Card berth in 2016. The postseason appearance in 2015 was the first for the Blue Jays since 1993.

Before his stint in Toronto, Brown served as the Director of Scouting for the Nationals/Expos franchise for nine seasons (2001-09). During his tenure, the Nationals/Expos would draft over 40 players that would go on to appear in the Major Leagues. Seven players drafted in that span would earn All-Star status, including Ian Desmond, Stephen Strasburg and Ryan Zimmerman.

Brown's career also includes an eight-year stint with the Pittsburgh Pirates, where he served as their area scouting supervisor and east coast cross checker.

Brown also played professionally for three seasons as an outfielder in the Phillies minor league system after being drafted out of Seton Hall University in the 35th round of the 1989 June Draft. In three minor league seasons as an outfielder, Brown hit .262 in 280 games with 82 stolen bases, advancing as high at Double-A in his final season in 1991.

One of his teammates at Seton Hall was Astros Hall of Famer Craig Biggio. Brown also played with three other future Major Leagues while at Seton Hall: former All-Star and MVP first baseman Mo Vaughn, shortstop John Valentin and left-handed pitcher Kevin Morton. Brown was inducted into the Seton Hall University Hall of Fame in 2008 and the New Jersey Sportswriter Hall of Fame in 2012 for notable accomplishments in baseball.

Brown and his wife, Casandra, have two children, Dana Jr. and Autumn.

CHARLES COOK

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Charles Cook enters his 11th year with the Astros, 10th in a full-time capacity and fourth as Assistant General Manager. Charles previously held the roles of Senior Director of Player Evaluation, Baseball Operations Coordinator, Manager of Amateur Scouting Analysis and Director of Player Evaluation for the Astros.

Charles is a 2015 graduate of Yale University, where he was a member of the baseball and football teams. As a student, he held a summer internship with the Astros business strategy & analytics department.

GAVIN DICKEY

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Gavin Dickey was promoted to assistant general manager in November of 2023 after spending the 2023 season as special assistant to the general manager. 2026 is his third season as an assistant general manager.

He has been with the Astros organization since 2011, which is when he was hired as an area scout. As part of his current duties, Dickey oversees player development, player personnel, minor league operations, and advanced scouting.

After a six-year minor league playing career as an outfielder, Dickey was hired by the Astros as an area scout in September of 2011, covering South Texas. From 2013-15, his territory to cover was moved to Georgia and North Florida. In 2016, he was promoted to regional cross checker, covering the Southeast region of the country, before being named national crosschecker in 2018. In 2021, he was named as a special assignment scout, handling those duties until 2023 when he was promoted to special assistant to the general manager.

Dickey was originally drafted out of the University of Florida by the Seattle Mariners in the 12th round of the 2006 June Draft. He ended up playing six seasons of minor league baseball (2006-11) advancing as high as Double-A.

Prior to his college career, Dickey was a highly-recruited quarterback and centerfielder at Lincoln High School in Tallahassee, FL. As a quarterback, Dickey received several scholarship offers before deciding to attend the University of Florida, where he played football and baseball.

Dickey and his wife, Rachel, have three children, sons Tristan and Jonah and a daughter, Alessa.

CONNOR HUFF

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Connor Huff enters his first season as an Assistant General Manager in 2026. Huff joined the Astros in 2022, most recently serving as the Vice President of Business and Baseball Operations, responsible for a number of cross-functional strategic and analytics projects.

A graduate from Middlebury College where he was the captain of the men's varsity basketball team, Huff completed his MBA with honors at Harvard Business School.

Prior to joining the Astros, Huff spent time in Africa working on a broad number of projects with the Basketball Africa League and Sports for Education and Economic Development (SEED).

JEFF BAGWELL

SENIOR ADVISOR, OWNERSHIP & BASEBALL OPERATIONS

Jeff Bagwell, who was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2017 and the Astros Hall of Fame in 2019, was one of the greatest sluggers of all-time.

In his current role as Senior Advisor, Ownership & Baseball Operations, Bagwell is an active member of the Baseball Operations department, directly supporting player development, scouting and talent acquisition. He is also a key advisor to both ownership and Astros General Manager Dana Brown.

Additionally, Bagwell makes public appearances, acts as an ambassador for the organization, and can be heard on the club's TV and radio broadcasts, serving as a part-time color analyst on both platforms.

In his illustrious playing career with the Astros, which spanned 15 years, Bagwell hit .297 with 488 doubles, 32 triples, 449 home runs, 1,529 RBI with a .948 OPS (.408 OBP/.540 SLG) in 2,150 games. The four-time All-Star and three-time Silver Slugger Award winner was the first player in Astros history to be named the MVP of his league (1994), as well as the first player to receive a Rookie of the Year Award (1991). The franchise leader in homers, walks and RBI, Bagwell was also known for his elite defense at first base, winning a Rawlings Gold Glove Award in 1994. He is the only first baseman in MLB history to record a 30-homer, 30-stolen base season, which he accomplished twice (1997, 1999). Under Bagwell's leadership, the Astros won four division titles and made the playoffs six times, reaching the National League Championship Series in 2004 and the World Series in 2005.

CRAIG BIGGIO

SPECIAL ADVISOR, BASEBALL OPS & COMMUNITY OUTREACH EXEC.

Hall of Famer and longtime Astros icon Craig Biggio is in his 19th season as an important part of the Astros front office. In his role, Craig works in several areas, including with the baseball operations staff in its Major and minor league player development programs, scouting, and talent evaluation. Additionally, Craig participates in the club's community development programs and the Astros partnership initiatives.

On Jan. 6, 2015, Craig Biggio became the first player in Astros history to be voted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame after receiving 82.7 percent of the total votes from the Baseball Writers' Association of America. He was officially inducted into the HOF during the annual ceremony in Cooperstown on July 26, 2015. Craig was also inducted to the Astros Hall of Fame on August 3, 2019, as a part of the inaugural class.

The franchise career leader in hits, games played, runs scored, and at-bats, Craig retired at the end of the 2007 season following a stellar, 20-year career, all with the Astros. His No. 7 was retired by the ballclub on Aug. 17, 2008.

He finished his career with 3,060 hits, 668 doubles, 291 homers, 1,175 RBI, and a .281 career average in 2,850 games. He remains the franchise leader in several categories, including hits, doubles, games played and runs (1844).

A first-round selection by Houston in the June 1987 draft, Craig became the first Astro to reach the 3,000-hit plateau with a seventh-inning single against Colorado's Aaron Cook on June 28, 2007 at Minute Maid Park. His 3,060 hits rank 25th all-time, and his 668 career doubles are the 2nd-most of any right-handed hitter in Major League history (sixth all-time overall).

Craig's 20 seasons with Houston are a franchise record, and he also made a club-best 19 consecutive Opening Day starts. He is also the only player in Major League history to reach all of the following milestones: 600 doubles (668), 250 home runs (291), 2,700 hits (3,060), and 400 stolen bases (414). Craig and Cal Ripken Jr. are the only middle infielders (only 13 players all-time) to collect 3,000 hits and 1,000 extra-base hits.

Craig was named to a franchise-record seven National League All-Star teams, received five Silver Slugger Awards, four Rawlings Gold Glove Awards and was a member of six Astros playoff teams. Craig holds National League records for leadoff home runs with 53 (ranks second all-time) and for hits in interleague play with 201. He also led all players during the 2005 postseason with 18 hits.

Additionally, Craig was the 2007 recipient of the Roberto Clemente Award, a prestigious honor bestowed upon one Major League player each season by Major League Baseball and the Clemente family recognizing community service. Craig has been actively involved with the Sunshine Kids throughout his career, a support organization for children with cancer and their families.

Craig and wife Patty reside in Houston and have two sons, Conor and Cavan, and one daughter, Quinn. In 2010, Craig coached his sons' St. Thomas High School baseball team to the Texas Class 5A state championship. Both Conor (graduate '15) and Cavan (drafted '16) played baseball for the University of Notre Dame. Cavan was drafted by the Blue Jays and made his Major League debut for Toronto in 2019. On Sept. 17, 2019 in Baltimore, Cavan hit for the cycle, making he and his father just the second father-son duo to each hit for the cycle in an MLB game; Quinn was a member of the Notre Dame softball team.

RUSS BOVE

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

Russ Bove (pronounced boe-vay) joined the Astros in 2023 as a special assistant to the general manager and enters his fourth season in the role in 2026.

Bove brings over 40 years of experience in professional scouting to the Astros. His current role will include assisting with the amateur draft as well as minor league player evaluation.

Prior to joining the Astros, Bove had served as a special assignment scout for the Toronto Blue Jays since 2010, during which time he worked alongside current Astros General Manager Dana Brown. While in Toronto, Bove was a part of the signing of several current Major League players, including Bo Bichette, Marcus Stroman and Vladimir Guerrero Jr. During his stint in Toronto, Bove was named East Coast Scout of the Year at the Winter Meetings in December of 2017.

Bove's career in scouting began in 1983 with the Major League Scouting Bureau. In 1992, he was hired by the Brewers organization where he would first serve as an area scout before being promoted to East Coast Supervisor. In 2004, he worked as an area scout for the Montreal Expos for one season before being hired by the New York Mets as amateur scouting director. He would remain with the Mets until 2011, at which time he would join the Blue Jays.

A native of Queens, NY, Bove received a Bachelor's of Science degree in business from St. John's University. While in college, he was the Team MVP of the St. John's baseball team in 1971 was twice named as a District II All-American.

WILL SHARP

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

Will Sharp is entering his 14th season with the Houston Astros and was promoted to Special Assistant to the General Manager in November 2023. Prior to that, Sharp spent two seasons as Special Advisor to Baseball Operations. Sharp is focused on player evaluation and management of the Astros' Major League and 40-man rosters.

Sharp also worked as an Analyst, Pro Scouting and Manager, Major League Strategy while based in Houston, beginning in December 2017. Sharp was originally hired by the Astros in December 2012 as a professional scout based out of Athens, Ga., a role in which he was responsible for evaluations of Major and minor league players and contributed work to arbitration and other roster management decisions in the off season.

Sharp began his career as a Baseball Operations intern with the Los Angeles Dodgers during his sophomore year of college in January 2007. He then worked for the Dodgers as a Baseball Operations Assistant with a focus on pro scouting, serving as a liaison between the club's professional scouts and its front office decision makers, from November 2009 to November 2012.

A Los Angeles native and 2009 graduate of the University of Southern California with a major in Economics and a minor in Religion, Sharp now resides in Columbus, OH with his wife, Tatiana, and their two dogs, Peach and Penny.

DERIC LADNIER

SENIOR DIRECTOR, AMATEUR SCOUTING

Deric Ladnier enters his third season with the Astros as the Senior Director of Amateur Scouting. Prior to joining the Astros, he spent nine seasons with the D-backs and has 37 years of experience in scouting and player development.

With the D-backs, Ladnier oversaw all aspects of amateur scouting and talent evaluation for the annual MLB Draft. In June 2015, he and his staff used the No. 1 overall pick to select infielder Dansby Swanson. Under his direction, the D-backs drafted the 2023 NL Rookie of the Year, Corbin Carroll in the first round of the 2019 draft and top-five prospect Jordan Lawlar as the sixth overall pick 2021. Other notable draftees include Dalton Varsho, Brandon Pfaadt, Alec Thomas, Tommy Henry, Kevin Ginkel, Ryne Nelson and Drey Jamison. During his time with the D-backs, the organization went from a last place club with the worst farm system in baseball to a top three system and the 2023 National League pennant.

Ladnier spent seven seasons with the Nationals as a national crosschecker and special assistant to the general manager from 2008-14. The Nationals were NL East division champs in 2012, '14 and finished second in 2013.

He also spent seasons with the Royals (2000-08) as senior director of scouting. Notable draftees include 2009 AL Cy Young Award winner and former Astro Zack Greinke; members of the Royals' 2014-15 World Series teams, including current D-backs Jarrod Dyson and Greg Holland, as well as Alex Gordon, Eric Hosmer, Billy Butler, Mike Moustakas, Luke Hochevar (2006's No. 1 overall pick) and Danny Duffy; and Mike Montgomery.

Ladnier worked for the Braves from 1991-2000 as area supervisor, Director of Minor League Operations, Regional Supervisor and Assistant Director of Scouting and Player Development. During his 10 seasons, the organization was recognized as having a Top-6 Minor League system by Baseball America.

As a player, Ladnier was the Royals' eighth-round pick in the 1985 draft out of University of Mississippi.

Deric and his wife, Misty, reside in Gulf Breeze, Fla. They have six daughters: Kalen, Megan, Ashley, Laken, Brooklyn and Saylor.

In her role, Anita provides strategic leadership for the ballclub's retail, advertising, marketing, communications, broadcasting, and alumni relations, including support for a broad variety of sponsorship, ticket, special event, community, and the Astros Golf Foundation and Texas Children's Houston Open initiatives.

Prior to joining the Houston organization, Anita spent over 20 years in various strategic marketing functions with several organizations, including FGL Sports, Best Buy and Academy Sports + Outdoors. Hailing from Canada's Regina, Saskatchewan, Anita, who earned her United States citizenship in September of 2019, received a bachelor's of business administration degree, with a focus in marketing and human resources, from the University of Regina.

She plays an active role in several Houston-based organizations, including her position as a Board Member of WISE Houston. She recently wrapped up a 15 year tenure serving on the Board of Boys and Girls Club Houston – including representing their Executive Committee. She is also an active Marketing 50 member of World 50 and participates in Greater Houston Partnership Executive Women Program. Anita serves as an Independent Board Director with SkyZone, Reitman's Canada, Ltee, and Holley Inc – where she also serves as Chair for the Governance & Nominating Committee. She is a member of Women's Corporate Directors and NACD.

In 2016, Anita was honored as one of Houston's Top 15 Business Women by the National Diversity Council. In 2018, Anita was honored again by the National Diversity Council as the National Business Woman of the Year. She also received honors in 2018 as one of Texas Executive Women's Women on the Move. In November 2021, Anita was celebrated with the Woman of Inspiration award by WISE Houston, and she was also recognized in both 2021 and 2022 by the National Diversity Council as a Power 50, for her contributions and commitment to both business and community. In 2023, Houston Woman's Magazine honored Anita as one of 50 Women of Influence.

MICHAEL SLAUGHTER

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT, CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Michael Slaughter joined the Astros in October 2015 and enters his 11th season as the CFO with the ballclub and second as Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer. Mike comes to the Astros with extensive executive experience in finance, accounting and mergers and acquisitions involving both public and private companies.

Most recently, Mike served as the Chief Financial Officer of Crane Capital Group. In that position, he assisted Jim Crane in the successful acquisition, operation and disposition of businesses in a wide range of industries, including Crane Worldwide Logistics, Crane Freight Services and the Houston Astros. In particular, Mike played an integral role in the purchase of the Houston Astros and subsequently the Double A Corpus Christi Hooks and Triple A Sugar Land Skeeters. From June 2008 to September 2015, Mike also served as the Chief Financial Officer of Champion Energy Marketing LLC, a leading retail electricity provider.

Prior to 2008, Michael was the Principal Financial Officer at EGL, Inc., a Nasdaq-listed global transportation and logistics company. Previously, Michael had also been EGL's Chief Accounting Officer and VP Finance and Investor Relations.

Michael began his career at Price Waterhouse, where he rose to the position of senior auditor while serving public and private clients across a broad spectrum of businesses. Michael earned a bachelor's degree in business administration with a major in accounting from the University of Texas-Austin in 1988. Marcel Braithwaite joined the Astros in 2012 and enters his 14th full season with the ballclub in 2026. As the Senior Vice President of Business Operations, he oversees various departments and projects, including Stadium Operations and Engineering, Safety and Security, Guest Services, Facilities, and Food and Beverage provided by Aramark. As an operator that likes to roll up his sleeves, Marcel is involved in the daily meetings and coordination of each department and manages the club's Aramark contract and partnership in a similar, hands-on fashion. Since joining the Astros, Marcel has played a pivotal role in the many renovations and improvements to Daikin Park.

Marcel began his career in the logistics industry with Aeronet Worldwide in 1993 and then joined Eagle Global Logistics in 1995. Over the course of his career, Marcel worked his way up to senior leadership positions, finally serving in the role of Vice President of the Program Management Office, Americas for CEVA Logistics. In that position, he managed the shared services group responsible for third party vendor services to the company, as well as large scale strategic and transformational projects throughout the Americas driving shareholder value. Marcel was featured this year in American Builders Magazine, which highlighted his professional career.

Born in Rotterdam, The Netherlands, Marcel is fluent in Dutch and has lived in a number of locations throughout North America and Europe, including Canada, Seattle, southern California and now Texas.

EMELDA DOUGLAS

SVP, COMMUNITY AFFAIRS & ASTROS FOUNDATION EXECUTIVE DIR.

Emelda Douglas brings a transformative vision to her role as Senior Vice President of Community Affairs and Foundation Executive Director for the Houston Astros, joining the organization in February 2025 with a remarkable 25-year trajectory of philanthropic leadership and community development.

Douglas is responsible for strategically advancing the Houston Astros' ambitious engagement mission. She oversees the Foundation's comprehensive approach to creating meaningful impact, developing innovative programs that provide educational, wellness, and recreational opportunities for youth, families, veterans, and others in need. Her responsibilities encompass managing key partnerships, designing and implementing the Foundation's grantmaking strategy, driving fundraising and sponsorship initiatives, building organizational capacity, and executing projects that not only strengthen stakeholder connections but also elevate the Astros' brand as a socially responsible organization.

Douglas's professional journey is a testament to her deep commitment to community transformation. Throughout her career, she has held leadership positions at some of Houston's most impactful nonprofit organizations. Vice President of Community Investment at Greater Houston Community Foundation, Senior Vice President at Baker Ripley, Inc, Executive Director at Susan G. Komen Houston; and Chief Development Officer at Houston Defender Network.Since 2016, she has also operated E. Douglas Strategies, LLC, a nonprofit management and fundraising consulting firm that has become a partner of choice for small to mid-sized organizations seeking strategic growth and capacity building.

A native of Galena Park, TX (east Harris County), Douglas is deeply rooted in the local community. Her professional credentials are complemented by her educational background – a Bachelor of Business Administration in Accounting from Stephen F. Austin State University and certification as a Fundraising Executive (CFRE). Her leadership development includes prestigious programs like Texas Executive Women and the Center for Houston's Future.

Douglas's contributions have been widely recognized. She was named one of Houston's "Top 30 Most Influential Women," "Global Humanitarian Leader", and "Houston's 50 Most Influential Women of 2025", a reflection of her significant impact in the philanthropic and nonprofit sectors. Her community involvement includes active participation in organizations such as Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., the Association of Fundraising Professionals, and Top Ladies of Distinction, Inc. She serves as a board member of Houston Area Urban League and Boys and Girls Clubs of Greater Houston.

She and her husband have two adult children, and they enjoy family travel and watching collegiate and professional sports together.

ABBY BRANTLEY

VICE PRESIDENT, ACCOUNTING

Abby Brantley enters her 17th season with the club, currently serving as Vice President, Accounting. In this role, Abby oversees the Accounting and Payroll functions of the organization. Prior to her promotion to this role in 2021, Abby held the position of Controller for the club since 2013, and prior to that was a Senior Accountant.

Prior to joining the Astros, Abby worked in public accounting for Deloitte and Pannell Kerr Forster, with a focus on corporate and partnership taxation.

Abby is a graduate of the University of Texas at Austin where she earned a Bachelor of Business Administration in Accounting, as well as a Master in Professional Accounting. Abby also earned her CPA license in 2006.

She resides in Pearland with her family.

GENE DIAS

VICE PRESIDENT, COMMUNICATIONS

Gene Dias joined the Astros in February of 2009 and now enters his 18th season with the ballclub. Prior to joining the Houston organization, he spent close to 20 years with the Philadelphia Phillies in both Media and Community Relations.

Gene plays a major role in baseball and business communications for the Astros and supports initiatives throughout the organization. He has guided his staff through eight of the last nine postseasons, including Houston's first two World Series Championships (2017, 2022) in franchise history along with its AL Pennant-winning runs in 2019 and 2021. Since 2017, the Astros have played more postseason games (97) and have the most postseason wins (59) of any club in the American League, having advanced to the ALCS in a record seven straight seasons (2017-23) and to four World Series in that span.

For several years leading up to Billy Wagner's Hall of Fame induction in 2025, Gene and his staff put together an effective, far-reaching media campaign on Wagner's behalf, targeting Hall of Fame voters. The Astros communications team also assembled similar campaigns for both Craig Biggio and Jeff Bagwell leading up to their respective Hall of Fame inductions in 2015 and 2017, respectively.

From 1989 to 2008, Gene worked for the Phillies, first as an intern in the ticket sales office before joining the Media Relations staff full-time. After serving as Media Relations Manager, he was promoted to Director of Community Relations in 2000, where he was instrumental in creating a number of community-based programs and events, some of which are still in place today. He was also successful in increasing the player's community involvement and was a member of the Phillies Charities, Inc. Board of Directors, playing a role in increasing the amount of dollars raised for charity. In 2003, the Phillies received the prestigious Philadelphia Sports Congress Community Service Award for the first time. Prior to joining the Phillies, Gene worked as a sports editor for Associated Newspapers in Stoughton, Mass.

Throughout his career in baseball, Gene has worked with Major League Baseball, assisting with the media relations duties at several World Series, League Championship Series and All-Star Games. Gene has also served as a board member of the Houston Chapter of the NAACP and volunteers his time to assist with the charitable efforts of the Astros Foundation.

Over the years, Gene has been recognized for his work on several occasions. In 2025, he was named as a winner of the President's EMMY Award from the Lone Star EMMY Board of Governors, receiving this award at the annual Lone Star Sports EMMY Awards Gala in Dallas in August. In December of 2023, Gene received a "Trailblazer" award from the Houston Association of Black Journalists "in recognition of outstanding service in media and community." Following the 2017 season, Gene was named the recipient of the 2017 Robert O. Fishel Award for Public Relations Excellence. The Fishel Award goes to the "active, non-uniformed representative of Major League Baseball whose ethics, character, dedication, service, professionalism and humanitarianism best represent the standards propounded by Robert O. Fishel." In 2017, the Astros organization also received the Allan H. Selig Award for Philanthropic Excellence in recognition of the Houston Astros Community Leaders program, with the nomination being submitted by the Astros communications staff.

Gene received his Bachelor of Arts degree in journalism from the University of Massachusetts where he was a member of the varsity baseball team. He and his wife Kandee live in Kingwood, Texas and have two children, son Maxwell and daughter Sydney. Maxwell, who played college baseball at the University of New Orleans and at Southern Nazarene University, was a late-round draft pick by the Astros in 2019 while Sydney is a junior at Texas A&M and a member of the Aggie Dance Team. She also competed in the Miss Texas pageant in 2025 and the Miss Texas Teen pageant in 2023, finishing second runner-up.

VITO CIMINELLO

VICE PRESIDENT, TAX

Vito Ciminello enters his 10th full season as the club's Vice President, Tax. In his role, he is responsible for all tax compliance and planning functions for the Houston Astros.

Prior to joining the ballclub, Vito held various tax management positions with companies such as KBR and Waste Management and public accounting positions with KPMG.

Vito received his undergraduate degree from Brown University and his Masters in Management from Northwestern University. He resides in League City, Texas.

BOBBY FORREST

VICE PRESIDENT, STADIUM OPERATIONS

Bobby Forrest has served as the club's Vice President of Stadium Operations since January of 2007. He originally joined the Astros franchise on Jan. 2, 1995, as a member of the engineering department. Bobby was subsequently promoted to Engineering Supervisor in 1997, Engineering Manager in 1999, and Senior Director of Engineering and Maintenance in 2003. He is responsible for all building operations, which includes the Engineering, Groundskeeping, Guest Services and Security and Parking departments. Bobby also played a key role in the club's move from the Astrodome to its current home, Daikin Park, prior to the 2000 season.

Bobby is a member of the International Association of Assembly Managers, and the Stadium Managers Association.

He and his wife, Tiffani, reside in Magnolia, Texas.

MARI GLASS

VICE PRESIDENT, PHILANTHROPY

Mari Glass joined the Astros in January 2025 as Vice President, Philanthropy. She brings over 10 years of experience in the non-profit and fundraising space.

Mari joined the Astros after serving as the Vice President and Senior Consultant for the Treviño Consulting Group since 2017. In her role she worked directly with a portfolio of clients to help them advance and implement their strategic goals through board development advisement, fundraising, special events consultation, marketing and advocacy. A large part of her role was working with an organization's senior leadership teams to serve as a liaison during the entirety of the consulting engagement.

Mari began her work in development in 2014 at Fund for Teachers as a Development and Special Events Officer. In that role she developed and executed annual fundraising plans to increase contributions from all revenue sources, including foundations, individuals and corporations.

Mari received a Master of Arts in Nonprofit Management in 2017 from the University of Houston-Downtown and a Bachelor of Arts in Psychology from the University of Texas. She has extensive experience in Board governance, Campaign planning and execution, fundraising database systems, annual fund, and special events fundraising.

Her most important role is being a mom to Benjamin and Vivienne. Mari and her husband, Bryan, spend their time with their two children, Cuatro (dog), and Toulouse and Jacques (cats.)

CHRIS HANZ

VICE PRESIDENT, INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

Chris Hanz joined the Astros in March 2016 and enters his 11th season as Vice President, Information Technology. Chris came to the Astros with over 25 years of information technology leadership experience across a variety of industries, including consulting, energy trading, oil and gas, chemicals, and logistics and transportation. Chris provides strategic leadership for the club's information technology investments and oversees the day-to-day operation of technology for the Astros and Minute Maid Park, plus the club's minor league affiliates and other operating locations.

Prior to joining the Astros, Chris worked in a variety of information technology leadership roles with several companies, including Accenture, Duke Energy, CEVA Logistics and, most recently, Halliburton. Chris joined Halliburton in 2014 and served as Senior Manager of IT Mergers and Acquisitions where he was instrumental in executing two major divestitures from the company's business portfolio. Prior to holding that post, Chris was a partner in the CIO Advisory practice for Tatum, LLC and led a number of business process improvement, technology strategy and M&A projects.

A lifelong Texan, Chris was raised in New Braunfels and went on to graduate from the University of Texas at Austin with a bachelor's of business administration degree in finance and honors business. Chris and his wife, Gayle live in Kingwood, Texas, and have two daughters, Hannah and Sarabeth.

MARIAN HARPER

VICE PRESIDENT, FOUNDATION AND COMMUNITY AFFAIRS

The 2026 season marks Marian Harper's 35th with the Houston Astros. Over the past three decades, Marian has been an integral part of all team charitable, fundraising and community outreach initiatives. As Vice President of Foundation and Community Affairs, Marian manages community engagement programs, fundraising operations, and leads the team family relations efforts. Marian was instrumental in development of the Astros Foundation, the official team charity of the Houston Astros and the Astros MLB Youth Academy, a cornerstone program of the foundation.

Marian serves on the board of directors for the Astros Foundation, the Houston Downtown Management District, and the Texas Council on Family Violence. Marian is dedicated to the Houston community as an American Leadership Forum Senior Fellow, a Leadership Houston alumnus and a graduate of the Leadership for Nonprofit Executives Program from Rice University. She is a member of the Astros Hall of Fame Selection Committee.

Marian was honored with the prestigious Jimmy Wynn Toy Cannon Award for exceptional community service by the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame, and in 2022 was awarded the Fred Hartman Long and Meritorious Service Award by the Houston Chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America. Marian was named a 2023 Women on the Move honoree for professional achievement and outstanding service to the community by the Texas Executive Women.

A native of Pittsburg, Texas, Marian started with the Astros in 1992 and rose through the ranks, starting as promotions coordinator for the Marketing and Sponsorship departments, then as Director of Community Relations, working with players, alumni, fans, businesses, and non-profit leaders to create positive impact in the Greater Houston community.

TOM JENNINGS

VICE PRESIDENT, MERCHANDISING & RETAIL OPERATIONS

Tom Jennings, the Astros Vice President of Merchandising and Retail Operations, is entering his 14th season with the organization.

In his role, Tom manages all aspects of the Astros Team Stores at Daikin Park. Over the course of his tenure with the club, Tom has led the Astros retail growth from the lowest-ranked in Major League Baseball to one of the top teams, which included winning the 2014 MLBPA Team Retailer Award. Tom's team is also responsible for the merchandising of the three Astros owned Minor League affiliates: Triple A Sugar Land, Double A Corpus Christi and Low A Fayetteville. The work on the Woodpeckers brand and subsequent retail assortment led to the team being awarded the 2019 Best New Logo/Branding Award by Baseball Digest.

His team also oversees merchandising for the Astros Spring Training site in West Palm Beach, Fla., where they are in charge of purchasing product for both the Astros and Washington Nationals, the latter of whom shares the same ballpark.

Tom began his retail career in the buying office of Montgomery Ward in Chicago. He has spent time with May Department Stores, Home Shopping Network and Kohl's on their e-commerce side. He started his sports career by running the retail department for the Milwaukee Brewers with their concessionaire, Sportservice, where he helped the team achieve the MLB Retailer of the Year award in 2008.

Born in Hinsdale, Ill., Tom has lived in Pittsburgh (twice), Cleveland, Detroit, St. Louis, Tampa, Milwaukee, Chicago (twice) and Gary, Ind., where he went to high school and subsequently graduated from Indiana University in Bloomington, Ind.

Tom has two children, son Jack and daughter Quinn.

P.J. KEENE

VICE PRESIDENT, TICKET SALES AND SERVICES

P.J. Keene, who is entering his 15th season with the club, joined the Houston Astros in 2012 as Director of Group Sales before moving to Sr. Director of Ticket Sales where he oversaw the club's new sales efforts and growth of the Astros season ticket base. In his time with the club, P.J. has directly overseen every aspect of the Ticket Sales & Service Team, including Season Ticket Retention and Premium Sales. As Vice President of Ticket Sales, P.J. works hand in hand with the Astros Marketing and Analytics Teams to ensure the best possible ticketing experience for all Astros fans. Under his leadership, the Ticket Sales team continues to ensure Astros Season Tickets holders, the best in all of sports, always know that Daikin Park is home while simultaneously growing the fan base by bringing in more fans each year to enjoy Astros baseball.

Prior to joining the Astros, P.J. worked in Ticket Sales for the Arizona Diamondbacks and Columbus Blue Jackets of the NHL.

He is originally from Springfield, Illinois and a graduate of Illinois State University. Keene is married with three kids and currently resides in Spring, TX. When not at Daikin Park, he spends much of his time coaching youth sports and traveling around between much smaller ballparks and venues to watch his kids play sports.

RACHEL QUAN

VICE PRESIDENT, SPECIAL EVENTS

Rachel Quan joined the Astros in July 2024 as Vice President, Special Events. She came to the Astros from a marketing, sponsorship and communications agency in Houston (Professional Sports Partners), where she was the managing director of the Live Events division.

Rachel's background in production and events began as a festival director and then the National Director of Production and Arrangements for an international non-profit that conducted festivals around the country. She first oversaw one of their largest festivals to date in Houston and then went on to manage production in other festival cities. From here she headed up the Houston office for Mowalla Productions, where she met her future business partner, who co-founded SBHH with her a number of years later.

A large component of Rachel's events career was in the co-founding of SBHH, an event management and production company where she was the managing partner. She, along with three other company partners, made a name for themselves in the large event space - including concerts, corporate conferences, sporting events, stadium events and large outdoor festivals. Through the company, Rachel managed various large-scale events for a myriad of clients including as the Vice President of External Operations for the HLOC with the three most recent NCAA Men's Final Fours in Houston (2011, 2016, 2023) in addition to working on the 2018 and 2022 Men's Final Fours. She sold her partnership in SBHH in 2022.

Rachel was a founding board member for WISE (Women in Sports & Events) in Houston in 2016, and the recipient of their Woman of Inspiration award in 2022. She was also the recipient of the Houston Business Journal's Diversity in Business, Outstanding Head of Diversity award in 2023 while on the executive team for the Men's Final Four.

MATT RICHARDSON

VICE PRESIDENT, SPONSORSHIP

Matt Richardson originally joined the Astros in June 2014 spending five years in the Corporate Partnership development team. After a two-year stint in Los Angeles with AEG Global Partnerships, he returned to the Astros organization serving as the Senior Director of Corporate Partnerships Sales. In his current role as Vice President, Corporate Partnerships, Matt leads the business development and retention efforts with a focus on driving revenue growth across the Astros portfolio and developing strategic community engagement programs. Over his nine years with the Astros, he's played an integral role in developing successful sponsorship marketing campaigns that connect partners to the Astros fan experience in meaningful ways.

Prior to joining the Astros, Matt worked in partnership marketing in various roles and industries such as College Athletics (University of Kansas & Valero Alamo Bowl) to Six Flags Entertainment Group.

Matt was raised in Parsons, KS and is a proud graduate of the University of Kansas. He and his wife, Nicole, have two baby girls and resides in West Houston. When not at Daikin Park, he spends much of his time with family, walking his two retrievers, traveling around the world and visiting family and friends.

JAY VERRILL

VICE PRESIDENT, BUSINESS STRATEGY & ANALYTICS

Jay joined the Astros in July of 2012 as an analyst and worked his way up to his current title of Vice President in August of 2020. In his role, Jay provides data analysis and strategic planning support across business units. His notable projects as a member of the Astros include the financial modeling of the $18M center field renovation project, needs-analysis fan segmentation, and ticket yield maximization strategy.

Prior to joining the Astros, Jay started his career in the Boston area, doing strategy consulting at Putnam Associates, Inc.

A native of Maine, Jay studied as an undergraduate at Tufts University, earning a BA in Economics, and then later earned his MBA at the MIT Sloan School of Management. He was a part of the student leadership team for the MIT Sloan Sports Analytics Conference.

Jay has served as a Big Brother with the Big Brothers, Big Sisters organization since 2007. He lives in Houston with his wife and six-year-old daughter.

JASON WOODEN

VICE PRESIDENT, MARKETING

Jason Wooden joined the Astros in December 2015 and enters his 10th season with the ballclub as Vice President of Marketing. In his role, Jason oversees the marketing and advertising aspects of the organization through the development of core strategic campaign initiatives and media planning as well as creative services and overall content strategy. In his role he also helps lead the marketing and advertising efforts for the PGA TOUR Texas Children's Houston Open in partnership with the Astros Golf Foundation since 2019.

Jason started his professional career at Academy Sports + Outdoors and spent 12 years in various roles within the company before joining the Astros. In his most recent role at Academy as Media Director, Jason oversaw the strategic planning and execution of print, TV/radio media buying and commercial production. He also served as Regional Promotions Director and was responsible for developing key sponsorships and partnerships both at the grassroots and professional levels.

Jason is a graduate of Texas Christian University where he earned a BFA in graphic design. Jason is a longtime Houston resident and Astros fan.

JOSE CRUZ

COMMUNITY OUTREACH EXECUTIVE

The 2025 season is the 43rd with the Houston Astros organization for Jose Cruz, who is one of the most popular figures in franchise history.

Jose has served in several roles with the Astros during his long, distinguished tenure. In his current role as community outreach executive, Jose makes public appearances on behalf of the club and serves as an ambassador for the organization.

Prior to his current role, he spent five seasons as a special assistant to the general manager (2010-14). Prior to that, he was a Major League coach for 13 seasons (1997-2009).

On the field, Jose spent 13 of his outstanding 18-year Major League playing career as an outfielder with the Astros (1975-87). In that span, he developed into an All-Star and one of the most popular players ever to wear the Astros uniform. Nicknamed "Cheo", Jose held franchise records in games, at-bats, hits, total bases and triples at the time of his retirement. His 80 career triples remain the franchise record. In addition to his Astros career, Jose also played for the St. Louis Cardinals (1970-74) and the New York Yankees (1988).

Jose holds the distinction of being involved with the first nine of the Astros postseason appearances, three as a player (1980, '81 and '86) and six as a coach (1997-99, '01, '04-05). He was the Astros Team MVP four times and hit .300 six times in his career while stealing 317 bases.

Jose's uniform No. 25 was retired by the Astros on Oct. 3, 1992, along with former teammate Mike Scott's No. 33. They were the third and fourth numbers retired by the team. In 1999, Jose was selected by a panel of experts as one of the three outfielders on the franchise's All-Astrodome team. In 2003, he was inducted into the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame. On August 3, 2019, Jose was inducted into the Astros Hall of Fame as a part of the inaugural class.

Jose and his wife, Zoraida, make their home in Houston and have four children: Jose Javier, Jose Cheito, Shakira and Jose Enrique. His son, Jose Jr., was the first-round selection (third player overall) of the Seattle Mariners in the 1995 June free agent draft. Jose Jr. graduated from Bellaire (TX) High School and attended Rice University, where he was also the Owls Head Coach (2021-2025). As a high school player, Jose Jr. led Bellaire to the number one national ranking by USA Today and was a finalist for the Golden Spikes Award while at Rice. Jose Enrique also excelled on the baseball diamond, helping to lead Rice University to a national championship in 2003 before being drafted by the New York Yankees in the 13th round of the 2003 June Draft.

ASTROS COACHING STAFF

CHASE THE FIGHT

JOE ESPADA 19

MANAGER

Full Name: Josue Espada
Born: 8/30/75 in Santurce, PR Resides: Katy, TX
Opening Day Age: 50 Bats/Throws: Right/Right

MAJOR LEAGUE COACHING CAREER

Third Base Coach, Miami Marlins (2010-13); Third Base Coach, New York Yankees (2015-17); Bench Coach, Houston Astros (2018-2023); Manager, Houston Astros (2024-present)

Joe Espada enters his third season as the Astros skipper in 2026.

In 2025, for the second consecutive season, Espada and his staff were forced to deal with an extremely high number of injuries. Despite an ever-changing roster that often was missing key players, to his credit, Espada managed to navigate his club to an 87-75 record, finishing in a tie for the final AL Wild Card berth. However, due to a tiebreaker, the Astros missed the postseason for the first time since 2016.

Espada had a successful first season as a manager in 2024, leading the Astros to another American League West title. What made Espada's first season even more impressive was that his ballclub got off to a very slow start, due in large part to a slew of injuries to key players. Through the first 26 games of the season, the Astros were 7-19 and in last place in the AL West. However, from that point on, the Astros were an AL-best 81-54 (.600), overcoming a 10-game deficit en route to their seventh division title in eight seasons.

Espada was named as the 20th manager in franchise history on November 13, 2023, replacing Dusty Baker, who announced his retirement from managing following the 2023 season. Espada, who is a native of Santurce, Puerto Rico, became the second Latino manager in Astros history, joining Cuban-born Preston Gómez, who managed Houston from 1974-75.

Prior to taking over the reigns as Astros manager, Espada compiled several years of experience as a Major League coach, including six seasons (2018-23) as the Astros bench coach. In that span, the Astros won three American League pennants, a World Series championship and advanced to the ALCS in all six seasons.

Prior to joining the Astros in 2018, Espada spent three seasons as the Yankees third base coach from 2015-17, and four seasons as the Marlins third base coach from 2010-13. In between those two coaching stints, Espada served as a pro scout for the Yankees in 2014. Overall, he has 13 years of experience as a Major League coach.

Espada also has prior experience as a manager, having spent two stints as a skipper in the Puerto Rican Winter League, the first with Manati (2012-13) and the second with Carolina (2014-15). He also served as a third base coach for Team Puerto Rico in the 2013 and 2017 World Baseball Classics.

Before retiring as a player, Espada spent 10 seasons (1996-2005) as an infielder in the minor leagues after being selected by the Oakland A's in the second round of the 1996 MLB Amateur Draft. His playing career included stops in the Oakland (1996-2000), Florida (now Miami, 2001), Colorado (2001), Kansas City (2002), St. Louis (2003), Texas (2003) and Tampa Bay (2004) organizations. His best season came in 1999 with Double A Midland when he hit .338 in 113 games, finishing second in the Texas League in batting average among qualified hitters.

After retiring as a player, Espada began his coaching career in the Marlins minor league system in 2006. He would coach in the minor leagues for the Marlins for four seasons (2006-09) before being named third base coach for the Major League club in 2010.

In his first six seasons in Houston as a coach, Espada also served as infield coach, mentoring some of the game's biggest stars, including 2022 AL Gold Glove winner Jeremy Peña, who became the first rookie shortstop ever to win a Gold Glove. In 2021, both Carlos Correa and Yuli Gurriel earned Gold Glove Awards, while the Astros earned the Rawlings AL Team Gold Glove Award.

Additionally, under Espada's tutelage, the Astros led the American League in fielding percentage in four of six seasons between 2018-23.

Prior to his professional career, Espada attended the University of Mobile (Ala.), where he still owns the school's top two single-season batting averages (.468 in 1995 and .446 in 1996) and top overall career batting average of .442.

Espada is married to Dr. Pamela Espada, who is the sister of former Orioles manager Brandon Hyde's wife. The Espadas have two daughters, Eliana Marie and Viviana Elena. Active in the community both in Puerto Rico and in Houston, Espada has given countless clinics to youth baseball groups, including at the Astros Youth Academy. Espada has also been involved in various Houston charities, and enjoys spending time with his family.

OMAR LÓPEZ 22

BENCH COACH

Full Name: Omar E. López
Born: 1/3/77 in Valencia, VZ Resides: Orlando, FL
Opening Day Age: 49 Bats/Throws: Right/Right

MAJOR LEAGUE COACHING CAREER

First Base Coach, Houston Astros (2020-2023); Bench Coach, Houston Astros (2024-present)

The 2026 season will be Omar López's seventh as a member of the Astros Major League coaching staff and his third as the bench coach. López was named as Joe Espada's replacement as bench coach after Espada was named as the Astros new manager following the 2023 season. López had spent three of the last four seasons as the Astros first base coach (2020, 2022-23) and one as the third base coach (2021), filling in for Gary Pettis as he recovered from multiple myloma.

Throughout his career, López has gained valuable experience as a manager at various levels. In the offseason, he guided his Santurce club to the Puerto Rican Winter League championship and an entry into the Caribbean Series. In this year's World Baseball Classic, he served as manager of Team Venezuela for the second consecutive time (also in 2023). López, who was born in Valencia, VZ, also was a part of Team Venezuela's staff in the 2017 World Baseball Classic, serving as their quality control coach.

Although the 2026 season is López' seventh on the Astros Major League staff, it is his 28th season in the Astros organization overall. He joined the Astros Major League staff in 2020 after a successful two-year stint as manager of the Double-A Corpus Christi Hooks (2018-19). In 2018, López was named the Texas League Manager of the Year after guiding the Hooks to an 82-56 record and a spot in the postseason.

Overall, López spent 12 seasons managing in the Astros farm system. Prior to managing the Hooks, he had stints at Buies Creek (2017), Quad Cities (2013-14, 2016), Lancaster (2015), Greeneville (2011-12), the Gulf Coast League (2009-10) and the Venezuelan Summer League (2008). In 2013, López led Quad Cities to a Midwest League Championship title after an 81-57 finish in the regular season. That team featured 16 future Major Leaguers, including two future All Stars in shortstop Carlos Correa and right-handed pitcher Lance McCullers Jr.

Additionally, López was named the Manager of the Year in the Venezuelan Professional Baseball League for the 2014-15 season after guiding the Caribes de Anzoátegui to a league-best 39-24 regular season record and an LVBP Championship title in what was his first year as the club's manager. As a 38-year-old, López was the youngest manager in the league and became the third manager in the history of the Caribes club to win the prestigious award.

In 2010, López earned the Astros Player Development Man of the Year award, as he was credited with guiding the organization's Spanish-speaking prospects through their first year of professional baseball in the United States. Prior to starting his managerial career in 2008, López served as a hitting and infield instructor for the Astros Venezuelan program and was a full-time scout from 1999-2007. While in Venezuela, López was one of the scouts who recommended that the Astros sign Jose Altuve, who was an unheralded, 16-year-old free agent at the time.

Prior to coaching, López played three seasons of minor league baseball with the Chicago White Sox (1996-97) and Arizona Diamondbacks (1998) organizations. He played his first professional season with Rookie Level Bristol in 1996, leading the club in walks over 55 games. In 1997 at Bristol, the third baseman hit .276 with 23 RBI while setting career highs in almost every category. He finished his playing career in 1998 with Arizona's Class A affiliate at South Bend.

López and his wife, Helen, reside in Orlando, Fla. They have two children, Omar Eduardo and Emily Gabriela.

JOSH MILLER 36

PITCHING COACH

Full Name: Joshua Benjamin Miller

Born: 2/7/79 in Melbourne Beach, FL Resides: Katy, TX

Opening Day Age: 47 Bats/Throws: Right/Right

MAJOR LEAGUE COACHING CAREER

Bullpen Coach, Houston Astros (2019-20); Pitching Coach, Houston Astros (2021-present)

The 2026 season will be Josh Miller's eighth as a part of the Astros coaching staff and his sixth as pitching coach. Prior to being named pitching coach for the 2021 season, Miller served as bullpen coach in 2019 and 2020.

In 2025, despite having a pitching staff decimated by key injuries, the Astros finished fifth in the AL in team ERA at 3.86 and once again led the AL in strikeouts with 1,504, which has become a common theme in recent years. Astros pitchers have finished first or second in the AL in punchouts six times in the last 10 seasons.

The Astros have been one of the most successful clubs in the Majors in recent years, and the performance of the pitching staff has played a significant role. Since Miller was named as a pitching coach for the Astros Major League staff in 2021, Houston pitchers lead the AL in ERA (3.64), strikeouts (7,423), opponents batting average (.229) and wins (466) and are tied for the second lowest Home Runs Allowed per 9.0 innings pct. (1.13).

After working with veteran pitching coach Brent Strom at the Major League level for three seasons (2019-21), Miller took on an expanded role as Astros pitching coach in 2022 and the results were historic. That season, Houston's pitching staff led the AL in several key categories, including ERA (2.90), opponents batting average (.212) and WHIP (1.09). All three totals were the best in club history for a full, 162-game season. Additionally, the club's bullpen ERA of 2.80 was the lowest in the Majors and the third-lowest in franchise history.

Pitching was the key to the Astros outstanding postseason run in 2022 as the staff posted a 2.29 ERA in 13 games overall and a minscule 0.83 ERA in the bullpen. Additionally, Astros pitchers had a .172 opponents average and a 0.95 WHIP in the postseason.

The 2026 season will be Miller's 20th with the Astros overall. Prior to joining the Major League staff, Miller spent the 2018 season as the organization's minor league pitching coordinator. He also served as the Astros complex pitching coordinator for two seasons from 2016-17, overseeing the Astros pitching programs at their complex in Kissimmee and then West Palm Beach, Fla.

Miller began his coaching career in 2013 as a pitching coach at Rookie Level Greeneville, which followed a two-year stint as a pro scout for the Astros. He then spent three total seasons as Greeneville's pitching coach, helping to lead the club to an Appalachian League Championship title in 2015.

A veteran of seven minor league seasons as a pitcher in the Phillies (2001-2003) and Astros (2005-08) organizations, Miller was originally drafted by Philadelphia in the 32nd round of the June 2001 draft out of North Carolina State University. During his 10 combined seasons in the minors and Independent leagues (2004-05, 2009-10), he posted a 67-55 record and a 4.01 ERA.

ASSISTANT PITCHING COACH

Full Name: Ethan Russell Katz
Born: 7/483 in Los Angeles, CA Resides: Wilmete, IL
Opening Day Age: 42 Bats/Throws: Right/Right

MAJOR LEAGUE COACHING CAREER

Assistant Pitching Coach, San Francisco Giants (2020); Pitching Coach, Chicago White Sox (2021-25); Assistant Pitching Coach, Houston Astros (2026)

Ethan Katz joins the Astros Major League staff in 2026 as an assistant pitching coach after a five-year stint as pitching coach for the Chicago White Sox (2021-25).

Katz brings several years of experience as a pitching coach to the Astros, with six of those years being spent in the Major Leagues.

In 2025, Katz oversaw a young White Sox pitching staff that showed significant improvement over the previous season. The White Sox team ERA went from 4.67 in 2024 to 4.26 in 2025, a difference of 41 points. In particular, under Katz's tutelage, starter Shane Smith and reliever Mike Vasil had outstanding rookie seasons. The performance of the White Sox young pitching staff was one of the key reasons that the team was able to tally 19 more wins than in the previous season. Katz also played a role in the development of Dylan Cease, who emerged as one of the top starting pitchers in baseball while with the White Sox. Carlos Rodon, Michael Kopech and Garrett Crochet are also pitchers that displayed solid improvement under Katz, the latter of whom made the successful transistion from a reliever to an All-Star starting pitcher.

Prior to joining the White Sox staff, Katz spent the 2020 season as assistant pitching coach for the San Francisco Giants. He was originally hired by the Giants in 2019 as their assistant pitching coordinator.

After a five-year career as a minor league pitcher, Katz began his coaching career at Harvard-Westlake Upper School in Los Angeles in September of 2009. During his four seasons there, he had the distinction of coaching three future Major League pitchers in Max Fried, Jack Flaherty and Lucas Giolito.

After his stint at Harvard-Westlake, Katz was hired by the Angels organization in 2013, first as a pitching coach for their Rookie Level club in Arizona before moving up to serve as pitching coach for Class A Burlington from 2014-15. In 2016, he joined the Mariners organization, serving as a pitching coach for Class A Bakersfield in his first season before moving up to their Class AA Arkansas club for two seasons (2017-18).

Prior to becoming a coach, Katz pitched professionally for five seasons (2005-09). He was drafted out of Sacramento State University in the 26th round of the 2005 Draft by the Colorado Rockies. In his four seasons pitching in the Rockies minor league system, Katz posted a combined record of 13-7 with a 2.79 ERA in 102 appearances, mostly as a reliever. In 2009, he pitched for Victoria in Canada's independent Golden Baseball League.

Katz and his wife Stephanie have two children: Jackson and Kinsley.

VICTOR RODRIGUEZ 47

HITTING COACH

Full Name: Victor Manual Rodriguez

Born: 7/14/61 in New York, NY Resides: Ft. Myers, FL

Opening Day Age: 64 Bats/Throws: Right/Right

MAJOR LEAGUE COACHING CAREER

Assistant Hitting Coach, Boston Red Sox (2013-17); Assistant Hitting Coach, Cleveland (2018-23); Hitting Coach, San Diego Padres (2024-25); Hitting Coach, Houston Astros (2026)

Victor Rodriguez was named as the Astros hitting coach in November, 2025. The 2026 season will be Rodriguez's 50th in professional baseball as a player, instructor or coach. He joins the Astros after a successful two-year stint as the Padres hitting coach (2024-25). While in San Diego, his Padres hitters had the fewest strikeouts in the NL in both 2024 and 2025 en route to back-to-back postseason appearances. In 2024, they were tied for the highest batting average in the Majors (.263). Additionally, that season, the Padres had three Silver Slugger Award winners, tying their club record.

Prior to joining the Padres, Rodriguez spent six seasons (2018-23) as assistant hitting coach for Cleveland. While there, Cleveland's hitters once again excelled at making contact, finishing with the fewest strikeouts in the Majors in three of his six seasons (2018, 2022-23).

Before his stint in Cleveland, Rodriguez earned his first Major League coaching job, serving as assistant hitting coach for the Boston Red Sox for five seasons (2013-17). The highlight of his time in Boston was the World Series champion 2013 club, which led the Majors in runs scored and OPS while finishing second in batting average. Over the five-year span in Boston, the Red Sox led the Majors in runs scored and OBP while finishing third in OPS and batting average. In 2014, Rodriguez was named "Man of the Year" by the BoSox club, which is an award given annually to a team member recognizing their contributions on the field and their cooperation and efforts in the community.

Prior to his stint with Boston's Major League club, Rodriguez paid his dues, spending from 1996-2012 working in the Red Sox farm system. In that span, he served as minor league hitting coordinator (2002, 2007-12), Latin field coordinator (2004-06), minor league hitting instructor (2003) and as a minor league hitting coach (1996-01).

As a professional player, Rodriguez spent parts of 19 seasons in the Orioles (1977-84), Padres (1985), Cardinals (1986-87), Twins (1988-91), Phillies (1992-93), Marlins (1994) and Red Sox (1995) organizations.

In two Major League stints, those coming with Baltimore (1984) and Minnesota (1989), Rodriguez hit a combined .429 (12x28) in 17 games. In his 1,759 career minor league games, he hit .295 (1905x6468) with 102 HR and 774 RBI.

Rodriguez and his wife, Elba, have two sons, Victor Jr. and Miguel. Victor Jr. serves as a scouting supervisor for the Tampa Bay Rays. Miguel was selected by the Red Sox in the 36th round of the 2012 June Draft as a catcher.

ANTHONY IAPOCE 76

ASSISTANT HITTING COACH

Full Name: Anthony Iapoce
Born: 8/23/73 in Astoria, NY Resides: Williston Park, NY

Hitting Coach, Texas Rangers (2016-18); Hitting Coach, Chicago Cubs (2019-21); First Base Coach, Detroit Tigers (2024-25); Assistant Hitting Coach, Houston Astros (2026)

In November of 2025, the Astros named Anthony Iapoce as assistant hitting coach.

Iapoce brings multiple years of experience as a Major League coach to the Astros, including stints as a hitting coach for the Rangers (2016-18) and Cubs (2019-21) and, most recently, as a first base coach for the Tigers (2024-25).

Overall, Iapoce has more than 27 years of experience in baseball as a player, coach, manager and front office executive.

The former outfielder was selected by the Milwaukee Brewers in the 33rd round of the 1994 Draft out of nearby Lamar University (Beaumount, TX), and would go on to play 11 seasons (1994-2000; 2002-05) in the minor leagues for the Brewers and Marlins organizations as well as in an independent league.

Iapoce's professional coaching career began in the Marlins system in 2006, serving as hitting coach for Single A Jamestown that season. He would also serve as hitting coach at Single A Greensboro (2007) and Single A Jupiter (2008-09) before joining the Blue Jays organization as roving hitting coordinator for three seasons (2010-12).

After his stint in the Blue Jays system, Iapoce's would join the Cubs organization as a special assistant to the GM, while also overseeing the club's minor league hitting program from 2013-15. He would then get his first big league coaching opportunity in 2016 when he was named Major League hitting coach for the Rangers, where he would spend three seasons (2016-18).

He then served as Major League hitting coach for the Cubs for the next three seasons (2019-21) before being named senior hitting coordinator for the Red Sox in 2022. After one season with the Red Sox, Iapoce joined the Tigers organization after being named manager of their Triple A Toledo club in 2023. . After a season in Toledo, Iapoce joined the Tigers Major League staff as first base coach in 2024.

DAVE CLARK 23

FIRST BASE COACH

Full Name: David Earl Clark
Born: 9/3/62 in Tupelo, MS Resides: Nashville, TN
Opening Day Age: 63 Bats/Throws: Left/Right

MAJOR LEAGUE COACHING CAREER

Hitting Coach, Pittsburgh Pirates (2001-02); Third Base Coach, Houston Astros (2009-12); First Base Coach, Houston Astros (2013); Third Base Coach, Detroit Tigers (2014-19); First Base Coach, Detroit Tigers (2020); First Base Coach, Houston Astros (2024-present)

On December 1, 2023, the Astros announced that Dave Clark would be joining the Major League staff as first base coach, marking a return to the Astros organization for the longtime coach and former player.

Clark enters 2026 with 16 seasons of experience as a Major League coach, which includes seven seasons as part of the Astros Major League coaching staff, and parts of 13 seasons as a Major League player, including one season with the Astros (1998).

Prior to his current stint with the Astros, Clark's most recent stint as a Major League coach was with the Detroit Tigers, where he served as their third base coach from 2014-19 before moving to first base coach in 2020.

Prior to joining the Tigers staff, Clark spent five seasons with the Astros Major League staff, as third base coach from 2009-12 and as first base coach in 2013. Clark also had a brief stint as Astros manager in 2009 after being named on an interim basis on Sept. 21, replacing Cecil Cooper. Clark managed the club's final 13 games.

In addition to his Major League duties, Clark spent the 2010-11 offseason managing the Licey Tigers in the Dominican Winter League.

Prior to joining the Astros Major League coaching staff, Clark spent four seasons as a minor league manager (2005-08) in the Astros farm system, which included three seasons (2005-07) guiding the Double A Corpus Christi Hooks, whom he led to the Texas League championship in 2006. Clark moved up to manage the Triple A Round Rock Express in 2008 before joining the Astros coaching staff in 2009.

Prior to his stint managing in the Astros system, Clark had success managing in the Pirates farm system, earning Carolina League Manager of the Year honors at Class A Lynchburg in 2003 and then leading Class A Hickory to an 85-55 record en route to the South Atlantic League title in 2004.

Clark's first season coaching came in 2000 as the Triple A Nashville Sounds hitting coach. After just one season as a minor league coach, Clark was hired as the Pirates Major League hitting coach, a post he would hold for the next two seasons (2001-02).

Clark played for Cleveland (1986-89), the Cubs (1990, 97), Royals (1991), Pirates (1992-96), Dodgers (1996) and Astros (1998) during his 13-year Major League playing career, compiling a .264 average with 62 home runs and 284 RBI in 905 career games. He made two postseason appearances, one of which was in the 1998 National League Division Series while with the Astros where he appeared in two games as a pinch-hitter (walked both times). Clark also appeared in two games for the Dodgers in the 1996 NLDS.

Clark was originally selected by Cleveland in the first round (11th overall pick) of the 1983 June Draft and made his Major League debut with the Indians in 1986. He posted a .302 average in 808 career minor league games, including a .340 clip with 30 HR in just 108 games in 1987 at Buffalo (AA).

Clark attended Jackson (MS) State University where he was the team's MVP and top hitter in both 1982 and 1983. He was inducted into the Jackson State Sports Hall of Fame in November 2000, joining the likes of Walter Payton, Jackie Slater and Dennis "Oil Can" Boyd. His brother, Louis, played seven years in the NFL with Seattle (1987-93) and Green Bay (1994) and currently serves as director of pro personnel for the Los Angeles Chargers.

Clark and his wife, Vivian, make their home in Nashville, TN, and have two daughters: Meki and Kiki. He is a 1980 graduate of Shannon (MS) High School, and was 26-0 as a Golden Gloves boxer while in high school.

THIRD BASE COACH/RUN PREVENTION COORDINATOR

Full Name: Antonio Llamas Perezchica

Born: 4/20/66, Mexicali, MX Resides: La Quinta, CA

Opening Day Age: 59 Bats/Throws: Right/Right

MAJOR LEAGUE COACHING CAREER

Third Base Coach, Arizona Diamondbacks (2017-24); Third Base Coach, Houston Astros (2025-present)

Tony Perezchica, who joined the Astros in 2025 as the third base and infield coach/run prevention coordinator, has over 23 years of experience in professional baseball as a coach, coordinator, manager and player.

Perezchica played a significant role in the success of the Astros defense in 2025 as they finished fourth in the Majors in Defensive Runs Saved (24) and tied for third in the AL in fielding pct. (.988).

Prior to joining the Astros, Perezchica spent eight seasons (2017-24) as the Arizona Diamondbacks third base coach. While in Arizona, he was a part of two postseason teams, including the 2023 club that won the National League pennant.

Perezchica originally joined the Diamondbacks organization as a hitting coach in 1997, spending that first season at Double A Norwich before advancing to Triple A Columbus in 1998. He would spend the next four seasons as a hitting coach at Single A Greensboro (1999-2001) and Norwich (2002).

In 2003, he was named manager of Rookie-Advanced Missoula. In the next two seasons, he moved up the ladder, managing Single A South Bend in 2004 and Double A Tennessee in 2005. From 2006-13, Perezchica served as the D-backs minor league infield coordinator followed by a three-year stint as field coordinator (2014-16).

Perezchica also has Major League experience as a player, appearing in a combined 69 games with San Francisco (1988, 1990-91) and Cleveland (1991-92), primarily at shortstop. Highlights from his playing career include collecting his first Major League hit off future Hall of Famer Tom Glavine on Sept. 7, 1988 vs. Atlanta. He was originally drafted by San Francisco in the third round of the 1984 Major League Draft and played 11 seasons in the minor leagues.

A native of Mexicali, Mexico, Perezchica was inducted into the Mexicali Sports Hall of Fame in April of 2023. He is one of just six players born in Mexicali to play in the Major Leagues.

He is married, and he and his wife Natalie have three children, A.J., Alexandria and Jasmine.

Opening Day Age: 35 Bats/Throws: Right/Right

MAJOR LEAGUE COACHING CAREER

Quality Assurance Coach, Houston Astros (2024); Major League Field Coordinator/Outfield Coach, Houston Astros (2025-present)

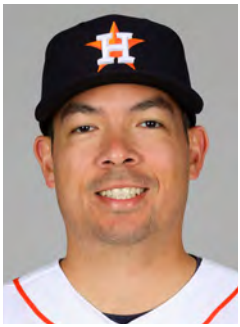
Jason Bell joined the Astros Major League coaching staff in 2024. This season will be his second as a Major League Field Coordinator/Outfield coach and his third overall on the big league staff. The 2026 season will also mark his 10th overall in the Astros organization. As part of his current duties, Bell creates the Astros daily workout schedule for Major League Spring Training camp. Bell also served as a coach for Team Isreal in this year's World Baseball Classic.

Prior to the 2024 season, Bell served as Astros minor league field coordinator from 2019-2023. As part of his duties at that time, he oversaw the day-to-day workout schedule for minor league Spring Training camp. Bell also served as the Assistant Director, Player Development in 2023.

Bell originally joined the Astros organization in 2017 as a development coach at Class A Quad Cities where they won the Midwest League Championship. In 2018, he was the manager at Class A Short Season Tri-City and led the club to a New York-Penn League Championship.

He began his professional career as an intern at Sports Info Solutions in 2014. His coaching career began in August of 2014 at Ohio University, where he served as an assistant baseball coach and as their director of baseball operations and helped them to a MAC Championship title. In July of 2015, he moved on to the University of Maryland Eastern Shore where he was an assistant coach before landing at Heartland CC as an assistant coach in August of 2016.

Bell played baseball at Saint Louis University in 2010 and 2011 where he was on the A10 All-Tournament team as a Freshman right-handed pitcher and helped the team to a school record in wins. He then transferred to the University of Central Missouri where he earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Corporate Communications in 2013. He went on to earn a Master of Science degree in kinesiology, sport management at Central Missouri in 2014.



TOMMY KAWAMURA 99

GAME PLANNING COACH

Full Name: Thomas William Kawamura
Born: 6/6/92 in Seattle, WA Resides: Houston, TX
Opening Day Age: 33 Bats/Throws: Right/Right

MAJOR LEAGUE COACHING CAREER

Game Planning Coach, Houston Astros (2023-present)

Tommy Kawamura is in his fourth season as the Astros Major League game planning coach, which is a position that was added prior to the 2023 season. Although the 2026 season will be his fourth as part of the Major League coaching staff, Kawamura has played a significant role in the Astros baseball operations department for several years. Prior to the 2023 season, he served as manager of advance scouting. In that role, he worked in the clubhouse directly with the players, coaches and manager for all home and road games.

Kawamura first joined the Astros organization as a development coach at Double A Corpus Christi, serving in that role for the 2016 and 2017 seasons. He joined the Astros Major League staff as coordinator, Major League advance information in November of 2017. He would later be promoted to manager of advance scouting in November of 2020.

Prior to joining the Astros, Kawamura spent the 2015 season as a baseball operations intern with the New York Mets organization. Before joining the Mets, he was a video intern for Baseball Info. Solutions in 2014.

Kawamura is a graduate of Willamette University, in Salem, Oregon, where he was an infielder and four-year starter and served as team captain for two seasons. Kawamura earned a Bachelors of Arts degree at Willamette in Mathematics and Economics. In the offseason, Kawamura ran his first marathon, running in the Chevron Houston Marathon in January. TIM COSSINS 92

CATCHING INSTRUCTOR

Full Name: Timothy Carter Cossins

Born: 3/31/70 in Sonoma, CA Resides: Windsor, CA

Opening Day Age: 55 Bats/Throws: Right/Right

MAJOR LEAGUE COACHING CAREER

Major League Coach, Baltimore Orioles (2019-25); Catching Coach, Houston Astros (2026).

Tim Cossins brings over three decades of experience in professional baseball to the Astros Major League coaching staff. He will serve as the Astros catching instructor in 2026 in what will be his 25th season as either a coach, bullpen catcher or minor league manager.

Prior to joining the Astros, Cossins spent the last seven seasons (2019-25) as part of the Baltimore Orioles Major League coaching staff, serving as the Major League field coordinator/catching instructor. While in Baltimore, Cossins assisted in the development of catcher Adley Rutschman, who has made two All-Star teams and has earned a Silver Slugger Award.

Before his stint with the Orioles, Cossins spent six seasons (2013-18) in the Chicago Cubs organization as a minor league field/catching coordinator. Prior to that, he worked for 10 seasons in the Marlins organization as both a manager and coordinator. First, he managed their GCL club for two seasons (2003-04) before moving up to manage their Florida State League team for two seasons (2005-06). He would return to manage the GCL club for another season (2007) before serving as the Marlins minor league catching coordinator for several seasons.

Cossins began his coaching career with the Sonoma County Crushers of the Independent Western League in 2000 before joining the Kansas City Royals as a bullpen catcher for two seasons (2001-02).

For his playing career, Cossins attended the University of Oklahoma where he played in the 1992 College World Series. He was selected in the 16th round of the 1993 June Draft by the Rangers and would go on to appear in 255 minor league games between 1993-99, primarily as a catcher. In addition to the Rangers organization, Cossins also played in the Yankees and Expos farm systems and also had a brief stint as a player for the Sonoma County Crushers of the Independent Western League in 2000.

Cossins and his wife, Lori, live in Windsor, CA and have a son, Aiden.

DAN HENNIGAN

MAJOR LEAGUE DIRECTOR OF HITTING/OFFENSIVE COOR.

Full Name: Daniel Edward Hennigan
Born: 4/30/90 in Bryn Mawr, PA Resides: Downingtown, PA
Opening Day Age: 35 Bats/Throws: Right/Right

MAJOR LEAGUE COACHING CAREER

Major League Director of Hitting/Offensive Coordinator, Houston Astros (2026).

Dan Hennigan joined the Astros Major League staff in November of 2025 as director of hitting/offensive coordinator. In his current role, Hennigan, who specializes in swing biomechanics, will create game plans from an analytic and data standpoint, focusing on the Astros young hitters. Prior to his current position, Hennigan served as the Astros director of hitting in 2025.

Before joining the Astros organization, Hennigan was a hitting analyst for the Minnesota Twins from 2022-23.

In 2018, Hennigan opened the Brain And Barrel Hitting facility in Pennsylvania, which is still open today. The facility offers on-site hitting and training for dozens of high-level college and professional ballplayers.

As a player, prior to the start of his professional career, Hennigan was a standout infielder at Franklin Pierce University in New Hampshire, hitting .338 and .352 in his two seasons there (2011-12).

After college, his first opportunity to play professionally came with the Somerset Patriots of the Atlantic League, where he played for two seasons (2012-13). Hennigan would later play for the Camden Riversharks of the Atlantic League in 2015 and then with the Lincoln Saltdogs of the American Association in 2016, which was his final season as a player. Additionally, he also had a very brief stint with an affiliated minor league club in 2015, appearing in one game for the Great Lakes Loons, who were the Dodgers' Midwest League club.

Hennigan has also been a featured speaker at multiple, baseball-related seminars throughout the country. He and his wife, Luighsighe, reside in Downingtown, PA, with their two daughters.

ERIC VELAZQUEZ

HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Eric Velazquez, who was promoted to head athletic trainer in November of 2025, has close to 17 years of experience working in professional baseball. The 2026 season will be his fifth with the Astros after joining the Major League staff in 2022.

Prior to joining the Astros, Velazquez served as the athletic training coordinator for the Boston Red Sox from 2019-2021. Prior to that, he worked in the Boston system as an affiliate athletic trainer for the Triple A Pawtucket Red Sox for two seasons (2017-18) and for Double A Portland for one season (2016).

Velazquez began his career in baseball in 2010 with the New York Mets organization, working at their Dominican Republic Academy. He then was named as their Latin America coordinator in 2011. Over the next few seasons, he served as athletic trainer for Short A Brooklyn (2012-2013) and Single A Savannah (2014-2015).

Additionally, Velazquez has worked as an athletic trainer for the Dominican Winter League (2011), Arizona Fall League (2012), Venezuelan Winter League (2014-15) and the World Baseball Classic (2017).

He received his bachelor's degree in exercise biology from the University of California, Davis, and his master's in athletic training from Stephen F. Austin University.

Originally from Los Angeles, CA, Velazquez now resides in Pflugerville, TX, with his wife and two daughters.

RAFAEL FREITAS

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Rafael Freitas, who joined the Astros staff this season as assistant athletic trainer, brings several years of experience working at the Major League level.

Freitus spent the last five seasons as head athletic trainer for the Pittsburgh Pirates (2021-25). Prior to his stint with the Pirates, he served as the assistant athletic trainer for the Milwaukee Brewers for four seasons (2017-20).

Freitas began his professional career as an athletic trainer at the Cincinnati Reds' Dominican Republic Academy in 2012-13 and also served in the same capacity in the Arizona Diamondbacks' organization, including stints Class A South Bend in 2014 and Class A Kane County in 2015, when he was voted by his peers as the Midwest League Athletic Trainer of the Year. In 2016, he served as an athletic trainer for the St. Louis Cardinals Triple A affiliate in Memphis before receiving his first big league opportunity with the Brewers in 2017.

In addition to his work during the regular season, Freitas worked with Toros Azucareros del Este in the Dominican Winter League in 2013 and was the head athletic trainer for Team Brazil during the World Baseball Classic qualifiers in 2012 and 2016 as well as the main draw of the tournament in Japan in 2013.

Freitas earned a bachelor's degree in athletic training from Florida State University in 2010 and his master's degree in sports and fitness from Florida International University in 2012. He is a NATA certified athletic trainer and is certified by the NSCA as a strength and conditioning specialist.

Freitas, a native of Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, currently resides in Milwaukee, WI, with his wife, Genevieve and two children, Enzo and Hayden.

TAYLOR WITCZAK

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Taylor Witczak joined the Astros organization in December of 2022 as assistant athletic trainer/physical therapist for the Major League club. His role will be adjusted slightly this season as he will now travel with the club on road trips.

Before joining the Astros, Witczak worked for the Miami Marlins during the 2021-22 seasons, serving as the minor league medical coordinator for most of 2022 and as minor league rehabilitation coordinator from 2021-22.

Prior to beginning his career in baseball, he completed a seasonal athletic training/physical therapy internship with the San Francisco 49ers during the 2020 season.

Witczak received a bachelor's degree in athletic training and doctorate of physical therapy from Grand Valley State University. He served internships with EXOS, the Arizona Diamondbacks, and Northwestern University Football.

Witczak is from Hudsonville, MI and resides in Houston, TX with his wife, Jessi, and their dogs, Izzy and Marlin.

CHRISTIAN HUCKFELDT

MAJOR LEAGUE PHYSICAL THERAPIST

Christian Huckfeldt was promoted to Major League physical therapist in November of 2025. He has been with the Astros organization since August of 2023, working in West Palm Beach, first as a minor league physical therapist before being named minor league rehab coordinator following the 2024 season.

Prior to joining the Astros, Huckfeldt served for a year as a sports physical therapist resident at Rehab 2 Perform, which specializes in physical therapy and rehab for athletes. He earned his first opportunity with a Major League Baseball organization in 2022, when he served a three-month stint as a student physical therapist for the San Francisco Giants.

Huckfeldt earned his bachelors degree in 2019 and his doctor of physical therapy degree in 2022, both from the University of Scranton. He made the Dean's List for all eight semesters between 2015-2019.

MIKE JASPERSON

MAJOR LEAGUE STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH

The 2026 season is Mike Jasperson's first as strength and conditioning coach for the Astros Major League Club.

Prior to joining the Astros, Jasperson spent 16 seasons in the Colorado Rockies organization, with the last 11 serving as their Major League physical performance coach. In that role, Jasperson designed and implemented programs for strength, conditioning, injury prevention and recovery.

Originally from Salt Lake City, UT, Jasperson graduated with a bachelor's degree in exercise science from Colorado State University-Pueblo, where he played baseball his junior and senior years. After graduating, he interned at the University of Denver with the strength and conditioning department.

Jasperson is a registered strength and conditioning coach (RSCC) and a certified strength and conditioning specialist (CSCS) through the National Strength and Conditioning Association.

Jasperson's nickname is "Jaspy." He and his wife, Jordan, reside in Arvada, CO, and have one son (Jess).

STEPHANIE GRUBBS

ASSISTANT MAJOR LEAGUE STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH

Stephanie Grubbs was hired by the Astros as assistant strength and conditioning coach in January of 2025. She brings several years of experience in the strength and conditioning field in the college ranks.

Prior to joining the Astros, Grubbs had served as assistant athletic director for sports performance at the University of Pittsburgh since June of 2021. While at Pitt, she worked with several successful programs, including their women's volleyball team that won three consecutive ACC championships (2022-24).

Before joining the Pitt Panthers, she was the director of Olympic sports strength and conditioning for Mississippi State University from July of 2018-May of 2021.

Grubbs' also spent five seasons working for Clemson University (2013-18), where she started as an intern before advancing to assistant strength and conditioning coach in 2016 and then assistant director of Olympic sports strength and conditioning in 2017.

Additionally, Grubbs' experience includes a stint as a seasonal strength and conditioning/sports science intern with the Pittsburgh Steelers from July of 2022-January of 2023.

In 2022, she was awarded the title of Master International Strength and Conditioning Practitioner by the International Universities Strength and Conditioning Association.

She earned a bachelor of science degree in physical activity and sports sciences from West Virginia University in 2013, earning Big East All-Academic Team honors from 2009-11.

Grubbs later would earn her master's degree in athletic leadership/human resource development from Clemson University in 2016.

Grubbs resides in Houston with her husband, Ryan Grubbs, who serves as the Houston Texans director of reconditioning return to football and speed development.

GEORDAN STAPLETON

MAJOR LEAGUE DIETITIAN

Geordan Stapleton joined the Astros Major League staff in January of 2024 as the club's Major League Dietitian. As part of her duties, she is responsible for creating a food and nutrition plan for the Astros Major League players and staff for Spring Training camp and for regular season home and road games.

Previously, Stapleton served as the minor league nutrition coordinator for three seasons (2021-23) for the New York Mets organization in Port St. Lucie, FL. In this role, she spearheaded nutrition programming for all of the Mets minor league affiliate athletes while also mentoring Mets nutrition associates. Her role also included travel to minor league affiliates in the United States and to the Mets Dominican Academy.

Prior to joining the Mets organization, Stapleton had served as Olympic Sports Dietitian at Liberty University in Lynchburg, VA from September of 2019 until March of 2021. In that role, she oversaw the sports nutrition programs for men's and women's basketball, volleyball, baseball, soccer and track and field.

She was also a sports nutrition assistant for the Indianapolis Indians, the Triple A affiliate of the Pittsburgh Pirates, for the 2019 season.

Stapleton earned a Bachelor of Science degree in dietetics from Florida State University in 2017 before going on to earn her master of science degree in clinical nutrition from the University of Memphis in 2018. She is a registered and licensed dietitian in the state of Texas.

Stapleton is a native of Montgomery, AL.

BRAD STONE

MASSAGE THERAPIST

Brad Stone joined the Astros Major League staff as a massage therapist prior to the 2024 season.

Prior to joining the Astros, Stone had served as the full-time massage therapist for the Arizona Coyotes of the National Hockey League for three seasons (2021-23). In addition to providing therapeutic massages and other modalities for the Coyote players, he worked with the medical team to assist in the rehabilitation process for injuries.

Stone, who is a certified, licensed massage therapist, also provides services for clients through the company he owns, Kinetic LMT, which he opened in 2019 in Phoenix, AZ. As a result, he has experience in working with professional and collegiate athletes in a wide variety of sports.

Stone earned a bachelor's degree from the University of Oklahoma before earning certification in Therapeutic Massage from Phoenix College in Arizona in 2019.

JAVIER BRACAMONTE

BULLPEN CATCHER

Javier Bracamonte has spent the last 25 seasons as the Astros bullpen catcher, joining the club in that role in 2001.

In his role, Javier, who wears jersey number 85, travels to Spring Training and on every road trip, assisting the coaching staff by catching bullpens, throwing batting practice and hitting infield practice.

During his time with Houston, Javier has taken part in seven MLB All-Star Games, including as the batting practice pitcher in the Home Run Derby for Alex Bregman in 2018-19. He also took part in the 2004 All-Star Game in Houston, catching bullpens and working pregame activities. He would also pitch batting practice in the next two All-Star Games, throwing to Andruw Jones and Jason Bay in 2005 in Detroit and to Miguel Cabrera in Pittsburgh in 2006.

A former shortstop and second baseman, Bracamonte played at the New York Yankees Venezuelan Academy from 1988-90, which made him just the third Venezuelan to sign a professional contract after serving as a bat boy in the Venezuelan Winter League. He would join the Astros organization in 2001 after five years of giving private baseball lessons.

Born in Caracas, Venezuela, he now resides in Houston, Texas, with his wife, Katie, and his daughters, Jaelyn and Jade. Jaelyn is a Division I soccer player, as a redshirt freshman at UTSA. His son Gustavo, currently works in the Miami Marlins organization.

CALEB NUNES

BULLPEN CATCHER

Caleb Nunes enters his third season as a bullpen catcher for the Astros after joining the Major League club in April of 2024. Before his promotion to the Major League staff, Nunes had been the bullpen catcher in Triple A for the Astros organization for several seasons.

In his current role, Nunes catches pitchers throwing in the bullpen, throws batting practice and helps with the catchers' pregame routines and early work. He can be found in the bullpen during games.

In 2016, Nunes began his career with the Astros organization, working in his hometown for the Triple A Fresno Grizzlies. The team eventually moved to Round Rock and Sugar Land, where Nunes followed.

Nunes graduated from the College of Idaho in May of 2017, where he was a catcher for the Coyotes baseball team.

He and his wife, Chelsea, reside in the Houston area and have one child.

CARL SCHNEIDER

CLUBHOUSE MANAGER

Carl Schneider, who has been with the Astros organization since 1989, became the Astros clubhouse manager in 2011. While with the Astros, Schneider has worked 18 Astros playoff runs, four All-Star Games (1998, 2003-04, 2018) and all five of the Astros World Series appearances (2005, 2017, 2019, 2021-22).

In 2020, Schneider was named the winner of the Fred Hartman Long and Meritorious Service to Baseball Award, named by the Houston Chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America.

Additionally, in 2017, Schneider was named the winner the Pete Sheehy Clubhouse Award (Clubhouse Manager of the Year), which is given out annually to a home and visiting clubhouse manager, and voted on by the MLB Clubhouse Manager's Association.

Schneider, who is one of the longest-tenured employees in the organization, originally joined the Astros in 1989 as a bat boy and also handled clubhouse duties during the baseball season. He joined the home clubhouse staff full time in 1995 and would work in that role until assuming the clubhouse manager duties in 2011.

A Texas native, Schneider is married to his wife Chanda. He has two sons, Zachry and Max, and two daughters, Amie and Madyson. Schneider's oldest son, Zach, was a left-handed pitcher at Truman State University in Missouri.

STEVE PERRY

VISITING CLUBHOUSE MANAGER

Steve Perry has worked for the Astros organization since 1979 and has served as the visiting clubhouse manager since 1989.

Over the years, Perry has developed a fine reputation in Major League Baseball for his work. He is a three-time winner (2000, 2008-09) of the Pete Sheehy Clubhouse Award (Clubhouse Manager of the Year), which is given out annually to a home and visiting clubhouse manager. The award is voted on by his peers within the MLB Clubhouse Manager's Association.

He also earned the Fred Hartman Long and Meritorious Service to Baseball Award in 2013, named by the Houston Chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America.

Perry joined the Astros as a bat boy at the start of the 1979 season, but by the All-Star Break was promoted to an assistant in the visiting clubhouse. He was named visiting clubhouse manager in 1989, and has filled that role since. During his Astros tenure, Steve has worked five All-Star games, all five of the Astros World Series appearances and 21 postseason runs.

Perry is fluent in Spanish, having spent several years of his childhood in South America, where his father was relocated for work. He and his wife, Jessica, reside in Houston and have two daughters, Nicole and Amanda.

- Signed by Houston as a 16-year-old prospect out of Santo Domingo, DR on Nov. 11, 2013...signed by Astros scouts Oz Ocampo, Marc Russo and Rafael Belen.
- At the age of 13 and prior to his professional signing, worked construction and helped his uncle, a mechanic, fix cars, in Santo Domingo.
- Grew up playing youth basketball in the Dominican, a sport that was taught to him by his mother and father, who both played basketball as children... by the age of 13, he was competing in Under-17 All-Star teams, facing athletes four years older than him...Bryan grew up watching Lakers games with his father, Enrique, with Bryan idolizing the team's stars, including Kobe Bryant, Pau Gasol and Lamar Odom.
- He also played recreational baseball, where he was eventually discovered by buscones, who are unaffiliated baseball scouts, which invited him to join a baseball program at the Olympic Center in Santo Domingo...at the age of 14, he was requested by his mother to choose baseball or basketball as a focus...he chose baseball and was rewarded with a professional contract just two years later.
- Abreu, who grew up in Simón Bolívar and Las Cañitas barrios of Santo Domingo, credits his upbringing revolved around sports for keeping him away from drugs and crime, which he saw friends get involved with in his neighborhood.
- Still loves the game of basketball, and in Spring Training of 2019, Abreu, an unknown prospect at the time, was selected by Justin Verlander to be his partner during a team basketball shooting contest... the contest was never even completed due to Abreu's and Verlander's shooting dominance.
- As a prospect, was a long-term project of former Astros pitching coach Brent Strom, who always believed in Abreu's abilities...in the offseason prior to the 2022 season, honed in on improving his command while pitching for the Toros del Este of the Dominican Winter League...worked with former Astros minor league pitching coach Erick Abreu, who had worked with Bryan at various levels of the Astros organization since his pro debut in 2014.
- Was added to the Astros 40-man roster on Nov. 20, 2018...was eligible for arbitration for the third and final time in his career this offseason...will be eligible for free agency following this season.

- Continued his 2022 regular season success into the postseason...made 10 appearances in the 2022 postseason, tossing 11.1 scoreless innings, while striking out 19 and allowing just four hits... recorded five holds, including two in the World Series, one being in Game 6 of the Fall Classic, the Astros series-clinching win.
- Made 31 appearances for the Astros in 2021... picked up his first Major League win on April 2, 2021 at OAK (0ER/2.1IP) and his first MLB save on May 26, 2021 vs. LAD (0ER/1IP)...also picked up seven holds while serving as a set up reliever for the club.
- Advanced from Class A Advanced Fayetteville to the Majors in 2019, making seven regular season appearances for the Astros...was also on the club's ALCS roster, making one appearance in the series against the Yankees...also had a banner year in 2019 at Double A Corpus Christi, as he was named a Texas League Midseason All-Star, the first All-Star honors of his professional career.
- Added to the Astros 40-man roster following the 2018 season after he went 6-1 with a 1.49 ERA (9ER/54.1IP) and 90 strikeouts in 14 games (seven starts) between Class A Quad Cities (10g) and Class A Short Season Tri-City (4g).

2025 SEASON:

- Led AL relievers with 105 strikeouts and moved into closer role over final two months of the regular season following an injury to LHP Josh Hader.
- In a team-leading 70 appearances, went 3-4-7 with a 2.28 ERA (18ER/71IP), a .196 opponent average, a 1.15 WHIP and 13.31 SO/9IP...set career highs in strikeouts (105), SO/9IP (13.31) and saves (7).
- Along with leading AL relievers in strikeouts, ranked fourth in SO/9IP (13.31), tied for fifth in holds (25) and eighth in ERA (2.28) among the league's relievers...his 0.51 HR/9IP also ranked 6th among AL pitchers (min. 70 IP)...allowed just four home runs through 66.0 innings this season, tied for the second-fewest among AL pitchers (min. 70 IP).
- Reached 100 strikeouts for the third straight season, becoming the first Astros reliever to do so since RHP Brad Lidge (2004-06)...RHP Dellin Betances was the last reliever to do so, with five straight 100-strikeout seasons from 2014-18.
- Logged 70-plus appearances for the third time in his career and third consecutive season...is one of four relievers in Astros history with at least three seasons of 70-plus appearances and is the first to do so since RHP Chad Qualls (2005-07).
- Per Baseball Savant, ranked in the 99th percentile in whiff percentage (41.2) and in the 98th percentile in strikeout percentage (35.5) among MLB pitchers.
- Was scoreless in 21 of his first 22 appearances of the season (March 27-May 19)...went on a 16.0 scoreless-inning streak from April 13-May 19...was the longest scoreless streak in relief by an Astro this season...was the 2nd-longest scoreless streak of his career, trailing only a 27.2-inning streak he closed out the 2023 season with.
- Recorded the 400th strikeout of his career on June 29 vs. CHC...became the seventh reliever in Astros history to reach 400-plus strikeouts with the club... ended the season with 448 career strikeouts, ranking fourth among relievers in Astros history... directly trails RHP Dave Smith (529) for third on the list...surpassed RHP Joe Sambito (406), RHP Ryan Pressly (411) and RHP Octavio Dotel (442) on the Astros' all-time list this season.
- Made his 300th career appearance on Aug. 10 at NYY, becoming the eighth Astro reliever to do so... ended the season with 317 career appearances, which ranked seventh in Astros history.
- Made his fifth consecutive (and career) OPENING DAY roster (2021-25).
- Had just one transaction this season, going on the Paternity List from April 30-May 2...he and his wife, Brooke, welcomed their second child, Brayden.

2024 SEASON:

- Was a mainstay in the back end of the Astros bullpen, recording career highs in appearances (78), innings (78.1) and strikeouts (103), while going 3-3 with a 3.10 ERA (27ER/78.1IP) and a .207 opponent batting average (59x285).
- Made his fourth career OPENING DAY roster (2019-24) but was unavailable to pitch during the first two games of the season while serving a two-game suspension handed down by Major League Baseball from the 2023 ALCS vs. TEX.
- Recorded 100-plus strikeouts for the second consecutive season, joining RHP Ocatvio Dotel (2001-02) and RHP Brad Lidge (2004-06) as the only relievers in Astros history to do so.
- Led the Majors with 38 holds and was tied for second in the Majors in appearances...among AL relievers, ranked tied for third in strikeouts and third in innings pitched
- Set the Astros single-season record with his 38 holds, surpassing the previous record of 33 set by RHP Octavio Dotel in 2003.
- His 78 appearances were the most in a single season by an Astros reliever since RHP Brandon Lyon appeared in 79 games in 2010.
- Held right-handed hitters to a .148 batting average (21x42) and .490 OPS, while striking out 58 of the 158 right-handed hitters he faced...his .148 opponent batting average vs. right-handed hitters ranked 1st in the AL (min. 150 batters faced).
- Posted a 34.0 whiff percentage on the season, ranking in the 95th percentile among MLB pitchers, per Baseball Savant.
- Appeared in the POSTSEASON for the fourth time in his career and his third straight season...tossed a scoreless and hitless 1.1 innings while striking out two batters in Game 2 of the ALWC vs. DET.

2023 SEASON:

- Recorded the best season of his career...went 3-2 with five saves and a 1.75 ERA (14ER/72IP)...also recorded a 1.04 WHIP, 100 strikeouts, 31 walks, and a .177 opponent batting average.
- Set career-lows in ERA (1.75), WHIP (1.04), and opponent average (.177)... became the first Astros reliever to record 100 strikeouts in a single season since RHP Josh James (100 SO) in 2019.
- Among AL relievers, ranked fourth in strikeouts (100), fifth in ERA, tied for fifth in appearances (72), tied for seventh in holds (24) and eighth in SO/9IP ratio (12.50)...made a career-high 72 appearances this season, topping his previous career-high of 55 appearances reached in 2022.
- Made his third career OPENING DAY roster (2021-23)...also made two appearances for Team Dominican Republic in the 2023 WBC.
- Won seven consecutive decisions from July 6, 2021-May 29, 2023...his winning streak spanned 88 appearances over parts of 3 seasons.
- Finished the season being scoreless in his last 27 appearances (27.2 IP), striking out 33 batters during that span, while going three-for-three in saves and posting eight holds...it was the longest scoreless innings streak by a reliever in the Majors in 2023... it was the longest scoreless streak in his career, topping his previous career-high of 21.2 innings posted in 2022...per Elias, his streak ties as the longest by an Astros reliever in a single season in club history with RHP Dave Smith in 1987.
- In the 2023 POSTSEASON, he recorded a 4.32 ERA (4ER/8.1IP) with two walks, 14 strikeouts, a .194 opponent batting average and a 0.96 WHIP in nine appearances...recorded five scoreless appearances to begin the postseason, which extended his postseason scoreless innings streak to 17.1 innings, which ranks as the third-longest in club history.
- Following a hit by pitch of RF Adolis Garcia in Game 5 of the ALCS, received a two-game suspension from Major League Baseball...the suspension was served at the opening of the 2024 season.

2022 SEASON:

- Went 4-0 with two saves and a 1.94 ERA in 60.1 IP... in 55 games, gave up just two homers...had eight holds and struck out 13.13 batters per 9 innings.
- Made his second career OPENING DAY roster.
- Had 21.2-inning scoreless streak, spanning 19 appearances, from July 16-Sept. 11...in those 19 apps: 0.00 ERA, two saves, 21.2 IP, eight hits, 29 SO, a 0.69 WHIP and a .114 opponent average.
- In his last 25 regular season games: 0.72 ERA, 36 strikeouts in 25 IP and five holds.
- Posted an ERA+ of 200, which is 100 points higher than the league-average mark...his strikeout percentage of 35.5% ranked in the top 3% of MLB, while his xBA of .196 ranked in the top 10% and xSLG of .274 ranked in the top 3% of baseball.
- Finished the year ranked seventh in ERA among AL relievers (1.94), tied for fourth among AL relievers in strikeouts (88) and fourth among AL relievers in SO/9 (13.13), which also led the Astros.
- Posted a 0.83 ERA at Daikin Park...flourished in day games, tossing a 0.54 ERA across 16.2 IP...was great in one-run games, allowing a .154 opponent batting average and tossing a 1.20 ERA...had high success rate against lefties, allowing them to hit just .189 off him without a home run.
- Changed his jersey number to #52 on May 24...had worn #66 for the Astros since debuting in 2019.
- Entered the 2022 POSTSEASON having pitched in one playoff game and proceeded to turn in a dominant performance, tossing 11.1 scoreless innings through 10 games...struck out 19 and allowed just four hits...earned five holds as batters hit just .105 (4x38) against him...the Astros went 9-1 in the games he pitched in.
- Led the postseason in holds (5)...also led all relievers in the postseason with his 11.1 innings...became the 11th reliever in MLB history to throw 11.1-or-more scoreless innings in a single postseason.

2021 SEASON:

- Made the Astros OPENING DAY roster and pitched primarily with the Major League club for the first four months of the season...ended up having three different Major League stints.
- Earned his first MLB win on April 2 at OAK (0ER/2.1IP) and his first MLB save on May 26 vs. LAD (0ER/1IP).
- Pitched better than his ERA indicated, as he allowed seven runs in 0.2 of an inning in his final Major League outing...in his first 30 appearances on the season, owned a 4.08 ERA.
- Pitched most of April and May in the Astros bullpen...sidelined from May 30-July 6 with a left calf strain...returned to the club for July before being optioned for the first time on the season on July 31 following the Astros trade deadline acquisitions...would bounce between Triple A and the Majors for the remainder of the season.
- Had a great year at Triple A, posting a 1.76 ERA (3ER/15.1IP) with 24 strikeouts in 15.1 innings...also picked up six holds in his 15 appearances.
- Was on the Astros Taxi Squad for the POSTSEASON, but was not elevated to an active roster.
- Following the season, pitched for the Toros del Este in the Dominican Winter League, making seven starts and posting a 1-4 record and a 2.42 ERA (7ER/26IP)...struck out 28 in his 26.0 innings.

2020 SEASON:

- Made four appearances over one stint with the Astros, posting a 2.70 ERA (2ER/12IP) with seven walks and three strikeouts.
- Made his first career OPENING DAY roster.
- Was placed on the Injured List on Sept. 29 for an undicsclosed injury.

2019 SEASON:

- Had a strong seven-game showing in his first MLB season...averaged 13.50 strikeouts per nine innings (13SO/8.2IP) and held opponents to a .138 (4x29) average...was scoreless in six of seven appearances.
- Made his MLB debut on July 31 at CLE (0ER/1IP).
- POSTSEASON: Made the Astros ALCS roster, appearing in one game vs. NYY (Game 1)...at 22 years, 173 days old, became the second-youngest pitcher to appear in a postseason game for the Astros, older than only Lance McCullers Jr. (22 yr., 10 days old in ALDS Game 4 vs. KC in 2015).
- Was a Double A Texas League Midseason ALL-STAR...received Texas League Pitcher of the Week honors on May 19.

MINOR LEAGUES:

- In 2018, combined to go 6-1 with a 1.49 ERA (9ER/54.1IP), 23 walks, 33 hits allowed and 90 strikeouts in 14 games (7 starts) at Class A Quad Cities (10g) and Class A Short Season Tri-City (4g).

BROADCAST NOTES

- Graduated from Cardinal Newman High School in Santa Rosa, CA, which is just north of San Francisco and just west of Sonoma Valley.
- Attended the same high school as his brother Scott, who pitched in the Majors in each of the last 11 seasons (2015-25)...Scott split this 2025 season between the Rockies and Giants organizations... while Scott was drafted out of high school (37th round by CIN) and college (6th round by KC), Jason went undrafted out of high school and college, which started his roundabout route to the Major Leagues.
- Jason and Scott also have another brother that pitched professionally, Stuart (Stu), who was a 29th round pick by the Marlins in 2003...Stu pitched four seasons (2004, 2006, 2008-09) in the minors, topping out in A ball.
- After high school, Jason attended Santa Rosa Junior College in 2013 and then Long Beach State in 2014... he underwent Tommy John surgery and missed two seasons (2015-16) before pitching his final collegiate year at Menlo College (2017), an NAIA program...went undrafted out of Menlo, but was signed as a non-drafted free agent by the Angels after his season.
- Pitched three seasons in the Angels system (2017-19) before being released in 2020 in the midst of the canceled minor league season...was out of baseball for 10 months and thought his baseball career was over, working as a car salesman for Honda.
- Returned to affiliated baseball with the Marlins in 2021...would jump from the Marlins (2021), to the Brewers (2022-23), to the Red Sox (2024), to the A's (2025) and finally the Astros in 2025.
- Relies heavily on his changeup, which he threw 32.7% of the time, which ranked as the seventh-highest percentage by a qualified pitcher in 2025...picked up 45 of his 65 strikeouts in 2025 on the changeup, while allowing a .193 opponent average on the pitch.
- Finished his 2025 season with one year and 134 days of Major League service...has used just one of his three option years.

- Had a great season at the Triple A level, going 6-0 with a 1.55 ERA (11ER/64IP) in 13 games, including 12 starts...was 5-0 with a 1.69 ERA (8ER/42.2IP) in eight games (seven starts) at Triple A Sugar Land.
- Spent time with Triple A Sugar Land after being picked up by the Astros...recalled on June 16 at ATH to make a spot start for his first start as an Astro... stunned against his former team, shutting them out for 6.0 innings before an RBI single, a fielding error and a double play with runners on the corners scored 3R (2ER)...received his first win since Jun. 23, 2022 vs. STL (as a Brewer)...was optioned postgame.
- Recalled on July 4, tossing 3.0 scoreless innings in relief that night at LAD to pick up a save in what was his only relief appearance as an Astro...again optioned postgame.
- Recalled for the third and final time on July 24...had several huge starts down the stretch...threw 6.0 innings of shutout ball on Aug. 4 at MIA, allowing three hits and a walk with six Ks.
- Shut down the Yankees offense across 6.0 frames on Aug. 10 at Yankee Stadium, allowing his first and only hit with one out in the 6th inning.
- Posted a 17.2 scoreless innings streak from July 29-Aug. 16...was the third-longest scoreless streak by an Astro this season, behind Hunter Brown (28.0) and AJ Blubaugh (21.0)...was also tied for the 13th-longest scoreless streak by an AL pitcher in 2025.
- Struck out a career-high eight batters through 5.2 innings on Aug. 28 vs. COL.
- Went 3-0 with a 2.17 ERA, .204 opponent batting average, 0.97 WHIP and 6.83 H/9IP and 1.86 BB/9IP through five starts in August...among AL pitchers in August, ranked fifth in ERA (min. 25.0IP).
- Tied a career-high with 7.0 innings pitched on Sept. 10 at TOR, blanking the 2025 AL East champs with only three hits and a walk allowed.

2024 SEASON:

- Spent the entire season with Triple A Worcester in his first season in the Boston Red Sox farm system and went 7-6 with a 4.42 ERA and .726 opponents OPS in 29 games, including 27 starts.
- Struck out 129 batters in 138.1 innings and walked 39 for a strikeout-to-walk ratio of 3.31.
- Tied for fourth in the International League in games started, ranked fifth in ERA, opponent batting average (.264) and innings pitched and tied for ninth in strikeouts.
- Led the Red Sox farm system in innings and games started and ranked third in strikeouts.
- Held right-handed hitters to a .216 (63x291) batting average and .586 OPS…left-handers hit .320 (80x250) with a .890 OPS.

2023 SEASON:

- Began the season on the Major League 60-day injured list with a strained right rotator cuff and did not pitch in the majors in 2023.
- Appeared in 16 games for Triple A Nashville and also had rehab assignments with the Arizona Complex League Brewers and Double A Biloxi… combined for a 2-4 record, one save and a 6.14 ERA in 19 games, including 11 starts, overall.
- After beginning the season on the IL, was assigned to the Brewers affiliate in the ACL on June 9 and made two starts before his rehab assignment was transferred to Biloxi on June 20…made one start for the Shuckers and was sent to Nashville on June 25…made three starts before he was reinstated from the IL and optioned to Nashville on July 8.
- Was outrighted off the 40-man roster on July 24.
- Was placed on the Covid-19 IL on Sept. 15 and missed the remainder of the season.

2022 SEASON:

- Went 2-3 with a 5.40 ERA in 18 games (11 starts) with Milwaukee…had four stints (June 1-July 17, Aug. 7-16, Aug. 22-Sept. 20 and Oct. 4-end of season).
- Went 2-3 with a 4.82 ERA as a starter and 0-0 with a 7.47 ERA in relief…the team was 4-7 in his starts.
- Made his Major League debut in a start on June 1 at CHC and received no decision in the Brewers 4-3, 10-inning loss (2ER/7IP)…became the first Brewers pitcher with a quality start in his Major League debut since Brandon Woodruff (2017)…it was his only quality start of the season.
- Earned his first ML win in a 7-3 victory on June 18 at CIN (2ER/5.2IP).
- Went 8-2 with a 2.84 ERA in 13 games (10 starts) at Triple A Nashville.

MINOR LEAGUES:

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- The nine-time ALL-STAR (2012, 2014-18, 2021-22, 2024), seven-time Silver Slugger (2014-18, 2022, 2024), three-time AL Batting Champion (2014, 2016, 2017), 2015 Gold Glover, 2017 AL MVP and 2019 ALCS MVP has played in 15 Major League seasons (2011-25), posting a .303 (2388x7881) batting average with 455 doubles, 1236 runs, 255 homers, 325 steals and an .826 OPS (.360 OBP/.466 SLG) in 1,976 career MLB games.
- Has 2,000 hits, 400 doubles, 200 homers and 300 stolen bases...is the fifth player in MLB history to reach all four milestones, while also hitting in the .300s...the others are all Hall of Famers: Derek Jeter, Paul Molitor, Willie Mays and Roberto Alomar.
- Enters 2026 season as the Astros franchise leader in career batting average, while ranking among the top-10 players in club history in multiple categories, including hits (2nd), doubles (3rd), runs (3rd), stolen bases (3rd), games (3rd), RBI (5th), on-base percentage (9th) and slugging (9th).
- Has recorded 2,388 career hits, second-most in the Majors since 2011, trailing only Freddie Freeman (2427), who has played close to 200 games more than Altuve in that span...is just the third player in club history to reach the 2,000-hit marker, joining Craig Biggio (3060) and Jeff Bagwell (2314).
- Won his seventh career Silver Slugger in 2024, tying Ryne Sandberg for the most by a second baseman in MLB history...also in 2024, earned his sixth career fan selection as a starter for the All-Star Game, joining Hall of Famers Rod Carew (6) and Roberto Alomar (9) as the only AL second basemen to earn at least six fan selections to the Midsummer Classic.
- Is one of two players in Astros franchise history to win a batting title (also, Yuli Gurriel in 2021), as he did so in the AL in 2014, 2016 and 2017...became the first second baseman to win multiple batting titles since Hall of Fame second baseman Rod Carew won five batting titles between 1969-75.
- Has reached 200 hits in four separate seasons (2014-17)...joined Craig Biggio (210 in 1998) as the only players in franchise history to reach 200 hits in a single season...became the eighth player in MLB history to record four 200-hit seasons prior to turning 28, joining Hall of Famers Willie Keeler, Lloyd Waner, Ty Cobb, Ducky Medwick, Chuck Klein and Paul Waner, and four-time All-Star Vada Pinson.

BROADCAST NOTES

- Signed by Houston as a 16-year-old non-drafted free agent out of Maracay, Venezuela, on Sept. 27, 2006...the Astros Venezuelan Coordinator at the time, Pablo Torrealba, and a local Astros scout, Wolfgang Ramos, are credited with the signing of Altuve, which might be the most influential signing in Astros history...in addition to those two men, Omar López, who was the club's Venezuelan team manager at the time, and Al Pedrique, the Astros former Special Assistant, also had strong ties to the signing...after all these years, López remains with the organization, now serving as the Astros bench coach.
- It took Altuve many trips to the Astros Venezuelan Academy to receive a contract offer from the club...he eventually made believers out of every staffer, but not yet the organization...Torrealba, Ramos and López all pleaded with Pedrique to visit the academy himself to take a look at Altuve...Pedrique agreed, made the trip, and came away a believer...Pedrique then made the pitch to Astros General Manager Tim Purpura, who signed off on the deal...Altuve signed for just $15,000, and according to López, would have signed for free for just an opportunity to play baseball.
- Seventeen years after his signing, Altuve now has nine All-Star Game selections under his belt (2012, 2014-18, 2021-22, 2024), including starting nods in 2015, 2016, 2017, 2018, 2022 and 2024...he is also the first player in club history to be named an All-Star starter six times, besting Hall of Famer Craig Biggio (1995-98), who earned four All-Star Game starts.
- IN THE COMMUNITY: Jose and his wife Nina have undertook several charitable initiatives in his career with the Astros, which has earned Jose three team nominations for the Roberto Clemente Award (2013, 2017, 2022)...Jose and Nina focus their efforts on children's causes, which has included providing support to children with serious illnesses and providing meals to child services...they partnered with teammates Kyle Tucker and Josh Hader for a "Team Up" charity event in 2024 at the Post Oak Hotel, with live and silent auctions that raised over $600,000 for local causes, benefiting children, animals, and the Houston community.
- Has signed three extensions with the Astros...most recently, on Feb. 7, 2024, he signed a five-year deal that will keep him in Houston through 2029.

- Has been named the Astros MLBPAA Heart and Hustle Award winner four times (2012, 2014, 2021-22)...this honors active players who demonstrate a passion for the game and best embody the values, spirit and traditions of the game.
- Named the second Houston Astros player ever to earn league MVP honors in 2017, joining 1994 NL MVP Jeff Bagwell...was showered with awards that season, which included being named the Sports Illustrated Sportsperson of the Year (along with J.J. Watt), the AP Male Athlete of the Year and the Baseball America Player of the Year.
- Has been one of the best postseason players in Major League history...has a career .841 OPS in 105 postseason games, the most in club history.
- Ranks second all time in postseason home runs (27), trailing Manny Ramirez (29)...also ranks second all-time in runs (89), third in hits (118), sixth in doubles (21), sixth in games (105) and seventh in RBI (55).
- Made his MLB debut on July 20, 2011 vs. WSH... bypassed Triple A on his ascent to the Majors...was named the Astros 2011 Minor League Player of the Year and played in the 2011 All-Star Futures Game.
- Was a South Atlantic League Midseason and Postseason All-Star in 2010 and an Appalachian League Postseason All-Star in 2009...was Greeneville's Team MVP in 2009.

- Tied the franchise record by hitting safely in each of his first seven Major League games (.423, 11x26), which was set by Russ Johnson in 1997 (.321, 9x28).
- Only two other players in Astros history collected 11-or-more hits in their first seven games in the Majors: Ken Caminiti in 1987 (11x27) and Orlando Miller in 1994 (11x23) (Elias).
- Following the season, played for Magallanes in the Venezuelan Winter League and led the league in hits (82) while ranking third in batting average (.339).

MINOR LEAGUE CAREER:

- Named a South Atlantic League Midseason and Postseason All-Star in 2010...earned SAL Player of the Week honors for the week of June 7-13, 2010... named Lexington's Offensive Player of the Month for July of 2010.
- Named Greeneville's 2009 Team MVP...was an Appalachian League Postseason All-Star and named Greeneville's Player of the Month in July.
- In 2008, his first year in America, hit .284 in 40 games for Rookie Level Greeneville.
- In 2007, led the VSL Astros in batting average (.343) and OBP (.429).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Towering left-handed hitter has won a Rookie of the Year Award (2019), earned three ALL-STAR selections (2022-24), been named ALCS MVP (2021) and won a Silver Slugger Award (2022) in seven Major League seasons with Houston.
- In 677 career MLB games spanning the 2019-25 seasons, has hit .297 (728x2455) with 156 doubles, 170 HR, 493 RBI and a .962 OPS (.389 OBP/.573 SLG).
- Is listed as an outfielder after starting 15 of his 48 games in left field in the 2025 regular season...in regular season action, has 212 career starts in left field and 449 as the Astros designated hitter.
- Earned his third consecutive ALL-STAR nod in 2024, along with his first career starting assignment as the fan-selected DH for the American League... led the Astros in batting average (.308), doubles (34), home runs (35), RBI (86), on-base percentage (.392) and slugging percentage (.567), with his batting average serving as his career high (min. 350 AB)...became the second player in Astros history to hit 30-plus homers in at least four consecutive seasons, joining Jeff Bagwell (1996-2003).
- Was an All-Star in 2023 after having a huge season, reaching the 30-homer mark for his third straight year...also reached 100 career homers in what was his 372nd career game, becoming the fastest player to do so in club history...once again excelled in the postseason, hitting .465 (20x43) with six home runs, 15 RBI and a 1.487 OPS in 11 games...his .465 average (20x43) ranked first in a single postseason in club history (min. 30AB)...recorded multiple hits in six straight games to close out the postseason, which is the longest streak of multi-hit games in a single postseason in MLB history.
- Had a huge 2022 season in which he finished third in the AL in MVP voting...was named the Astros MVP, was a 2022 All-Star Game selection and was named the AL Silver Slugger at DH...followed up his 2022 regular season with a strong postseason...hit three go-ahead homers in the 6th inning or later in the postseason, all three coming with the Astros trailing...hit a walkoff homer in Game 1 of the ALDS and then a go-ahead homer in Game 2 of the ALDS, both against the vaunted Mariners bullpen... capped his postseason with a game-winning, go-ahead, three-run homer over the batters eye in center field in Game 6 of the World Series vs. PHI.

BROADCAST NOTES

- After defecting from Cuba in 2016, Alvarez's journey took him first to the Dominican Republic, then to Haiti, where he would eventually establish residency... after establishing residency in Haiti, Alvarez signed his first professional contract with the Dodgers and their scouts Ismael Cruz and Mike Toscar.
- While establishing residency, Alvarez crossed paths with fellow Cuban Yuli Gurriel, who was also working to establish residency...Alvarez grew up idolizing Gurriel, who was a star in the Cuban league during his childhood...the two would later become teammates, sharing the same clubhouse with each other for Alvarez's first four MLB seasons (2019-22).
- Alvarez spent less than two months in the Dodgers organization and did not play in a professional game with them before being acquired by Houston in exchange for reliever Josh Fields on Aug. 1, 2016... Astros scouts Charlie Gonzalez and Oz Ocampo were credited with the identification of Alvarez.
- Went six years, from the moment he defected from Cuba, until August of 2022, without seeing his father (Agustín Alvarez), mother (Mailyn Cadogan Reyes) and little brother (Yonder), who's turned 18 in 2025... with the help of Astros Owner & Chairman Jim Crane, who worked with an immigration lawyer, the three secured visitor visas to eventually make it to the U.S.
- Has had several eye-opening power moments in his career...on Sept. 9, 2019, he became the first Astro to hit a homer into the third deck at Daikin Park (off A's RHP Paul Blackburn)...that shot landed in section 337, row 1, seat 18, a seat that no longer exists after the addition of the Michelob Ultra View Deck.
- Alvarez hit the 10th cycle in Astros history on July 21, 2024 at T-Mobile Park in Seattle...his home run ball was picked up by Mariners superfan Amy Franz, who asked to meet Alvarez in exchange for the ball... Alvarez happily obliged, met Amy and took a picture with her in the tunnel after the game.
- Standing at 6'5", Alvarez is an imposing figure on the baseball field, but is a family man off of it...Yordan and his wife Monica, along with their daughter and son, raise chickens in their backyard at "Coop 44", and enjoy RV trips throughout the offseason.
- Alvarez signed a six-year contract extension with the Astros on June 6, 2022, which will keep him in an Astros uniform through 2028.

- Played his first full season as an Astro in 2021 and led the club in home runs (33) and RBI (104)...named a second-team All-MLB selection and was a Silver Slugger finalist at the DH position...named the 2021 ALCS MVP after hitting .522 (12x23) with a homer, six RBI and a 1.408 OPS during the series.
- In his rookie season of 2019, was named the 2019 American League Jackie Robinson Rookie of the Year...became the third player in Astros history to win the award...established a new Major League record for OPS by a rookie in a single season, with his 1.067 mark (min. 350 PA).
- Hit three homers with seven RBI on Aug. 10, 2019 at BAL, becoming the youngest player in MLB history (22 years, 44 days old) with three homers and seven RBI in a game, surpassing Pat Seerey (July 13, 1945 at 22 years, 118 days old).
- Hit .311 (288x927) with 56 doubles, 56 HR, 218 RBI and a .956 OPS (.395 OBP/.561 SLG) in 250 minor league games in four years prior to his MLB debut.
- Played in the SiriusXM All-Star Futures Game in 2017 and 2018...was a Midwest League Midseason All-Star in 2017.

2025 SEASON:

- Batted .273 (45x165) with 17 runs, eight doubles, six home runs, 27 RBI, 28 walks, one stolen bases and a .797 OPS in 48 games, including 47 starts...missed a majority of the season due to right hand fracture (100 games) and a left ankle sprain (11 games).
- Made 32 starts at DH, along with 15 starts in LF.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Right-handed starter has spent the last two seasons in the Astros rotation, averaging 10.08 strikeouts-per-9.0 innings while going 8-18 with a 4.69 ERA (94ER/180.1IP) in 36 career MLB games (35 starts).
- Has made 66 career minor league appearances (45 starts), going 19-17 with a 4.43 ERA (130ER/264.1IP).
- Entered the 2024 season as the Astros top prospect and became a mainstay in the club's rotation by mid-April...ranked fifth among AL pitchers with his average of 10.61 strikeouts-per-nine-innings (min. 145 IP) and ranked tied for first among AL rookies with 171 strikeouts on the year.
- Was the AL's Rookie of the Month for August 2024 after going 3-2 with a 1.95 ERA (7ER/32.1IP), a .168 opponent average (19x113) and 47 strikeouts in five starts during the month...became the second rookie in the Modern Era (since 1901) to log at least 47 strikeouts while allowing 19-or-fewer hits in a calendar month, joining RHP Kerry Wood, who did so for the Cubs in May 1998 (60 strikeouts, 19 hits).
- Named the 2023 Astros Minor League Pitcher of the Year and a MiLB.com Organizational ALL-STAR...split his campaign between Triple A Sugar Land and Double A Corpus Christi...also named the Astros Minor League Pitcher of the Month in May, while pitching at Double A.

2025 SEASON:

- Had an injury-plagued season in which he made just seven starts, going 1-5 with a 5.35 ERA (21ER/35.1IP)...allowed just a .229 opponent average, but struggled with walks, issuing 20 free passes in 35.1 innings.
- Posted a 2.08 ERA (4ER/17.1IP) in his three home starts, allowing just three hits in those outings for a 0.56 opponent average (3x54).
- Made the Astros OPENING DAY roster, the first of his career, and started the Astros third game of the season on March 29 vs. NYM (1ER/6IP)...earned the win, which proved to be his only win of the season.
- Made two starts to open the year before being placed on the IL on April 7 with a broken right thumb...was struck on the hand by a batted ball during BP in Seattle...missed 103 team games.
- Returned in August to make five starts in the month (0-4, 5.26 ERA)...had his best outing in his final start of the season on Aug. 30 vs. LAA (1ER/6.1IP).

BROADCAST NOTES

- A local product, Arrighetti attended Cinco Ranch High School in the Houston suburb of Katy...while at Cinco Ranch, was a two-time unanimous First Team All-District pitcher...earned First Team All-State honors as a senior...went undrafted out of high school.
- Though he went to high school in the Houston area, Arrighetti was born and spent most of his childhood in Albuquerque, N.M., the same hometown as former Astros third baseman Alex Bregman...Arrighetti has cited Bregman as a role model, being someone who was a collegiate star and reached the Majors from a region not known for producing pro baseball players...Arrighetti played on the travel ball circuit with Alex's younger brother, A.J., with Alex sometimes serving as their team's first-base coach.
- Coincidentally, Arrighetti was in Albuquerque with the Triple A Sugar Land Space Cowboys, ready to make his first-ever start at Isotopes Park where he grew up watching minor league games, when he got the call he'd be making his MLB debut on April 10, 2024 in Kansas City...Arrighetti never made the start in Albuquerque and was on a plane to make his MLB debut mere hours after he had landed in New Mexico.
- Began his collegiate career at TCU, making 16 appearances and fanning 19 batters in 17.0 innings pitched as a freshman...transferred to Navarro Junior College for his sophomore year, where he made four starts and owned a 2-2 record with a 4.26 ERA...tallied 19.0 innings pitched on the bump and recorded the most strikeouts (30) and highest K/9 (14.21) on the team...transferred to the University of Louisiana at Lafayette, where he pitched one season (2021)...starred as a Ragin' Cajun, going 7-6 with a 3.12 ERA (29ER/83.2IP) in 16 games (13 starts).
- Selected by the Astros in the sixth round of the 2021 draft...signed by Astros scout Landon Townsley.
- As expected, Spencer is of Italian heritage, and has been associated with spaghetti pasta his entire life, which is a meal he does enjoy...at Double A Corpus Christi in 2023, his teammates produced shirts with a stick figure of Arrighetti pitching next to the text "Spaghetti of Meat Balls"...the crew wore the shirt for every start made by Spencer...the infamous drawing was inspired after playing a Pictionary-type game with his teammates on their phones.
- Has accrued exactly two years of service time...is signed to a major league contract for 2026.

- Placed on the IL again on Aug. 31 with right elbow inflammation and did not make another appearance on the season.

2024 SEASON:

- Was thrust into the Astros rotation in mid-April and went 7-13 with a 4.53 ERA (73ER/145IP) and 179 strikeouts through 29 appearances (28 starts) in his rookie season.
- Among AL rookies, finished tied for first in strikeouts (171), first in SO/9IP (10.61), tied for first in quality starts (10), tied for second in appearances, third in wins, third in innings pitched and fifth in Pitching WAR by STATS (1.4)...ranked fifth among all AL starters in SO/9 IP (min. 125 IP).
- His 171 strikeouts were the third-most by a rookie in franchise history...trailed only RHP Hunter Brown (178 in 2023) and RHP Tom Griffin (200 in 1969)... his 10.61 SO/9 was the best by a rookie pitcher in franchise history (min. 125IP).
- Posted four starts with 10-plus strikeouts, tied for second-most by an Astros pitcher in their first 30 career games (RHP Tom Griffin - 7 in 1969; RHP Don Wilson - 4 in 1967).
- Was named the AL August Rookie of the Month... became the first Astro to win a Rookie of the Month Award since OF Yordan Alvarez in August 2019... was the first Astros pitcher to win the award since RHP Colin McHugh in September 2014...went 3-2 and posted a 1.95 ERA (7ER/32.1IP), a .168 opponent batting average (19x113) and struck out 47 batters in his five starts during the month.
- Per STATS, he became the second rookie in the Modern Era (since 1901) to record at least 47 strikeouts while allowing 19-or-fewer hits in a calendar month joining CHC RHP Kerry Wood, who did so in May 1998 (60 strikeouts, 19 hits).
- Made his MLB debut on April 10 at KC...struck out the first two batters he faced, including IF Bobby Witt Jr., who was his first career strikeout...allowed seven runs on seven hits with three walks and three strikeouts through 3.0 innings in his debut.
- Earned his first Major League win on May 13 vs. OAK...tossed 5.0 innings while allowing two runs on five hits and two walks with five strikeouts in a 9-2 victory.
- Made three minor league starts on his way back from injury, posting a 5.73 ERA (7ER/11IP) at the Double A (2g) and Triple A levels (1g).
- Recorded his first quality start and first scoreless outing on May 30 at SEA...hurled 6.0 shutout innings and allowed just two hits and three walks with 8 strikeouts.
- Logged his 100th career strikeout in just his 19th career outing on July 28 vs. LAD...became the fifth pitcher in Astros history to record 100 strikeouts through their first 19 career appearances, with RHP Hunter Brown the last to do so (101 strikeouts through his first 19 appearances).
- Notched 12 strikeouts on Aug. 5 vs. TB and followed that with 13 strikeouts on Aug. 10 at BOS, becoming the first rookie in AL history to log 12-plus strikeouts in consecutive starts (source: STATS)...was one of six Astros ever to tally 12-plus strikeouts in back-to-back starts, joining RHP Cristian Javier.
- His 13 strikeouts on Aug. 10 at BOS marked the second-highest single-game strikeout total by an Astros rookie, behind only a 15-strikeout effort by RHP J.R. Richard in his MLB debut on Sept. 5, 1971.
- Carried a no-hit bid into the eighth inning on Aug. 28 at PHI...ended his outing with 7.2 scoreless innings and 10 strikeouts...was the longest outing of his career and was the second-longest no-hit bid by a rookie in Astros history, trailing only RHP Don Wilson's completed no-hitter on June 19, 1967 vs. ATL.
- Got the Opening Day nod for Triple A Sugar Land and recorded a 2.16 ERA (2ER/8.1IP) with 10 strikeouts and a .233 opponent batting average (7x30) through 2 starts before being promoted to the big league club on April 10...made two MLB starts before being optioned back to Triple A on April 16...was recalled on April 21 and spent the rest of the year with the big league club.
- Was ranked as the Astros' top pitching prospect and No. 3 overall prospect by both Baseball America and MLB Pipeline entering the 2024 season.

MINOR LEAGUE CAREER:

- Was named the Astros 2023 Minor League Pitcher of the Year and a MiLB.com Organizational All-Star after combining to go 9-7 with a 4.40 ERA (61ER/124.2IP) in 28 games (21 starts)...posted 141 strikeouts in his 124.2 innings on the season... began his season at Double A, where he made his first 13 appearances (eight starts)...had a slow start to the season, posting an 11.05 ERA (18ER/14.2IP) in his first four appearances...recovered to dominate in May, going 4-0 with a 0.67 ERA (2ER/27IP) in five games (three starts)...named the Astros Minor League Pitcher of the Month for May...racked up 79 strikeouts in his 60.2 innings before a promotion to Triple A in late June...finished his season at Triple A, making 15 appearances...he was especially great at home for the Space Cowboys, pitching to a 1.93 ERA in nine appearances (eight starts), giving up just nine total runs in 42.0 frames of work...overall on the season, Arrighetti finished second in the Astros system in wins, third in strikeouts, innings pitched, batting average against (.217) and games started (21), fourth in WHIP (1.25) and sixth in ERA.
- Split his 2022 season between Corpus Christi (5g/4gs) and Class A Asheville (22g/13gs)... combined to go 7-6 with a 4.73 ERA (56ER/106.2IP) on the season...led all Astros minor leaguers with 152 strikeouts in just 106.2 innings of work.
- Began his professional career in 2021 with the FCL Astros, making two appearances...promoted to Class A Fayetteville for his final four appearances of the season.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Physically imposing starter has pitched in parts of the last four seasons with Houston, posting a 3.45 ERA (105ER/274IP) in 63 appearances (45 starts)...has 273 strikeouts in 274.0 career innings, while allowing just a .209 opponent average.
- Was sidelined for most of the 2025 season after undergoing surgery on his right arm on June 6, 2025...the procedure included a repair of his ulnar collateral ligament with an internal brace as well as a repair of the flexor tendon in his forearm...is expected to return in the 2026 season.
- Had a breakout 2024 campaign, his first full season in the rotation, in which he ranked first in the AL in opponent batting average (.190), first in hits-allowed-per-nine-innings (6.13) and second in ERA (2.80), while also throwing a no-hitter.
- Tossed the 17th no-hitter in Astros history in his season debut on April 1, 2024 vs. TOR, in what was his eighth career start...was the earliest no-hitter thrown by date in MLB history and was the 13th solo no-hitter thrown in club history...was subsequently named the AL Player of the Week.
- Served mainly as a reliever in his minor league career, going 41-23 with a 3.54 ERA (160ER/407.1IP), 38 saves and 462 strikeouts through 202 games (34 starts)...was named a Pacific Coast League Post-Season ALL-STAR in 2021 with Triple A Sugar Land.
- For six straight offseasons, from 2018-23, pitched for the Estrellas in the Dominican Winter League, making a total of 52 relief apps. and recording a combined 0.98 ERA (6ER/55IP)...was especially dominant between the 2021-22 offseasons, combining to make 36 relief appearances (38.2IP) without allowing an earned run.

2025 SEASON:

- Had an injury-shortened season in which he made just nine starts to open the season before being shut down...went 3-4 with a 4.10 ERA (22ER/48.1IP) in his nine starts...struck out 48 in 48.1 innings pitched and allowed just a .210 opponent average.
- Went 3-1 with a 2.73 ERA (9ER/29.2IP) in five home starts, in which the Astros went 4-1.
- Made his fourth consecutive OPENING DAY roster with the Astros (2022-25) and his second straight in the Astros rotation...started the club's fourth game of the season on March 31 vs. SF (3ER/5IP).

BROADCAST NOTES

- Grew up in Santiago, DR, which is the second-largest city in the Dominican Republic...played amateur baseball as a light-hitting corner infielder and outfielder with a strong arm...did not hit enough to get a look by scouts so switched to pitching at the age of 18...worked on his pitching in the morning, and in the afternoon he worked at a car wash, to help support himself and his mother, Maria.
- Continued pitching in showcases and on the tryout circuit in the Dominican, where he was eventually seen at a workout by Astros scout Francis Mojica...Mojica attended the workout to get a look at the highly-touted prospect and eventual 2022 AL Rookie of the Year Julio Rodríguez, who shared the same trainer as Blanco...after seeing him throw, Mojica invited Blanco to the Astros academy and subsequently signed him at the age of 22 on April 27, 2016...Mojica, Oz Ocampo and Roman Ocumarez are all credited with his signing...Blanco joined a growing list of Astros pitchers who were signed at advanced ages out of Latin American countries...the Astros also signed future starters Framber Valdez (21 years old), Luis Garcia (20) and Cristian Javier (18) at ages that most teams would deem too old to sign.
- Was primarily a relief pitcher prior to the 2023 season, which all changed with the Astros hiring of GM Dana Brown...after observing another strong Spring Training performance in 2023, Brown identified Blanco as potential starter...he broke camp with the MLB team as a reliever, but was quickly optioned to Triple A to get extended...returned to make seven starts with the Astros in 2023.
- Was informed by Astros manager Joe Espada that he made the Astros Opening Day roster in 2024 as he was being taken out of the team's preseason finale on March 24, 2024 following a 10-strikeout performance...earlier that day his wife, Yanissa, gave birth to their second child, a daughter.
- Among the many in attendance for his no-hitter on April 1, 2024, was his mother, Maria...shortly following the final out, Maria shared a hug with Ronel on the field...Ronel dedicated his no-hitter to his mother and the rest of his family.
- Has picked up two years and 101 days of MLB service over the last four seasons...is signed to a one-year contract for the 2026 season.

- In his third start of the season on April 11, began a strong run, posting a 3.24 ERA (15ER/41.2IP) over his final seven starts...posted a 1.03 WHIP and a .193 opponent average in that span.
- Had his best outing of the season on May 11 vs. CIN, allowing two hits and one walk with a career-high 11 strikeouts in 8.0 scoreless innings.
- Made his last appearance of the year on May 17 at TEX (3ER/6IP)...placed on the IL on May 22 and did not return to action in 2025.
- Underwent surgery on his right arm on June 6...the procedure included a repair of his ulnar collateral ligament with an internal brace as well as a repair of the flexor tendon in his forearm.

2024 SEASON:

- Made a strong bid for an All-Star selection and Cy Young Award consideration in his first full season in the rotation, going 13-6 with a 2.80 ERA (52ER/167.1IP), a .190 opponent batting average and a 1.088 WHIP through 30 games (29 starts).
- Among qualified AL starters, ranked first in opponent average, first in hits-allowed-per-nine-innings (6.13), second in ERA, sixth in WHIP and eighth in opponent OPS (.627)...the Astros went 20-9 in his starts on the season.
- Set career-bests in nearly every category, most notably: Games (30/29 starts), IP (167.1), Wins (13), Strikeouts (166), ERA (2.80) and ERA+ (141).
- Made 23 starts in which he allowed five-or-fewer hits, tied for third-most in the AL (with teammate RHP Hunter Brown)...had eight starts in which he didn't allow an earned run...was one of 14 MLB pitchers to make at least eight starts without allowing an earned run in 2024.
- Owned an MLB-best 2.36 road ERA (min. 75 IP).
- His 7-2 road record (.778 win pct.) was the second-best winning percentage on the road in the Majors behind CHC Shota Imanaga (8-1, .889).
- Did not allow more than five hits through his first 14 starts of the season...excluding openers, marked the longest such streak in AL history (per STATS)...the streak ended on June 28 at NYM in his 15th start of the season (6 hits).
- Was on his third consecutive (and career) OPENING DAY roster with Houston.
- Tossed the 17th no-hitter in club history in his season debut on April 1 vs. TOR, facing two batters over the minimum...was the earliest no-hitter (by date) thrown in MLB history...was the eighth start of his career, marking the 18th solo no-hitter thrown by a pitcher within the first eight starts of their career...was the 13th solo no-hitter in club history.
- Went on to win the AL Player of the Week Award following his no-hit effort.
- Followed his no-hitter with 6.0 scoreless innings on April 7 at TEX...recorded 44 outs to begin the season before surrendering his first hit, which is the most by any pitcher to begin a season since at least 1893 (when the mound moved to its current distance from home plate).
- Had a scoreless streak of 15 innings to open the season, which was tied for the fourth-longest scoreless streak to open a season by a starter in Astros history with RHP Cristian Javier (2024)
- Tossed his fourth consecutive quality start to open the season on April 20 at WSH, becoming the first Astros starter to do so since RHP Gerrit Cole in 2019.
- Did not pick up his first losing decision until his 10th start of the season on May 31 vs. MIN...was the latest into a season that an Astros starter had recorded their first loss since RHP Charlie Morton in 2018 (first loss in 12th start).
- Pitched 7.0 no-hit innings before being removed from his start at 94 pitches on June 16 vs. DET...had retired the first 14 batters he faced before issuing a walk...became the second pitcher in club history to log two starts of 7.0+ no-hit innings in a season, along with LHP Framber Valdez (2023 and 2024).
- Matched his single-game career high with nine strikeouts on July 27 vs. LAD...went on to match that total once again on Sept. 21 vs. LAA.
- Made his lone relief appearance of the year on Sept. 7 vs. ARI, tossing 2.0 scoreless innings with five strikeouts...were the most strikeouts in a single relief appearance in his MLB career.
- Made his first career POSTSEASON appearance in Game 1 of the ALWC vs. DET...hurled 2.0 innings of scoreless relief, allowing just one hit with three walks and four strikeouts.
- Was handed a 10-game suspension by MLB on May 15 following his ejection from the Astros' game on May 14 vs. OAK due to a foreign substance being found on his glove.

2023 SEASON:

- Finished the season going 2-1 with a 4.50 ERA (26ER/52IP) in 17 games, including seven starts, with the Astros...also recorded 52 strikeouts and a .251 opponent batting average.
- Made the OPENING DAY roster as a reliever (for the second straight season) and made nine apps. before an option to Triple A on May 6...at Triple A, he worked to get extended, before being recalled on June 1...Blanco's transition to a starter can be credited to Astros GM Dana Brown, who identified him in Spring Training as a potential starter.
- Bounced between Triple A and the Majors on five occasions in 2023...was with the Major League club from Opening Day thru May 6, June 1-July 2, July 6-8, Aug. 2 and Aug. 25-27.
- Made his first career Major League start on June 1 vs. LAA (2ER/5.1IP)...recorded his first career quality start on June 7 at TOR (2ER/6IP).
- In the POSTSEASON, appeared on the Astros ALCS roster but did not make an appearance.
- At Triple A, went 7-4 with a 3.68 ERA, 81 K's and a .188 opponent average in 15 games (13 starts).

2022 SEASON:

- Began his season as an NRI at MLB Spring Training and impressed, making five scoreless appearances, while allowing just one hit with seven strikeouts.
- After Spring Training, made the Astros OPENING DAY roster...pitched in seven relief appearances with Houston, tossing 6.1 innings, while striking out seven...made his Major League debut on April 8 at LAA (1ER/1.2IP), closing out the Astros 13-6 win.
- Spent a month in Houston before being optioned to Triple A on May 1...finished his season at Sugar Land, where he made 44 apps., posting a 3.63 ERA (18ER/44.2IP) with 58 strikeouts in 44.2 innings.
- Like his 2021 offseason, returned to the Estrellas for Winter Ball in 2022, and did not allow an earned run in his Winter Ball season...went 4-0 with six saves and a 0.00 ERA (0ER/20.2IP) for the Estrellas.

MINOR LEAGUE CAREER:

- Was an NRI at Spring Training for the first time in his career in 2021, making two scoreless appearances for the Astros (2.1IP)...reassigned to minor league camp on March 17...spent his entire regular season at Triple A, appearing in 42 games, while posting a 5-3 record, 22 saves and a 3.40 ERA (17ER/45IP)... struck out 57 in his 45.0 innings...named a Triple A PCL Postseason All-Star...following the regular season, had a stellar stint with the Estrellas in the Dominican Winter League...made 17 scoreless appearances for the Estrellas, pitching 18.0 innings...tacked on another two scoreless appearances in the Dominican League postseason.
- Trained at the Astros Alternate Training Site in 2020 during the pandemic-shortened season.
- Appeared at three levels in the Astros system in 2019, going 5-2 with a 4.96 ERA (27ER/49IP) and 57 strikeouts in 32 games.
- Had a 5-1 record and a 1.73 ERA in 19 games at Class A Advanced Buies Creek in 2018, before going 2-0 with a 7.08 ERA in his first stint at Double A.
- Spent the majority of 2017 at Class A Quad Cities, where he went 6-4 with a 3.30 ERA (31ER/84.2IP).
- Made his professional debut in the Dominican Summer League in 2016, going 7-1 with a 2.13 ERA (12ER/50.2IP).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Hard-throwing right-hander has pitched in parts of four big league seasons (2022-25), spending most of the last three in the Astros rotation, and has gone 36-31 with a 3.49 ERA (206ER/531.1IP) in 100 games (92 starts)...has posted 585 strikeouts in his first 531.1 innings to begin his MLB career.
- Was a 2025 All-Star and finished third in the AL in Cy Young voting after turning in the best season of his career with a 12-9 record and a 2.43 ERA (50ER/185.1IP)...among AL starters, ranked first in opponent SLG (.318) and second in ERA (2.43)...was named the AL Pitcher of the Month for June after going 1-0 with a 1.19 ERA (4ER/30.1IP) in five starts.
- Turned in a strong sophomore campaign in 2024, going 11-9 with a 3.49 ERA (66ER/170IP) and 179 strikeouts through 31 games (30 starts)...went 10-4 with a 2.31 ERA (31ER/120.2IP) over his final 20 starts of the season, which ranked as the lowest ERA in the AL in that span (min. 100 IP).
- Spent the entirety of his 2023 season at the MLB level, working as a starter in 29 of his 31 appearances...ended up leading AL rookie pitchers in innings and strikeouts, while ranking tied for first in wins and second in strikeouts per 9.0 (10.29) (min 100 IP)...his 178 strikeouts were the second-most strikeouts in a single season by an Astros rookie, trailing only RHP Tom Griffin (200 in 1969).
- Made it to the Majors in 2022, making seven appearances with a 0.89 ERA (2ER/20.1IP)...his MLB debut came on Sept. 5, 2022 vs. TEX (0ER/6IP), earning the victory...also pitched three times in the postseason, working 3.2 scoreless...had his postseason moment in Game 3 of the ALDS at SEA, in the Astros 18-inning, series-clinching win, tossing 2.0 scoreless innings (12th-13th innings).
- Also had a phenomenal 2022 season at Triple A Sugar Land, earning the Astros Minor League Pitcher of the Year honors...pitched in 23 games (14 starts) with Sugar Land, posting a 2.55 ERA...at the time of his selection to the MLB roster in September, led the Pacific Coast League in ERA (2.55), strikeouts (134) and opponent average (.186), while ranking second in wins (9) and in WHIP (1.08).
- In his stellar minor league career, he went 17-11 with a 3.40 ERA (87ER/230IP) and 298 strikeouts in 59 career minor league games, including 39 starts.

BROADCAST NOTES

- Born and raised in Detroit, Brown went to grade school, high school and college in his hometown...he grew up a Tigers fan and a fan of Justin Verlander, who he modeled his pitching delivery after...Brown met Verlander as a fifth-grader at St. Isaac Jogues Catholic School in Saint Clair Shores, MI, a suburb of Detroit...Verlander, fellow Tiger Carlos Guillén and others visited the school as part of a radio promotion, won by one of Brown's classmates...the two later were teammates for three years (2022-24).
- Graduated in 2016 from Lakeview HS, which is also in Saint Clair Shores, MI...hit .438 while posting a 1.54 ERA as a senior...was his team's offensive MVP as a junior...also lettered in wrestling as a freshman...went undrafted out of high school.
- After high school, attended Division II Wayne State University, which is also in Detroit...had a breakout junior year in which he went 9-0 with a 2.21 ERA, three shutouts, and 114 strikeouts in 85.1 innings.
- After his junior year, was selected by the Astros in the fifth round of the June 2019 draft...signed by Astros scout Scott Oberhelman.
- Has changed his repertoire over the course of his career, which resulted in a huge turnaround over the last two seasons...many coaches and teammates have worked with Brown, none more so than former teammate Alex Bregman, who suggested Brown incorporate a running sinker into his arsenal to keep right-handed hitters from leaning out over the plate...while the sinker does not grade out analytically as well as his other offerings, it compliments his offerings to a tee...prior to the change, Brown owned a 5.10 ERA in 41 games, since the change Brown has posted a 2.64 ERA in 59 games.
- Finished third in AL Cy Young voting in 2025, which earned the Astros a compensation pick immediately after the first round of the 2026 draft...the Astros earned the pick through the Prospect Promotion Incentive (PPI), which was ratified into the latest CBA...the PPI rewards teams for promoting their best prospects to the big leagues at the start of the season, having them accrue one full year of service time and then having them factor into a major award that season or prior to qualifying for arbitration.
- With three years and 35 days of service, was arbitration eligible for the first time this offseason, settling on a one-year deal for the 2026 season.

2025 SEASON:

- The 2025 ALL-STAR finished third in the AL in Cy Young voting after turning in the best season of his career with a 12-9 record, a 2.43 ERA (50ER/185.1IP) and posting the lowest WHIP of his career with a 1.03...held opponents to a career-low .201 average and achieved his first 200-plus strikeout season.
- His 2.43 ERA ranked 10th all-time among Astros starters and was the second-lowest by an Astros starter in the last 20 seasons (since 2005).
- Led Astros starters with 31 starts (along with teammate LHP Framber Valdez)...set career bests in ERA (2.43), IP (185.1), strikeouts (206), wins (12) and games started (31)...had eight starts in which he didn't allow an earned run.
- Finished his season with 206 strikeouts, making him the 18th pitcher in club history to reach 200 strikeouts in a season...was the first Astros hurler to reach 206 strikeouts in a season since both RHP Gerrit Cole (326) and RHP Justin Verlander (300) accomplished the feat in 2019.
- Among AL starters, ranked first in opponent SLG (.318), second in ERA (2.43), second in opponent OPS (.589), tied for second in quality starts (21), third in strikeouts (206), fourth in WHIP (1.03), fourth in SO/9IP (10.00), fourth in pitching WAR (4.8) and fifth in BAA (.201).
- Made his third career OPENING DAY roster.
- Posted a scoreless innings streak of 28.0 innings from April 3-27, which is the longest scoreless innings streak of Brown's career and was the second longest in the AL in 2025...is the fifth longest single-season scoreless streak by a starter in club history.
- Was named the AL Pitcher of the Month for June...for the month, he went 1-0 with a 1.19 ERA (4ER/30.1IP)...he also recorded 39 strikeouts, a .130 opponent average and a 0.82 WHIP...the Astros won all five of his starts during June...his 1.19 ERA was the best in the AL in June and his .130 opponent batting average was the best in the Majors in June.
- In 19 night-game starts, he recorded a 2.17 ERA (28ER/116IP) with 34 walks, 118 strikeouts, a 1.01 WHIP, 13 quality starts and a .201 opponent batting average...owned the lowest night game ERA among qualified starters.
- Relied on six pitches in 2025: a four seamer (38.0%), a sinker (22.1%), a knuckle curve (17.9%), a changeup (12.0%), a cutter (5.5%) and a slider (4.4%).
- Owned a 32.2% hard-hit %, which ranked in the 97th percentile of MLB pitchers...also ranked in the 97th percentile in avg. exit velocity (86.1).
- Recorded 115 strikeouts vs. LHH, the most by an AL pitcher this season and the second most in MLB this season behind PIT RHP Paul Skenes (124).
- Made his 2025 debut against the New York Mets on March 28 in what was the Astros second game of the season...allowed three runs (2ER) on four hits with seven strikeouts in 6.0 innings.
- Started the season off with seven consecutive quality starts, and he was the first MLB pitcher to kick off a season with seven or more consecutive quality starts since San Diego Padre RHP Joe Musgrove began the 2022 season with 12 straight.
- Threw his first career complete game on May 15 at TEX...tossed 8.0 innings and surrendered just one run on three hits in a shutout defeat for the Astros.
- Struck out a season and career-high 12 batters on June 14 vs. MIN in a game where he received a no-decision despite going 7.0 innings and allowing two runs on three hits and a walk.
- Was selected to his first career All-Star Game...did not appear in the Midsummer Classic as he pitched in the Astros final game before the break.
- Had a strong August, making six starts in the month and recording a 1.67 ERA (7ER/37.2IP) with 11 walks, 33 strikeouts, a .209 opponent batting average, a 1.04 WHIP and five quality starts...among AL starters in August, he ranked fourth in ERA.

2024 SEASON:

- After pitching to mixed results in the first month of the season, he settled in as one of the most consistent starters in the Astros rotation and the AL, finishing the year 11-9 with a 3.49 ERA (66ER/170IP), 179 strikeouts, a 113 ERA+ and 19 quality starts through 31 games (30 starts).
- Over his final 20 starts of the year, he went 10-4 with a 2.31 ERA (31ER/120.2IP), a .221 opponent average, and 126 K's...among AL pitchers over that span (min. 100 IP), he ranked first in ERA, fourth in opponent OPS (.583), and tied for fourth in wins.
- On the season, ranked fifth in the AL in ground ball % (48.7)...led Astros starters in starts, strikeouts, strikeouts-per-9.0 (9.48) and quality starts.
- Held hitters to an average exit velo of 86.2 mph, ranking in the 96th percentile among MLB pitchers...also allowed hard-hit contact at just a 30.3-percent clip, placing him in the 97th %.
- Made 23 starts in which he allowed five-or-fewer hits, tied for third-most in the AL (with teammate RHP Ronel Blanco).
- Recorded 103 strikeouts vs. LHH, tied for the most by an AL pitcher (also, SEA RHP Logan Gilbert).
- Was a member of his second career OPENING DAY roster (2023-24) with Houston.
- Logged a career-high eight consecutive quality starts from May 22-July 1, which was tied for the fourth-longest quality-start streak in the Majors.
- In five starts from June 8-July 1, he posted a 0.29 ERA (1ER/31IP), while also going 5-0...became the fourth pitcher in Astros history and marked the sixth instance in club history in which a pitcher logged a sub-3.00 ERA through a five-start stretch, joining RHP J.R. Richard (1979-80), RHP Nolan Ryan (1981, 1984) and LHP Jim Deshaies (1986).

- Made a strong bid for the AL Pitcher of the Month in June, posting a 1.16 ERA (4ER/31IP), .189 opponent batting average, .529 opponent OPS, 0.94 WHIP and 10.45 SO/9IP through his five starts during the month...among AL pitchers in June, ranked tied for first in wins, third in opponent batting average, third in opponent OPS, third in H/9IP (6.10), fifth in WHIP and eighth in SO/9IP...additionally, his 1.16 ERA was tied for the lowest ever in June by an Astros pitcher (also, RHP Darryl Kile in June of 1993).
- Recorded 12 consecutive starts of at least 6.0-plus innings from May 22-July 24...was the second-longest streak in the Majors in 2024...was the longest such streak by an Astros pitcher since LHP Framber Valdez tossed 6.0-plus innings in 25 consecutive starts as part of his historic quality-start streak from April 25-Sept. 18, 2022.
- From June 14-19, he logged back-to-back starts of at least 6.0 IP and six strikeouts without surrendering a walk, becoming the first Astros starter do so since RHP Zack Greinke posted those totals in back-to-back starts from April 17-23, 2021.
- Made his lone relief appearance of the year on May 11 at DET...struck out seven batters in 5.0 innings while allowing one run on five hits...was the longest relief outing of his career.
- Logged his first career POSTSEASON start in Game 2 of the ALWC vs. DET and struck out nine batters through 5.2 innings while allowing just one run on two hits...became the second pitcher in Astros history to strike out nine-plus hitters in their first career postseason start, joining RHP Mike Scott, who tossed a complete-game shutout with 14 strikeouts in Game 1 of the 1986 NLCS vs. NYM.

2023 SEASON:

- The rookie primarily pitched out of the Astros rotation during the regular season, making 31 appearances (29 starts) and pitching 155.2 innings.
- Led AL rookie pitchers in innings, strikeouts, and ranked tied for first in wins, while ranking second in strikeouts per 9.0 (10.29) (min 100 IP)...including all AL pitchers, ranked seventh in strikeouts per 9.0 (min. 130 IP)...his SO/9 was tops in a single season by an Astros rookie (min. 140 IP).
- His 178 strikeouts were the second-most strikeouts in a single season by an Astros rookie...he only trailed RHP Tom Griffin (200 in 1969).
- Ranked third among AL pitchers with a 52.2% ground ball percentage, trailing teammate LHP Framber Valdez (55%) and Red Sox RHP Brayan Bello (56.6%) (min 120 IP).
- Showed up during road trips, going 7-4 with a 3.80 ERA (35ER/83IP) and 93 strikeouts in his 16 appearances (14 starts) on the road this season.
- Started his career 5-0 through his first 12 games (seven starts), a streak which spanned from Sept. 5, 2022 to April 26, 2023...in that stretch, he posted a 2.54 ERA, which ranked second in club history by a pitcher through his first 16 career apps. (min. 70 IP).
- Made his first career OPENING DAY roster.
- Made back-to-back starts on April 9 at MIN and April 15 vs TEX in which he recorded at least 7.0 IP without allowing an ER...the last Astros pitcher to do so was LHP Scott Kazmir, who made two such starts in a row in 2015 (July 24-July 30, 2015).
- From May 14-31, he recorded eight-plus strikeouts in four straight starts...the last Astros rookie to strike out eight-plus batters in four straight starts was RHP Roy Oswalt, who did so in six straight from Aug. 14-Sept. 9 in 2001.
- Had only two appearances out of the bullpen during the regular season when he threw 2.0 scoreless innings on Aug. 15 at MIA and a scoreless 9th inning to secure the AL West title on Oct. 1 at ARI...had not allowed a run in his 12 of his 14 career appearances out of the bullpen, including seven postseason outings.
- Worked twice in the ALDS and twice in the ALCS in the 2023 POSTSEASON, posting a 2.57 ERA (2ER/7IP) with six strikeouts in those appearances...all four appearances came in relief.

2022 SEASON:

- Astros No. 1 prospect was called up from Triple A on Sept. 1...went 2-0 with a 0.89 ERA (2ER/20.1IP) through seven big league outings (two starts).
- Made two starts before being moved to the bullpen when RHP Justin Verlander returned from injury on Sept. 16...in the bullpen, pitched in five games, posting a 0.00 ERA (0ER/8IP) with 11 strikeouts.
- Was lights out at Daikin Park, posting a 0.00 ERA while striking out 12 in 10.1 innings at home.
- In five games as a reliever, did not allow a single run, which included 3.0- and 2.1-inning outings on Sept. 19 at TB and Oct. 4 vs. PHI, respectively.
- Had an incredible start to his MLB career, winning both of his first two career starts on Sept. 5 vs. TEX (0ER/6IP) and Sept. 13 at DET (2ER/6IP)...on Sept 5 vs. TEX, became the third Astros starter in club history to toss 6.0 scoreless frames in their debut.
- Brown and the D-backs RHP Ryne Nelson both made their MLB debut on Sept. 5, with Brown tossing 6.0 scoreless and Nelson working 7.0 scoreless...per Elias, this marked the third time in MLB history that two players making their MLB debuts threw 6.0+ innings without allowing a run on the same day (also, Eric Milton (MIN) and Masato Yoshii (NYM) on April 5, 1998 and Ricky Bones (SD) and Armando Reynoso (ATL) on Aug. 11, 1991.
- Following the season, named the Astros Minor League Pitcher of the Year...pitched in 23 games (14 starts) with Triple A Sugar Land, posting a 2.55 ERA.
- At the time of his selection to the Major League roster on Sept. 1, he led the Pacific Coast League in ERA (2.55), strikeouts (134) and opponent average (.186), while ranking second in wins (9) and in WHIP (1.08).

- Also earned a couple awards, being named the Astros Minor League Pitcher of the Month for May...also named the Pacific Coast League Pitcher of the Week for the week of May 23-29.
- As a reliever at Triple A, was dominant with a 1.34 ERA in 40.1 innings…had 54 strikeouts in 40.1 innings of relief.
- Was on all three of the Astros POSTSEASON rosters...ended up pitching in three playoff games, tossing 3.2 scoreless innings...allowed two hits and struck out one...pitched 2.0 innings in relief in G3 of ALDS at SEA, giving up one hit and one walk while striking out a batter...the Astros went 3-0 in games he pitched.

MINOR LEAGUE CAREER:

- Played his first full season as a professional in 2021...began the year as an NRI with the Astros, making two relief appearances (2ER/2IP) before being reassigned to minor league camp on March 16...started the regular season at Double A Corpus Christi before being promoted to Triple A Sugar Land on July 31...combined to go 6-5 with a 4.04 ERA (45ER/100.1IP) with 131 strikeouts between the two levels.
- Did not appear in a game in 2020 due to the cancellation of the minor league season.
- Spent the entire 2019 season at Class A Short Season Tri-City after getting selected in the fifth round of the 2019 MLB Draft...went 2-2 with a 4.56 ERA (12ER/23.2IP), 18 walks and 33 strikeouts in 12 games (6 starts).

Born: 11/8/99 in Waterford, CT Resides: Waterford, CT
Contract Status: Signed through 2026
Acquired: From Pittsburgh as part of a three-team trade between the Astros, Pirates and Rays on Dec. 19, 2025. The Astros sent RHP Anderson Brito and OF Jacob Melton to the Rays in the deal.
ML Service: 0.135

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Right-handed starter has made 24 career Major League appearances (19 starts) in parts of two seasons with the Pirates (2024-25)...posted 99 strikeouts in his 99.1 career Major League innings.
- Had a strong 2025 season with the Pirates, posting a 3.94 ERA (42ER/96IP) in 23 appearances...had a strong second half of the season, posting a 3.27 ERA (20ER/55IP) in 13 games (10 starts)...in that span, allowed one-or-fewer runs in seven of his last eight appearances...overall, finished tied for third in the NL in strikeouts by a rookie (97).
- Was selected to represent the National League in the 2022 SiriusXM All-Star Futures Game in Los Angeles, tossing a scoreless 5th inning with a strikeout and a walk.
- Pitched in the 2021 Arizona Fall League, going 2-0 with a 3.52 ERA (6ER/15.1IP) and 16 strikeouts in five appearances while pitching for Peoria.
- In his minor league career, he's gone 12-15 with a 3.58 ERA (116ER/291.1IP) and 332 strikeouts in 78 career minor league games, including 73 starts.

2025 SEASON:

- Pitched most of the season with the Pirates, making 23 appearances (19 starts) and going 2-4 with a 3.94 ERA (42ER/96IP)...struck out 97 hitters in 96.0 IP.
- Had two Major League stints on the year, from April 24-25 and from May 21 thru the end of the year.
- Had a strong second half with the Pirates, posting a 3.27 ERA (20ER/55IP) in 13 games (10 starts)...in that span, allowed one-or-fewer runs in seven of his last eight appearances, posting a 2.22 ERA (7ER/28.1IP) in those games, which spanned from Aug. 16 thru the end of the year...did not allow a homer over a 26.1-inning span from Aug. 16-Sept. 21.
- Finished tied for third in the NL in strikeouts by a rookie (97)...trailed only Chad Patrick (127), Brad Lord (108) and was tied with Cade Horton.
- Worked as both a starter (19g) and reliever (4g)...had a 4.15 ERA (40ER/86.2IP) in his 19 starts.
- Earned his first win as a starter in the big leagues on June 4 vs. HOU, allowing five hits and no walks while striking out six batters over 5.1 scoreless innings.
- Had a 3.47 ERA (9ER/23.1IP), with 25 strikeouts and a .198 opponent batting average in five July starts.

BROADCAST NOTES

- Is a 2018 graduate of Waterford HS (CT), where he went 6–0 with a 0.38 ERA and 98 strikeouts over 44 innings as a senior...also threw a no-hitter his junior year, in which he struck out 21 batters...committed to the University of Connecticut out of high school.
- Was selected out of high school by Pittsburgh in the 11th round of the June 2018 draft...was offered an over-slot bonus to sign and forgo his commitment to UConn...signed by Pirates scout Eddie Charles.
- A native of Connecticut, Burrows is in a small fraternity of Major Leaguers from the Constitution State...only four other Connecticuters have played for the Astros in their franchise history: C Brad Ausmus (1259g), OF George Springer (795g), RHP Bill Dawley (157g) and RHP Josh Zeid (48g).
- Growing up, Mike's father was a huge Red Sox fan and would take Mike to Fenway Park as a child...at those games, he remembers singing along to Jonathan Papelbon's entrance music, which was "I'm Shipping up to Boston" by the Dropkick Murphys...he became a huge fan of the game of baseball and of Red Sox pitchers Josh Beckett and Pedro Martínez...Mike says this is the part of his childhood that made him fall in love with the game and made him want to be a professional baseball player...he would go on to emulate Beckett's delivery and tried to pitch with the same emotion and fire of Papelbon and Martínez.
- Burrows uses primarily a four-seam fastball (39.2%), but has had success with his offspeed pitches, a changeup (23.7%), slider (19.5%) and curveball (11.9%)...he ranks in the 97th percentile of MLB pitchers in Offspeed Run Value, per Baseball Savant...also added a two-seam fastball in the second half of the 2025 season, which coincided with him posting a 3.27 ERA over his final 55.0 innings.
- After spending eight seasons (2018-25) in the Pirates minor league system, the Astros acquired Burrows this offseason in a three-team, six-player trade...as part of the deal, the Astros traded OF Jacob Melton and minor leaguer RHP Anderson Brito to the Rays...meanwhile, the Rays traded IF Brandon Lowe, OF Jake Mangum and LHP Mason Montgomery to the Pirates, and Burrows got dealt to the Astros.
- Enters the 2026 season with just 135 days of Major League service, making him under club control for the next six seasons (2026-31)

- Went 2-1 with a 2.51 ERA (9ER/32.1IP) and 41 strikeouts in his eight outings (seven starts) at Triple A Indianapolis on the season.
- At the time of his last promotion on May 21, ranked second in the International League with a 1.02 ERA, 28 K's and a 0.85 WHIP.

2024 SEASON:

- Began the season on the 60-day injured list (rehabbing from right elbow surgery on 4/26/23).
- Began a rehab assignment on June 17 and made six rehab starts before being assigned to Triple A Indianapolis on July 25.
- Posted a 1-3 record, a 5.26 ERA (30ER/51.1IP) and 59 strikeouts in 16 minor league games (15 starts) overall.
- Was recalled on Sept. 28...made his MLB debut that night at NYY...pitched 3.1 innings in relief of Paul Skenes (2IP) and earned his first big league win.

MINOR LEAGUE CAREER:

- Entered the 2023 season listed by Baseball America as being the ninth-best prospect in the Pirates' system...made two starts for Indianapolis, but left his start on April 8 with a right forearm injury and was placed on the injured list on April 11...underwent Tommy John surgery on April 26 and missed the remainder of the season.
- Entered the 2022 season listed by Baseball America as having the Best Curveball in Pittsburgh's system...split the year between Double A Altoona and Triple A Indianapolis, combining to go 5-6 with a 4.01 ERA (42ER/94.1IP) in 24 games (22 starts)...went 4-2 with a 2.94 ERA (17ER/52IP) and 69 strikeouts in 12 starts with Altoona before being promoted to Triple A on June 16...was selected to represent the National League in the SiriusXM All-Star Futures Game in Los Angeles on July 16, tossing a scoreless 5th inning with a strikeout and a walk.
- Spent the 2021 season with High A Greensboro, where he allowed two earned runs or fewer in each of his 13 starts...ended May with a 1.13 ERA (2ER/16IP) in four starts while also posting a .115 opponent average and 0.69 WHIP...placed on the IL on July 16 with a left oblique strain...was reinstated on Sept. 7...went 2-0 with a 3.52 ERA (6ER/15.1IP) and 16 strikeouts in five appearances (one start) while pitching for Peoria Javelinas in the AFL.
- Did not appear in a game in 2020 due to the cancellation of the minor league season.
- Played the entire 2019 season with Low A West Virginia, going 2-3 with a 4.33 ERA (21ER/43.2IP) and 43 strikeouts in 11 starts.
- Began his pro career with the GCL Pirates after being selected by Pittsburgh in the 11th round of the 2018 draft...made his first pro relief appearance with the GCL Pirates on Aug. 6.

BROADCAST NOTES

- A native of Ozark, MO, which is suburb of Springfield, MO, Cole grew up an avid baseball fan and would go to Springfield Cardinals games as a child...when he was 10 years old, Cole remembers being at a Cardinals game in which Matt Carpenter hit a two-run homer, which was a year before Carpenter began his 14-year Major League career...the two would eventually train together in the offseason prior to the 2024 season.
- Cole graduated from Springfield Catholic HS in Springfield, MO...he considers himself a late bloomer and didn't get collegiate looks until the summer prior to his junior year...he attended three baseball camps that summer, at Missouri, Oklahoma State and Arkansas...all three showed interest, but didn't offer any type of scholarships...he continued playing travel ball throughout high school and started getting calls from teams all over the country...one of those schools was Ball State, which Cole had never heard of at the time...after doing some research on their program, Cole signed his letter of intent and went on to attend Ball State for three years (2020-22).
- At Ball State, Cole sparsely played in 2020 and 2021, but had a huge junior year in 2022, hitting .361 (66x183) with 10 doubles, nine triples, 13 homers and 47 RBI in 55 games...was on the 2022 First Team All-MAC, MAC All-Defensive Team and MAC All-Tournament Teams...set a Ball State record and led all of NCAA Division I with nine triples in 2022.
- Selected by the Astros in the 10th round of the 2022 draft...signed by Astros scout Scott Oberhelman.
- Since being drafted by the Astros, has been recognized as one of the best athletes in the organization...per MLB Pipeline, Cole combines plus raw power with plus speed and double-plus arm strength, giving him all the physical tools to be a star.
- Had a huge debut, homering on the first pitch of his first Major League at-bat on Sept. 12, 2025 at ATL...in the stands were his parents, Bob and Cassandra...watching far away were the Double A Corpus Christi Hooks, where Cole spent the majority of his 2025 season...when Cole went deep, the Hooks were filming their clubhouse, which erupted with cheers as soon as Cole made contact...that wholesome video now lives on the Hooks social media channels.
- Added to the Astros MLB roster in September of 2025 and accrued 17 days of Major League service...is signed to a one-year contract for the 2026 season.

- Made his MLB debut on Sept. 12 at ATL, going 3x4 with a homer and four RBI...became the fifth player in club history to record a homer in his first career plate appearance, joining Mark Saccomanno (Sept. 8, 2008), Charlton Jimerson (Sept. 4, 2006), Dave Matranga (June 27, 2003) and Jose Sosa (July 30, 1975)...also became the first player in club history to record four RBI in their debut.
- On Sept. 15 vs. TEX, went 2x3 with a homer and three RBI...became the third player in Astros history with at least two homers and seven RBI within their first four career games, joining Yordan Alvarez (2019) and Tyler White (2016)...became just the second Astros player in club history to have two three-RBI games within their first four career games, joining Tyler White (2016).
- Became the second player in club history to record at least four homers, 11 RBI, and three steals within their first 15 Major League games...IF Carlos Correa (4 HR, 11 RBI, 4 SB) was the other on that list.

MINOR LEAGUE CAREER:

- In 2024, combined to hit .218 (62x284) with 18 doubles, 11 homers, 38 RBI and a .727 OPS in 76 games between Double A Corpus Christi (70g) and in the Rookie level FCL (6g)...began the season on the IL, rehabbed in the FCL before being activated and assigned to Corpus Christi on May 21...named the Texas League Player of the Week for the week ending on July 14.
- Had a great 2023 season, hitting .258 (104x403) with 20 doubles, eight triples, 19 homers, 65 RBI, 37 stolen bases and an .869 OPS in 111 games... split the year between Class A Asheville (41g) and Class A Fayetteville (70g)...named the Carolina League Player of the Week for May 7 and June 18... also named Carolina League Player of the Month and the Astros Minor League Player of the Month in June...finished the year as a Carolina League Postseason All-Star and an Astros MiLB.com Organizational All-Star.
- Made his professional debut in 2022 playing in 33 games, while hitting .200 (23x115) between Class A Fayetteville (28g) and the FCL Astros (5g).

- Has also pitched in parts of eight minor league seasons (2017-19, 2021-25), spent all with the Padres prior to being traded to the Cubs in 2025...has gone 20-20 with a 3.85 ERA (157ER/366.2IP), a 1.33 WHIP, 10.2 SO/9IP and a .242 opponent batting average in 203 career minor league games (38 starts).
- Was traded from the Padres to the Cubs at the beginning of the 2025 regular season and spent the bulk of his year with Triple A Iowa, where he posted a 4.30 ERA (22ER/46IP) in 40 appearances... also recorded a 2.25 ERA (1ER/4IP) in two Major League appearances with the Cubs.
- Had the best season of his Major League career as a rookie with the Padres in 2023, posting a 1.75 ERA (10ER/51.1IP), a .173 opponent batting average and a 0.97 WHIP in 54 appearances...led qualified MLB rookie relievers in ERA and opponent batting average...set the Padres franchise record by logging 14 consecutive scoreless appearances to open his Major League career..as part of his breakout rookie season, ranked in the 100th percentile in average exit velocity (83.9) and hard-hit percentage (25.5) among all MLB pitchers in 2023.

2025 SEASON:

- Began the season at the Triple A El Paso in the Padres system...was traded to the Cubs on April 10, spending the bulk of his season with Triple A Iowa.
- Went a combined 5-1 with a 4.53 ERA (25ER/49.2IP), 57 strikeouts and a .246 opponent batting average in 44 appearances at the Triple A level, including 40 with Triple A Iowa.
- Also made two appearances over two stints at the Major League level with the Cubs, posting a 2.52 ERA (1ER/4IP) with three strikeouts.
- Was designated for assignment by the Cubs on Aug. 31 and was eventually outrighted to Triple A Iowa on Sept. 3.

BROADCAST NOTES

- Graduated from Monsignor Farrell High School in Staten Island, N.Y....earned All-State honors as a senior, posting a 0.76 ERA while striking out 69 batters through 55 innings.
- Remained in New York for college, playing three seasons at Manhattan University...in his junior year (2017), led the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) and ranked 48th nationally with 105 strikeouts on the year (84.1 IP), which also matched Manhattan's single-season record...his 225 career strikeouts rank sixth in Manhattan program history.
- Was selected by the Padres in the 12th round of the 2017 MLB First-Year Player Draft...became the 16th player in Manhattan's history to be selected in the MLB First-Year Player Draft.
- His father, also named Tom, lived in Bronx, N.Y., for 40 years but was ironically a Mets fan, despite living mere miles away from Yankee Stadium...thanks to his father, the younger Tom grew up as a Mets fan... the younger Tom, who grew up in Staten Island and stayed in New York for college, cites New York's food scene as what he misses most about his hometown.
- Underwent Tommy John surgery in September 2019 and arrived in Spring Training for the 2020 season five months into his rehab...because he had a medical exemption, he remained at the Padres complex in Peoria, Ariz., while the majority of camp was sent home due to the COVID-19 pandemic...he was among a group of around just five players who remained isolated in camp while the pandemic's damage unfolded, especially in his hometown of New York: "It was a weird time. But we got through it," he told the San Diego Union-Tribune in 2023.
- Following his recovery from Tommy John surgery, Cosgrove, who was a starter throughout his collegiate career and the first three seasons of his pro career, transitioned to a reliever.
- Was signed by the Astros to a minor league contract with an invite to Major League camp on Feb. 3, 2026.

2024 SEASON:

- Made first career OPENING DAY roster and went 0-1 with a 11.66 ERA (19ER/14.2IP) through 18 appearances in four separate stints with the Padres.
- Held opponents to an average exit velocity of 88.6 mph during his Major League outings.
- Recorded 15 of his 18 Major League appearances between March 20-April 29, spending the majority of his season with Triple A El Paso.
- Went 1-3 with a 4.85 ERA (16ER/29.2IP), 34 strikeouts and a .219 opponent batting average in 32 games with Triple A El Paso.

2023 SEASON:

- Had a terrific rookie campaign, going 1-2 with a 1.75 ERA (10ER/51.1IP), a 0.97 WHIP and a .174 opponent batting average in 54 appearances with the Padres.
- Led qualified rookie Major League relievers in ERA and opponent batting average.
- His 54 appearances ranked third among NL rookie, as well as fourth among Padres relievers.
- Were the most appearance by a Padres rookie reliever since LHP Jose Torres (62) in 2017.
- Set a Padres club record by opening his career with 14 consecutive scoreless appearances, covering a span of 15.0 innings...his 15.0 consecutive scoreless innings to open his career marked the fifth-longes streak in Padres history (excluding starts).
- His 14 consecutive scoreless appearances and 15.0 consecutive scoreless innings were both the longest streaks among Padres relievers in 2023.
- Among Major League pitchers, ranked in the 100th percentile in both average exit velocity (83.9) and hard-hit percentage (25.5)...also ranked in the 95th percentile in barrel percentage (3.6).
- Threw his sweeper at a 52.2-percent rate and held opponents to a .153 average (15x98) on the pitch...also threw his four-seamer at a 24-percent rate, with opponents batting .179 (7x39) vs. the pitch.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Right-handed hitting catcher has become one of the top offensive threats at the position over his three full MLB seasons, including his second as Houston's primary catcher in 2025...over parts of four seasons with the Astros, he's hit .279 (415x1490) with 77 doubles, 59 homers and 215 RBI in 401 games.
- Worked as the Astros' everyday catcher for the second time in his career in 2025, batted .256 (139x542) with 25 doubles, 20 home runs, 79 RBI and a .701 OPS.
- In 2025, he tied the franchise's single season record for home runs as a catcher with 19, tying him with Evan Gattis in 2016.
- In 2024, set the club's single-season records for a player whose primary position is catcher in hits (175), runs (70) and RBI (84).
- Defensively, he's played mainly catcher (277g) during his Major League career, while also appearing at DH (103g) and first base (19g).
- In his first full Major League season in 2023, was named the Astros Rookie of the Year by the Houston Chapter of the BBWAA after hitting .282 (100x355) with 23 home runs, 60 RBI, 22 doubles and an .846 OPS (.308 OBP/.538 SLG) in 110 games...his 23 homers were the second-most home runs by an Astros rookie in a single season, trailing only Yordan Alvarez, who hit 27 HR in 2019...of his 23 HR in 2023, he hit 14 as a catcher, which tied him with C Mitch Meluskey (2000) for the most homers by a rookie catcher in franchise history.
- Made his Major League debut in 2022, appearing in six games for the Astros, going 1x8 with a double and an RBI...had a great 2022 minor league season, earning the Astros Minor League Player of the Year honors...also was named a 2022 MiLB.com Organizational All-Star and played in the Futures Game, representing the Astros.
- Hit at every level in the minor leagues, combining to bat .321 (434x1353) with 52 homers and a .868 OPS in 340 minor league games...played in five full seasons as a professional from 2017-22 (excluding 2020), hitting over .294 in every year.
- In addition to being named a 2022 MiLB.com Organizational ALL-STAR, was named a 2021 Class A Carolina League All-Star and a 2018 Arizona League Postseason All-Star.

BROADCAST NOTES

- Yainer's first name is pronounced as "YIGH-ner" with the first syllable (YIGH) rhyming with the word sigh.
- Diaz was originally signed by the Cleveland organization on Dec. 7, 2016, at the age of 18...was considered an older signing, considering most amateur players from the Dominican officially sign at the age of 16.
- Had a roundabout journey to affiliated baseball after quitting the game at the age of 13...was encouraged by his father, Radhames, and his older brother, Issael, to pursue a professional playing career...Yainer credits his brother, Issael, with his return to the game...sadly, Issael did not see Yainer's Major League success, after passing away from cancer in 2022 at the age of 33, just prior to Yainer's first MLB action.
- Yainer also has two younger brothers, including Victor, who appeared in the Astros minor league system from 2023-24...Victor, who is four years younger than Yainer, was originally signed by the Phillies in 2018 as an amateur and joined the Astros organization in July of 2022...Victor last played affiliated baseball in 2024 at the Astros Florida Complex League affiliate and Low A Fayetteville.
- Yainer played in parts of five seasons in Cleveland's system prior to his trade to Houston in 2021...at the 2021 Trade Deadline, the Astros were looking for relief help and acquired RHP Phil Maton from the Guardians in exchange for OF Myles Straw...Diaz was acquired along with Maton from Cleveland and by most media was considered a footnote in the deal.
- After just a year in the Astros system, Diaz blossomed into a prospect and was named the club's 2022 Minor League Player of the Year...a year later, he was in the Majors for the entirety of the 2023 season and went on to earn the Astros' starting catcher role in 2024.
- Added to the Astros 40-man roster on Sept. 1, 2022 and has been with the MLB club since that date...is currently signed to a one-year contract for the 2026 season...with just over 3.000 year of service, is under club control through at least the 2028 season.

2025 SEASON:

- Was the Astros primary catcher for the second consecutive season...batted .256 (139x542) with 25 doubles, one triple, 70 RBI, 20 walks, one stolen and a .701 OPS in 143 games, including 135 starts.
- Among AL catchers, he ranked ranked third in runs (52), third in doubles (23), third in batting average (.270), fifth in home runs (19) , fifth in OPS (.754) and sixth in games (113).
- Recorded 60 RBI in three consecutive seasons, becoming the only primary catcher in Astros franchise history to log multiple seasons of 60+ RBI.
- Notched 19 home runs as a catcher, tying him with Evan Gattis for the most home runs in a single season as a catcher.
- Made his third consecutive OPENING DAY (2023-25), all three coming with Houston.
- Hit his second career walk-off home run on May 30 vs. TB...it was a solo home run off TB LHP Garrett Cleavinger.
- Recorded a career-high-tying 10-game hitting streak from May 2-12...during the streak, he batted .372 (16x43) with three doubles, two home runs, nine RBI and a .981 OPS.
- Set his single-game career-high in RBI (5) on April 11 vs. LAA...he went 3x4 with five RBI, a double and a grand slam...also marked his first career grand slam....became the 12th catcher in franchise history to record 5+RBI in a single game and the first since Martín Maldonado did so on June 4, 2021 at TOR.

2024 SEASON:

- Took over as the Astros primary catcher and was one of the game's top offensive talents at the position, batting .299 (175x585) with 70 runs scored, 29 doubles, three triples, 16 home runs, 84 RBI and a .766 OPS (.325 OBP/.441 SLG) through 148 games.
- In the AL, he ranked fifth in batting average and tied for sixth in multi-hit games (50)...defensively, he ranked fifth in the AL with 20 catcher caught stealings.
- Among AL catchers, he ranked first in hits (119), third in doubles (19), tied for third in RBI (59) and third in OPS (.771)...was a finalist for the AL Silver Slugger Award at catcher.
- Set career highs in batting average, doubles, triples, RBI and walks (24).
- Started a career-high 99 games at catcher...also set a career high with 11 starts at first base.
- Set the Astros' single-season records for a player whose primary position is catcher in hits, runs and RBI.
- Batted .337 (101x300) at Daikin Park, which was the second-highest home batting average in the AL, behind only KC IF Bobby Witt Jr., who batted. 382 at his home ballpark.
- Logged 12 hits through the first seven games of the season, which were the most by an Astro since IF Jose Altuve in 2018 (also 12 hits)...his five multi-hit games through the first seven games of a season were tied for the most in Astros history, along with Jose Altuve (2017) and Lance Berkman (2004).
- Made his second career OPENING DAY roster (2023-24), both coming with Houston.
- Went 3x4 with an RBI on Opening Day on March 28 vs. NYY...became the first Astro since OF Michael Brantley (April 1, 2021 at OAK) to record a three-hit game on Opening Day.
- Was behind the plate for all nine innings of RHP Ronel Blanco's no-hitter on April 1 vs. TOR...also hit two home runs in the game, becoming the first catcher in MLB history to have a multi-homer game and catch a no-hitter in the same game... it also marked the third instance in MLB history in which a pitch-catcher battery of players born in the Dominican Republic completed a no-hitter.
- Homered in four straight games from June 3-7... became the first Astro since IF Yuli Gurriel (5 games from July 2-7, 2019) to homer in at least four consecutive games.
- Went 4x4 with a home run on July 30 vs. PIT... matched his single game career high in hits, also doing so on June 5, 2023 at TOR.
- Stole the first base of his career on June 20 at CWS.
- Recorded his longest homer of the season and the second longest of his career with a 448-foot shot on Aug. 9 at BOS.
- Hit his first career walk-off home run, a solo shot in the 9th inning, on Aug. 19 vs. BOS off RHP Kenley Jansen...had moved to catcher from first base to begin the ninth inning, marking the eighth time in Astros history a catcher hit a walk-off HR (last, Evan Gattis on Aug. 26, 2016 vs. TB).
- Matched his career high with a 10-game hitting streak from Aug. 17-26...batted .349 (15x43) with 4 HR, 5 RBI and a .992 OPS during the streak.
- Made his second career POSTSEASON roster and started both games at catcher in the Astros' ALWC vs. DET...batted .286 (2x7) with an RBI and a walk through the two-game series.

2023 SEASON:

- In his first full Major League season, the 25-year-old backstop had one of the most prolific power campaigns from an Astros rookie...batted .282 (100x355) with 23 home runs, 60 RBI, 22 doubles and an .846 OPS (.308 OBP/.538 SLG) in 110 games.
- Named the Astros Rookie of the Year by the Houston Chapter of the BBWAA.
- His 23 homers were the second-most home runs by an Astros rookie in a single season, trailing only Yordan Alvarez who had 27 HR in 2019...became the seventh Astros rookie to reach 20-plus homers in a season.
- Made 42 starts at catcher, 36 at DH and 7 starts at 1B.
- Of his 23 HR this season, he hit 14 as a catcher...tied C Mitch Meluskey (2000) for the most homers by a rookie catcher in franchise history with 14.
- Became the eighth Astros rookie to reach 10+ home runs prior to the All-Star Break (10 HR), with SS Jeremy Peña (13 HR) the last to do so in '22.
- Ranked tied for eighth in the AL in catcher caught stealings (13), despite only making 42 starts at catcher.
- Among AL rookies with 350+ plate appearances, ranked first in slugging percentage (.538), second in batting average, second in OPS (.846), tied for third in HR, sixth in extra-base hits (45) and tied for fifth in RBI.

- Earned his lone win of the season on Sept. 27 at LAA...in that outing, he allowed one run on two hits and one walk with five strikeouts in three innings.
- Appeared in nine games, including six starts in the minors between the FCL Astros (one start), Double A Corpus Christi (one start) and Triple A Sugar Land (seven games, four starts)...recorded a 6.59 ERA (20ER/27.1IP) with 28 strikeouts.
- Was placed on the 60-day IL to begin the season on March 27; activated and optioned to Triple A Sugar Land on Aug. 21; recalled from Triple A Sugar Land on Sept. 9.

BROADCAST NOTES

- His first name, J.P., stands for Jonathan Patrick.
- Attended Archbishop Shaw HS in Marrero, Louisiana, graduating in 2013...was a four-year letterman at Archbishop Shaw and was First Team All-State, All-District and All-Metro as a junior and senior.
- Went on to attend Tulane, where he pitched three years (2014-17)...missed the '15 season due to injury.
- Was a graduate transfer at Mississippi State in 2018...worked as a multi-inning reliever and helped the Bulldogs reach the College World Series, eventually losing in the Semifinals to Oregon State.
- Selected by the Astros in the 14th round of the June 2018 Draft...signed by Astros scout Travis Coleman.
- In his first full minor league season in 2019, struggled out of the gate and contemplated quitting the game...with encouragement from his girlfriend, France kept playing and turned in a productive season...his girlfriend, now his wife, the former Jessica McCain, appeared on The Real World: Portland and four seasons of The Challenge, a reality TV show on MTV...J.P. credits his wife to saving his career.
- Did not pitch in 2020 due to the Coronavirus shutdown, but instead used that time to improve his craft...worked with a personal trainer and overhauled his pitching mechanics, while throwing into a pitching net either at his future in-laws backyard in Fayetteville and back home in New Orleans...his former mechanics included a high leg kick, which France abandoned for a short and deceptive delivery that he features today.
- An outdoorsman, France is a bow hunter and hunts mostly whitetail deer in the offseason in Mississippi and Kansas...grew up duck hunting in Louisiana, but lost interest in it before transitioning to bow hunting, which he learned by watching YouTube videos.
- J.P. and his wife, Jessica, welcomed their second child, a daughter, Remington, on April 3, 2024...J.P. made his scheduled start two days later on April 6 at Globe Life Field in Arlington...their first child, a son, Liam, was at J.P.'s debut on May 6, 2023 at T-Mobile Park in Seattle, sporting a pacifier that resembled his father's distinguished mustache...they're expecting their third child, a baby girl, in 2026.
- Was outrighted off the Astros 40-man roster on Feb. 5, 2026...came to MLB camp as a non-roster invite.

2024 SEASON:

- Had an injury-marred season that began with a delayed start to his Spring Training and ended after undergoing surgery in July to repair a capsule tear in his right shoulder.
- Made just five starts at the big league level on the season, going 0-3 with a 7.46 ERA (21ER/25.1IP).
- Underwent season-ending surgery to repair a capsule tear in his right shoulder on July 2...had been on the minor league IL at the time of the surgery...was eventually placed on the Major League 60-Day IL on Aug. 20.
- Was assigned to his first career OPENING DAY roster...made his season debut on March 31 vs. NYY, tossing 5.2 innings while allowing three runs on six hits with five strikeouts and one walk.
- Following his season debut, was placed on the Paternity List on April 2...was reinstated from the Paternity List on April 5 in time to make his next scheduled turn in the rotation on April 6 at TEX.
- Was optioned to Triple A Sugar Land on April 26... made one start with the Space Cowboys, coming on April 30 at El Paso (3.2 IP, 4 H, 3 R, 3 ER, 4 BB, 3 SO), before being placed on the minor league IL.
- Made only two official Spring Training appearances due to right shoulder inflammation that he opened camp with...did not make his first official appearance until March 16...recorded a 3.18 ERA (2ER/5.2IP) through his two Spring Training outings.

2023 SEASON:

- Rookie had a 3.83 ERA (58ER/136.1IP) with 101 strikeouts and a .263 opponent average during the regular season (24G/23GS), in what was his first MLB action...posted 14 starts of 6.0-plus innings.
- His 13 quality starts ranked first among AL rookies... also ranked tied for first in wins (11), third in ERA (3.83), fourth in opponent OPS (.737), fifth in WHIP (1.36), tied for seventh in opponent batting average (.263) and seventh in Pitching WAR produced by STATS (1.1) (min. 100 IP).
- Did his best work on the road, posting a 3.11 ERA (23ER/66.1IP) in his 12 games on the road this season...ranked sixth among AL pitchers in road ERA by a starting pitcher (min. 60 IP).
- Became one of 10 players in Astros history, and the first since Lance McCullers Jr. (2015-16), to record 136+ IP through their first 24 career appearances... also became one of two Astros pitchers with 11 winning decisions through their first 24 career outings, joining Roy Oswalt (2011).
- Was not part of the OPENING DAY roster, but was promoted on May 6 before the Astros 33rd game.
- Was the best pitcher for Triple A Sugar Land before his promotion, going 2-1 with a 2.33 ERA (5ER/19.1IP) in five games (three starts)...worked between the rotation and bullpen in the piggyback starter role with Sugar Land...had 26 strikeouts in 19.1 innings while allowing just nine hits for Sugar Land, posting a .136 (9x66) opponent average and a 1.03 WHIP...was named Pacific Coast League Pitcher of the Week (April 17-23) after hurling 5.0 scoreless innings, giving up just one hit and facing the minimum on April 22 vs. LV.
- Made his Major League debut at Seattle with a start on May 6...tossed 5.0 scoreless innings while allowing three hits and striking out five batters in a no-decision...struck out Julio Rodríguez for the first strikeout of his career, which was also the first batter he faced in his career.
- Allowed one earned run in 11.2 IP through his first two Major League starts...became the fourth pitcher in club history to work 5.0-plus innings while allowing one-or-fewer runs in each of his first two Major League starts...joined LHP Dallas Keuchel (2012), LHP Carlos Hernández (2001) and RHP Manny Hernández (1986).
- Logged six consecutive quality starts from June 4-July 5 and logged 6+ innings in seven straight starts from May 29-July 5...the last Astros rookie with seven straight starts of 6.0+ was RHP Chris Sampson, who had a nine-game streak in 2007...the last Astros rookie with a streak of at least six straight quality starts in a single season was also Sampson, who went on a seven-game streak (May 11, 2007-June 13, 2007)...the only other Astros pitcher with a longer quality start streak this season was a seven-game streak from LHP Framber Valdez (April 4-May 9).
- From June 29-Aug. 12, won seven straight winning decisions, which was the longest streak by an Astros pitcher this season...the last Astros rookie to win seven straight decisions was RHP Josh James (Sept. 18, 2018-Sept. 5, 2019).
- Made his lone appearance out of the bullpen in the regular season on Aug. 6 at NYY, earning the win after hurling 3.0 innings and allowing one run (unearned) on three hits and three walks.
- Made his POSTSEASON debut in 2023, making two appearances from the bullpen during the ALCS vs. TEX...in his first appearance of the playoffs, he threw 2.1 scoreless innings in Game 2 of the ALCS.

MINOR LEAGUE CAREER:

- Had a solid 2022 campaign in which he went 3-4 with a 3.90 ERA (48ER/110.2IP) in 34 games (15 starts) for Triple A Sugar Land...struck out 136 hitters in his 110.2 innings, while allowing a .233 opponent average...began his season working in the rotation or making multi-inning piggyback appearances...moved to a traditional relief role in late August, finishing his season with 12 consecutive relief appearances of 2.0-or-fewer innings...posted a 2.31 ERA (3ER/11.2IP) in nine relief appearances in September.

- Named an MiLB.com Organizational All-Star in 2021 after having a strong campaign between Double A Corpus Christi (8g) and Triple A Sugar Land (17g)...combined to go 9-3 with a 3.79 (48ER/114IP) in 25 games (18 starts)...struck out 157 in 114.0 innings pitched, while allowing a .221 opponent average...began the year with the Hooks before a promotion to Sugar Land in June...while with the Skeeters, named the Triple A West Pitcher of the Month in July and the Triple A West Pitcher of the Week on Aug. 29.
- Did not appear in a regular season game in 2020 due to the cancellation of the minor league season.
- Pitched the entire 2019 season at Class A Advanced Fayetteville, working mostly as a starter...started 20 games and made five relief appearances...marked his first season back in a starters role since his 2016 season at Tulane.
- Made his professional debut in 2018 for Short-Season Class A Tri-City, making six appearances...later promoted to Class A Quad Cities...combined to go 2-0 with a 0.50 ERA (1ER/18IP) with 28 strikeouts in 18.0 innings pitched...allowed a .164 opponent batting average and a 0.89 WHIP.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Left-handed closer enters his third season with Houston as a six-time All-Star (2018-19, 2021-23, 2025), a three-time Trevor Hoffman NL Reliever of the Year (2018-19, 2021) winner and a two-time All-MLB First Team (2019, 2021) selection.
- Was selected to his sixth ALL-STAR Game in 2025... posted a 2.05 ERA (12ER/52.2IP) with 76 strikeouts, 29 saves, a 0.85 WHIP, a .158 opponent batting average and a 12.99 strikeouts-per-nine innings in 48 appearances...missed the final 44 games of the season due to a left shoulder capsule sprain.
- Has been one of the most dominant relievers in the Majors since debuting in 2017...for his career, he has earned 227 saves while posting a 2.64 ERA and a 0.94 WHIP, allowing just 282 hits in 512.1 innings pitched for a .158 opponent average...since 2017, he ranks first among all MLB relievers in strikeouts per 9.0 innings (14.56), first in strikeouts (829), first in opponent average (.158), third in WHIP (0.94) and fifth in ERA (2.64).
- Is one of two MLB relievers to log 25-plus saves in each of the last five seasons (2021-25), joining RHP Kenley Jansen...ranks second with a total of 165 saves in that span, behind only RHP Emmanuel Clase (181 saves).
- Among all MLB pitchers with at least 500.0 career innings pitched, Hader's career opponent batting average (.158) and WHIP (0.94) rank first in MLB history, while his career strikeouts per 9.0 innings pitched ratio (14.56) rank second.
- Additionally, left-handed hitters are just 65x440 (.148) vs. Hader in his career...his .148 opponent batting average vs. left-handed hitters is the lowest in the Majors since 2017 (min. 500 batters faced), with RHP Jason Adam the next-closest (.166).
- Hader has shined in the POSTSEASON in his career, posting a 1.64 ERA (4ER/22IP) in 18 playoff appearances, allowing a .184 opponent average while tallying 33 strikeouts.
- Led MLB relievers with 105 strikeouts in 2024, his first season with the Astros, becoming the first reliever in club history to do so since RHP Brad Lidge (103 strikeouts in 2005)...ranked second in the AL with 34 saves and...set the Astros single-season record by converting 29 consecutive saves from April 7-Aug. 29.

BROADCAST NOTES

- Was drafted by the Orioles in the 19th round of the 2012 draft...after just a year and a half in the Orioles system, was traded to Houston, along with OF L.J. Hoes and a Competitive Balance Round A pick, in exchange for RHP Bud Norris, on July 31, 2013...the Astros used the comp pick on OF Derek Fisher.
- The Astros were in the middle of a rebuild at the time of acquiring Hader, who joined a talented group in the club's farm system...in 2015, at Double A Corpus Christi, Hader played alongside future Major League All-Stars SS Carlos Correa, RHP Chris Devenski, OF Teoscar Hernández, RHP Lance McCullers Jr. and RHP Joe Musgrove...that team dominated with an 89-51 record and a Texas League South Division title.
- While pitching at Corpus Christi, Hader met his future wife, Maria...the couple now has one son, Lucas, who was born in June of 2022.
- Hader spent two years with the Astros before he was part of another deadline move, going to the Brewers along with RHP Adrian Houser, OF Brett Phillips and OF Domingo Santana in exchange for OF Carlos Gómez, RHP Mike Fiers and cash, on July 30, 2015.
- He spent parts of six Major League seasons in Milwaukee before being traded again at the Trade Deadline to San Diego on Aug. 1, 2022...the Brewers acquired four players in exchange for Hader.
- Signed a five year contract with the Astros on Jan. 22, 2024...the deal will keep him in an Astros uniform through the 2028 season.
- IN THE COMMUNITY: Was the Astros nominee in 2025 for the Roberto Clemente Award...Josh and his wife, Maria started his community foundation Hader's Heart, which supports BEAR (Be a Resource) and Covenant House...the Haders' mission is to help underserved children and young adults through their charity work...Hader chose children and young adults because his grandparents hosted foster kids in their home in Delaware, and Hader would hang out with the children when he visited them on the weekends... Hader's Heart, provides the group a chance to meet Josh and Maria, watch batting practice on the field and meet/get autographs from Astros players.
- Was also the 2024 and 2025 Astros nominee for the Lou Gehrig Award, presented by Phi Delta Theta International Fraternity...this award is given to an MLB player who best exemplifies the spirit and character of Lou Gehrig both on and off the field.

- Was selected to his fifth career ALL-STAR Game in 2023...posted a 1.28 ERA (11ER/56.1IP) to go with 33 saves in 61 games...among NL relievers, he ranked second in ERA, second in strikeouts-per-nine-innings (13.58), fourth in opponent OPS (.508) and tied for fifth in saves...his 1.28 ERA in 2023 was the second-lowest ERA in a single season in his career, trailing only his 1.23 ERA in 2021 with Milwaukee...recorded a 2.48 ERA (87ER/316.1IP) and 125 saves in parts of six seasons with the Brewers (2017-22)...the 2.48 ERA ranks second in Milwaukee history among relievers with at least 200 innings pitched with the club...he also ranks second in Milwaukee history in saves, trailing only Dan Plesac (133) .
- Has won eight Reliever of the Month Awards (6 in the NL; 2 in the AL), most-recently in June 2025 with Houston.
- Was the 2014 California League Pitcher of the Year in 2015 with High A Lancaster in the Astros system...was also a two-time MiLB.com Organizational ALL-STAR, earning the honor in 2014 in the Astros system and 2016 in the Brewers system...selected to play for the U.S. Team in the 2016 Futures Game, striking out the lone batter he faced.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Right-handed starter has gone 35-22 with a 3.66 ERA (219ER/538IP), with 219 walks and 598 strikeouts in 124 games (90 starts) in his six Major League seasons (2020-25) with the Astros.
- Made eights starts in 2025 after returning from Tommy John surgery in early August...went 2-4 with a 4.62 ERA (19ER/37IP).
- Has allowed a .203 (397x1956) opponent average in his career...among AL pitchers to toss 525.0-plus innings between the 2020-25 seasons, Javier ranks first in the AL in that opponent batting average...he also ranks fourth in the Majors in that category.
- Has been a strong POSTSEASON performer in his career, posting a 6-2 record with a 2.68 ERA (13ER/43.2IP) with four holds in 17 appearances, including five starts...has allowed just 22 hits in his 43.2 innings for a .146 opponent average, while striking out 60 hitters...his ERA is the lowest of any AL postseason pitcher (min. 40 IP) since the beginning of the 2020 postseason...his opponent average is the lowest opponent batting average in MLB postseason history (min. 150 batters faced).
- Has become a flyball machine, inducing pop ups at an elite rate...posted the highest fly ball percentage (38.8%) in the Majors in 2023, his second straight season in which he led the Majors.
- Is 22-10 with a 2.82 ERA (89ER/284.1IP) in 64 career games (45 starts) at Daikin Park...since his debut in 2020, his 2.82 ERA at home ranks third in the AL (min. 280 IP)...his 2.82 career ERA at Daikin Park ranks second in the ballpark's history (min. 250 IP), behind only RHP Roger Clemens (2.55 ERA).
- Had an incredible 2022 season, posting the lowest opponent average in AL (.170), which was 16 points lower than the second-place finisher and the eventual AL Cy Young winner RHP Justin Verlander (.186)...also ranked second in the AL in strikeouts per 9.0 (11.74) and fourth in WHIP (0.95)...including his two starts that postseason (11.1IP), finished his season by not allowing a run in six straight starts...allowed just seven hits in 34.1 innings pitched in those six starts for a .067 opponent average.
- Was the starter in two combined no-hitters in 2022, which came on June 25 at NYY (7IP) and in Game 4 of the 2022 World Series at PHI (6IP)...became the first pitcher in Major League history to start two combined no-hitters in a career.

BROADCAST NOTES

- Grew up an outfielder before transitioning to pitching at the age of 16...less than two years later, signed by the Astros as a 17-year-old international free agent out of Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic on March 18, 2015...signed by Astros scouts Oz Ocampo, Roman Ocumarez and Leocadio Guevara.
- Received the nickname "El Reptíl" (the reptile) during his time in the Astros minor league system, due to his poise, calm demeanor and slow, calculated movements on and off the mound...originally given the name by his High A Manager Morgan Ensberg and his pitching coach at the level, Drew French...Ensberg was a former All-Star player for the Astros, playing for the club from 2000-07.
- Works predominately with his low to mid 90s fastball, which has been nicknamed the invisiball...his fastball, which is a four-seamer, has a ride with high spin rates...coupled with his three-quarters armslot, the pitch has strong deception to hitters...he follows that pitch up with a sweeper, changeup and knuckle curve.
- A part of Javier's start-day routine includes bringing a cup of coffee out for his pregame warmups...prior to his start on April 27, 2021, Javier spilt the coffee on his white uniform and pants after trying to balance the cup on his glove...Javier remained in the coffee-stained uniform and tossed a career-high 7.0 scoreless innings vs. the Mariners at Daikin Park.
- Through seven MLB seasons, Javier has been an author of several special moments, none bigger than starting the club's combined no-hitter in Game 4 of the 2022 World Series...the night was extra-special for Javier, who had flown his father, Cecilio, and mother, Trinidad Mieses, in from the Dominican Republic for the game...in talking with his parents the night before the game, Cecilio and Trinidad predicted that their son, Cristian, would throw a no-hitter in Game 4....Javier tossed 6.0 innings of no-hit ball the next day...his mother had seen him pitch before in the United States, but that night was his father's first time to watch his son pitch in the Majors in person.
- Was originally added to the Astros 40-man roster on Nov. 20, 2019...after pitching three years in the Majors, the Astros and Javier agreed on a five-year contract that will keep Javier in an Astros uniform through the 2027 season...the deal was officially signed on Feb. 10, 2023.

- During the no-hitter on June 25, 2022 at NYY, began a streak of striking out two-or-more batters in an inning for 13 consecutive innings over parts of three starts from June 25-July 6...became the third player since 1961 to have such a streak.
- Had a strong sophomore season in 2021, working in the rotation (nine starts) and bullpen (27 apps.)... finished his season with a .186 opponent batting average, which ranked first in the AL (min. 90 IP), allowing just 67 hits in his 101.1 innings...held righties to a .155 mark (33x213) and a .587 OPS...also ranked second in the Majors with a 28.0 ground ball percentage (min. 90 IP).
- Finished third in the 2020 AL Rookie of the Year voting...led AL rookies in ERA (3.48) and in opponent average (.188, min. 150 batters faced).
- In the 2020 postseason, was the winning pitcher in the Astros ALDS Game 4 win over the A's, and their Wild Card Series Game 2 win over the Twins... both games were series clinchers...joined Charlie Morton (2017) as the only Astros to record two wins in series-clinching games in a single postseason.
- Was named the Astros Minor League Pitcher of the Year in 2019, while also being named to the Second Team for MLB Pipeline's Prospect Team of the Year...recorded a 1.74 ERA (22ER/113.2IP) with 170 strikeouts between three levels in the Astros system...led all of the minor leagues in opponent batting average (.130) in 2019, which was 31 points ahead of the next best pitcher, LHP Mackenzie Gore (.161)...his 1.74 ERA was the second-best mark in all of the minors, behind only Gore's mark of 1.69.

2025 SEASON:

- Returned from Tommy John surgery in early August...went 2-4 with a 4.62 ERA (19ER/37IP)...also recorded 34 strikeouts, a .230 opponent batting average and a 1.27 WHIP in eight starts.
- Made five rehab starts on his way back from surgery...in the five starts, had a 5.14 ERA (8ER/14IP) with 15 strikeouts and a .208 opponent average.
- Tossed six no-hit innings with six strikeouts and three walks on Aug. 29 vs. Los Angeles (AL)... marked his longest scoreless outing of the season.
- Made his season debut on Aug. 11 vs. Boston, where he allowed two runs on three hits and two walks in five innings...marked his first win since May 16, 2024 vs. Oakland.

2024 SEASON:

- Made seven starts before undergoing season-ending Tommy John surgery in June.
- Was off to a strong start to the season, tossing 11.0 scoreless innings through his first two starts (March 29 vs. NYY and April 3 vs. TOR)...became the first Astros pitcher to open a season with at least 11.0 scoreless innings since LHP Scott Kazmir tossed 14.2 consecutive scoreless innings to open the 2015 season...RHP Ronel Blanco went on to surpass Kazmir's record in 2024 by logging 15.0 consecutive scoreless innings to open his season.
- Went 3-0 with a 1.23 ERA (4ER/29.1IP) in his four starts at Daikin Park.
- Made his fifth career OPENING DAY roster, all coming with the Astros (2020-24).
- Missed 18 games from April 21-May 11 while on the 15-Day IL due to neck discomfort...was again placed on the IL on May 27 before eventually undergoing Tommy John surgery.

2023 SEASON:

- Spent his first full season in the rotation, posting a 4.56 ERA (82ER/162.0IP) with his first 150+ inning season of his career...the Astros went 21-10 when he started in the regular season.
- Has pitched primarily as a starter over the 2022-23 seasons...among qualifying AL pitchers over that span, ranked fourth in opponent average (.204) and tied for sixth in strikeouts per 9.0 (10.23).
- Prior to the regular season, represented his native country (Dominican Republic) at the 2023 World Baseball Classic, getting the winning decision on March 13 vs. Nicaragua as he threw 4.0 scoreless innings with four strikeouts in his start.
- Made his fourth career OPENING DAY roster.
- Went 7-1 with a 2.90 ERA (26ER/80.2IP) in his first 14 starts to begin the season...also recorded a 1.04 WHIP, eight quality starts, and a .219 opponent batting average during that span.
- Struck out a career-best seven consecutive batters on April 23 at ATL...was one away from matching the Astros franchise record, which has been accomplished on several occasions.
- Went 4-0 with a 2.40 ERA (8ER/30IP) in May...ranked tied for first among MLB pitchers in May in wins (4)...among AL pitchers was second in opponent average (.157) and seventh in ERA (2.40) in May.
- Tossed 6.0 scoreless innings on June 15 vs. WSH, recording a 15 flyball outs to zero groundouts with the only assist in his outing coming on a caught-stealing by Martín Maldonado...per Elias, the last pitcher in the Majors with a scoreless outing of 6+ IP without recording a groundout was TB RHP Luis Patiño on 7/29/21 vs. NYY...no Astros pitcher has had a scoreless outing of 6+ IP without recording a groundout in club history.
- Reached 500 career strikeouts during his outing on Sept. 3 vs. NYY...reached that number in his 104th career game, making him the seventh player in Astros history to reach 500 strikeouts within their first 104 career apps. (all coming with the Astros).
- Was his first POSTSEASON as a full-time member of the rotation, making three starts during the 2023 playoffs...opened the postseason by extending his scoreless innings streak in the postseason to 20.1 innings, which ranks as the longest in club history.

- Had his best postseason start in Game 3 of the ALDS at MIN, working 5.0 scoreless innings on one hit allowed, while working around five walks.

2022 SEASON:

- Third-year swingman pitched primarily out of the rotation, making 25 starts compared to just five relief appearances...was great in both roles, as a starter posting a 2.81 ERA (40ER/128.1IP) and as a reliever a 1.26 ERA (2ER/14.1IP).
- Was one of most dominant pitchers in AL...among pitchers with 140+ innings pitched, had the lowest opponent batting average in AL (.170)...was 16 points lower than the second-place and the AL Cy Young winner RHP Justin Verlander (.186).
- Also ranked second in K's per 9.0 (11.74) and fourth in WHIP (0.95) this season...his 11.74 K's per 9.0 ratio trailed only RHP Shohei Ohtani (11.87) (min. 140IP).
- In addition to his high strikeout rate and extremely low opponent batting average, induced pop ups at an elite rate...posted the highest fly ball percentage (56.9%) in the Majors this season (min. 140 IP).
- His .170 opponent batting average this season fell in line with his career opponent batting average of .178...among pitchers to toss 300+ innings over the 2020-22 seasons, Javier has posted the lowest opponent batting average of any pitcher, besting second-place RHP Corbin Burnes (.195)...right-handed hitters are hitting .143 (76x530) against Javier in his career...since 2020, Javier's .143 opponent BA vs. righties is also the lowest in the Majors (min. 420 batters faced).
- Was great the entire season, but finished the year in an extremely dominant stretch...over his last six starts, he posted a 1.08 ERA (4ER/33.1IP) with 44 strikeouts, a .127 opponent batting average and a 0.75 WHIP.
- Did not allow a run over his final four starts (23IP) and his last 25.1 innings...marked the longest active streak in the Majors at the end of the season and ranked as the third-longest in the AL this season...including his two starts this postseason (11.1IP), finished his season by not allowing a run in six straight starts...Javier allowed just seven hits in 34.1 innings pitched in those six starts for a .067 opponent average.
- On June 25 at NYY, pitched 7.0 innings of the Astros combined no-hitter...combined to toss it with RHP Hector Neris (1IP) and RHP Ryan Pressly (1IP)...marked the Astros' 14th no-hitter in club history and their third combined no-hitter...C Martín Maldonado was behind the plate for the no-hitter.
- During the no-hitter on June 25 at NYY, Javier began a streak of striking out two-or-more batters in an inning for 13 consecutive innings over parts of three starts from June 25-July 6...became just the third player since 1961 to have a streak of 13+ innings, joining Corey Kluber in 2014 and Aroldis Chapman in 2020-21.
- Struck out a career-high 14 hitters in 7.0 innings of dominant work on July 1 vs. LAA...marked the most strikeouts by an Astros pitcher since RHP Gerrit Cole also struck out 14 on Sept. 24, 2019 at SEA.
- Had an absolutely prolific 2022 POSTSEASON, making his first two playoff starts and tossing 6.0 innings of Astros combined no-hitter in G4 of the WS...overall, was 2-0 with a 0.71 ERA in playoffs, striking out 16 in 12.2IP...allowed just two hits and one run, which came in a 1.1 inning relief appearance in G1 of ALDS at SEA.
- The no-hitter in Game 4 of the World Series was just second no-hitter ever in WS history and third ever in playoff history (RHP Don Larsen's perfect game on 10/8/56 in G5 of WS and RHP Roy Halladay on 10/6/10 in G1 NLDS)...is the only combined no-hitter in playoff history.
- Became just the seventh pitcher ever to start two no-hitters in a single season, with only one other pitcher to ever split his no-hitters between reg. and postseason games (Halladay)...Javier is the first pitcher ever to start two combined no-hitters in a career...also joined teammate RHP Ryan Pressly as the only pitchers to ever pitch in two combined no-hitters in career.
- In the start before the no-hitter, went 5.1 scoreless innings in G3 of ALCS at NYY...struck out five and allowed just one hit.
- Finished postseason on a 12-inning scoreless streak.

2021 SEASON:

- Finished his second MLB season, recording a 3.55 ERA (40ER/101.1IP) with 130 strikeouts, a .186 opponent batting average and a 1.18 WHIP.
- His .186 opponent average ranked first in the AL (min. 90 IP)...allowed just 67 hits in his 101.1 IP...held righties to a .155 mark (33x213) and a .587 OPS.
- Owned the second-lowest ground ball percentage in the Majors at 28% (min. 90 IP).
- Made his second straight OPENING DAY roster.
- Began the season in the Astros rotation, recording a 3.14 ERA (17ER/48.2IP) with a .173 opponent batting average, a 1.03 WHIP and a 3-1 record in nine starts.
- Moved to the bullpen for his final 27 outings...recorded a 3.93 ERA (23ER/52.2IP) with 72 strikeouts in 27 appearances as a reliever.
- In the POSTSEASON, he recorded a 3.38 ERA (4ER/10.2IP) with 19 strikeouts...was stellar in Game 4 of the ALCS, tossing 3.0 scoreless innings with two walks and three strikeouts.

2020 SEASON:

- Made his Major League debut, making 10 starts and two relief appearances while finishing third in the AL Rookie of the Year voting.
- Posted the highest finish by an Astros pitcher in the Rookie of the Year voting since Roy Oswalt finished in second in the 2001 NL Rookie of the Year voting.
- Went 5-2 with a 3.68 ERA (21ER/51.1IP), 18 walks, 48 strikeouts and a .188 opponent batting average (34x181) across his 10 starts.
- Allowed just 36 hits in his 54.1 innings pitched, good for a .188 opponent batting average (36x192)...led all AL rookies and ranked fourth among AL pitchers in opponent batting average (min. 150 batters faced), behind only Shane Bieber (.167), Kenta Maeda (.168) and Lucas Giolito (.184).
- Recorded the third-best WHIP by a rookie pitcher in club history (0.99), behind only Chris Devenski's (0.91 in 2016) and Bill Dawley (0.92 in 1983).
- Posted the third-best opponent batting average by a rookie in club history (min. 200 batters faced)...only Billy Wagner (.165 in 1996) and Bill Dawley (.185 in 1983) posted better marks as rookies.
- Had the seventh-lowest hard-hit ball rate in MLB (29.3%, min. 100 batted balls).
- Among AL pitchers with at least 150 batters faced, ranked seventh in WHIP (0.99).
- Led all AL rookies in ERA (min. 150 batters faced), and opponent average, and ranked tied for fourth in wins, tied for second starts, fourth in innings pitched and third in strikeouts (54).
- Gave up three runs or less in nine of his 10 starts.
- Made his first career OPENING DAY roster.
- Made his MLB debut on July 25 vs. SEA, tossing 1.0 scoreless inning of relief.
- Made his first career Major League start on July 29 vs. LAD (1ER/5.2IP)...struck out Max Muncy, Mookie Betts and Cody Bellinger to open up the game...per Elias, became the second pitcher in Astros history to strike out the first three batters he faced in his first Major League start, joining Frank DiPino (Sept. 7, 1982 vs. SD).
- Became the first Astros pitcher to allow two hits-or-fewer in at least 5.0 innings in his first Major League start since Jarred Cosart on July 12, 2013 vs TB.
- Was also the first Astros pitcher to allow one run-or-fewer in at least 5.0 innings in his first Major League start since Vince Velasquez on June 10, 2015.
- Gave up just 10 hits over his first four Major League starts for a .147 opponent batting average (10x68)...marked the fifth-best opponent batting average over a pitcher's first four MLB starts in franchise history, behind Taylor Buchholz (.134), Darryl Kile (.138), Tom Griffin (.143) and Mike Madden (.146).
- Struck out five Dodgers hitters over 2.0 scoreless innings of relief on Sept. 13 at LAD...became the third rookie reliever to strike out five-plus Dodgers hitters in an Interleague game, joining Baltimore's Dylan Bundy (7 K's on July 6, 2016) and Boston's Casey Fossum (5 K's on June 23, 2002).
- POSTSEASON: Made five relief appearances in the postseason across all three rounds, going 2-0 with a 2.89 ERA (3ER/9.1IP), five walks and 13 strikeouts.
- The Astros went 5-0 in his appearances.
- Both of his wins came in series-clinching games (ALDS Game 4 vs. OAK, Wild Card Series Game 2 at MIN), making him the second pitcher in club history to record two wins in series-clinching games in a single postseason, joining Charlie Morton (2017).
- Became the sixth pitcher in MLB history to earn the win without allowing a run in multiple series-clinching games in a single postseason, joining Mike Stanton (2000), Derek Lowe (2004), Jeremy Affeldt (2014), David Robertson (2017) and Ryan Madson (2018).
- Began his postseason career with 6.1 scoreless innings, spanning three outings.
- WILD CARD SERIES AT MIN: Threw 3.0 scoreless frames in the series-clinching Game 2 to bridge the gap to Ryan Pressly for the save...earned the win, striking out two with two walks.
- ALDS VS. OAK: Pitched in Games 1 and 4, earning holds in both Astros wins...threw 1.0 scoreless frame in Game 1, and 2.1 scoreless in Game 4.

MINOR LEAGUE CAREER:

- Was named the Astros Minor League Pitcher of the Year in 2019...made 26 appearances between Class A Advanced Fayetteville (7g) Double A Corpus Christi (17g) and Triple A Round Rock (2g)...led all minor league pitchers in opponent batting average (.130), while ranking second in ERA (1.74), third in strikeout rate (37.7%), sixth in strikeouts (170) and eighth in WHIP (0.97)...his .130 opponent batting average was 31 points ahead of the next best pitcher, Padres top prospect MacKenzie Gore (.161)...his 1.74 ERA was the second-best mark in all of minor league baseball, behind only Gore (1.69).
- Spent the 2018 season at Quad Cities (11g) and Buies Creek (14g) where he posted a 2.70 ERA (33ER/110.0IP) with 146 strikeouts...was named the Midwest League Player of the Week for the week of May 27, 2018 after tossing 10.0 innings of four-hit ball with 18 strikeouts in two appearances.
- Made 14 appearances in 2017 between three levels of Class A ball.
- Named Appalachian League Pitcher of the Week for the week of Aug. 14, 2016 after tossing 9.0 innings of three-hit ball with 11 strikeouts.
- Appeared in 14 games with the DSL Astros in 2015 in what was his first professional season.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Left-handed reliever is in his eighth season as a professional after being drafted by the Cubs in the 30th round of the 2019 draft...has been with the Astros organization for three years (2023-25), debuting with the Major League club in 2024.
- Became a fixture in the Astros bullpen in his first full season in the Majors in 2025...appeared in a career-high 68 Major League games, notching a 2.78 ERA (21ER/68IP) with 69 strikeouts, a 1.04 WHIP and a .233 opponent average in 68.0 innings...also led AL relievers in walks-per-nine innings (1.46).
- Had a strong 2024 season, appearing in 28 Major League games, posting a 2.39 ERA (7ER/26.1IP) with 32 strikeouts in 26.1 innings...held left-handed hitters to a .220 (9x41) opponent average and a .548 opponent OPS...in addition to his MLB success, also had a stellar Triple A season, in which he posted a 2.21 ERA (9ER/36.2IP) in 34 appearances.
- Made his Major League debut on June 23, 2024 vs. BAL, tossing 1.0 scoreless inning...fanned Gunnar Henderson for his first MLB strikeout.
- Made one POSTSEASON appearance in the 2024 Wild Card Series vs. DET (0ER/0.2IP).
- Has a strong minor league track record, making 85 career minor league appearances, all in relief, posting a 2.84 ERA (40ER/126.2IP)...has posted a .234 career opponent batting average, while striking out 130 hitters in 126.2 innings pitched.

2025 SEASON:

- The lefty reliever became a prominent piece of the Astros bullpen in 2025...in 68 appearances, he recorded a 2.78 ERA (21ER/68IP) with 69 strikeouts, 11 walks, a 1.04 WHIP and a .233 opponent average.
- Made his first career OPENING DAY roster.
- Set single-season career highs in appearances, innings, wins (5), holds (27), saves (2) and strikeouts.
- Among AL relievers, ranked first in walks-per nine innings (1.46), second in strikeout-to-walk ratio (6.27) and fourth in holds (27).
- Stranded 23 of his 24 inherited runners...stranded all of his first 23 inherited runners before allowing one to score in his final outing on Sept. 26 at LAA...led the AL in inherited runners scored percentage at 4.3% (min. 20 inherited runners)...also ranked second in the Majors in inherited runners scored percentage behind LAD RHP Ben Casparius (3.4%).
- Per Baseball Savant, ranked in the 99th percentile among MLB pitchers in walk percentage (4.0)
- Recorded reverse splits, held right-handed hitters to a .204 opponent batting average (38x185).
- Notched a career-high 12.2 scoreless innings streak from Aug. 27-Sept. 21.
- Earned his first career save on July 22 at ARI, allowed three hits and no runs with one strikeout in one scoreless inning.

BROADCAST NOTES

- A native Coloradan who grew up just south of Denver, Bryan spends his free time hunting, practicing archery, hiking and fishing.
- Attended Ponderosa HS in his hometown of Parker, CO, graduating in 2015...finished his senior season with a 1.87 ERA and a 7-4 record on the mound...recorded 85 strikeouts and limited opponents to a .197 batting average in 75 innings of work...tossed a no-hitter in his first start of his senior season...went undrafted out of high school.
- Had a four-year playing career at McNeese State in Louisiana (2016-19), where he combined for 73 appearances, including 42 starts...had a strong senior year, going 4-1 with a 3.44 ERA (19ER/49.2IP) in 23 games (three starts).
- Following his senior season, selected by the Cubs in the 30th round of the June 2019 Draft...signed by Cubs scout Trey Forkerway...the 2019 draft was the last year of the 30-round draft, meaning King could be the last 30th-round selection to play in the Majors.
- While at McNeese, received his B.Sc. degree in Natural Resource Conservation Management...also went on to earn his MBA from the University of Colorado-Denver...prior to being drafted, he had a job on a salmon fishing boat in Alaska lined up, but turned it down to pursue professional baseball.
- Spent four years (2019-22) in the Cubs system, pitching just 90 innings over that span due to canceled 2020 minor league season and an elbow surgery that cut short his 2022 campaign...was in the early stages of his rehab process after Tommy John surgery when the Astros selected him in the minor league phase of the 2022 Rule 5 Draft...did not pitch in 2023 before returning to the mound in 2024.
- Was added to the Astros 40-man roster on June 22, 2024...is signed to a one-year contract for 2026.

2024 SEASON:

- The rookie 27-year-old received a mid-season promotion and spent the bulk of the second half at the big league level, going 1-0 with a 2.39 ERA (7ER/26.1IP), a .211 opponent average (20x95) and 32 strikeouts through 28 appearances.
- Was tougher on right-handed hitters, holding them to a .204 batting average (11x54) compared to a .220 batting average (9x41) vs. left-handed hitters...however, allowed just one extra-base hit among the 46 left-handed batters he faced.
- Made his MLB debut on June 23 vs. BAL, striking out one in a perfect 1.0 inning...picked up his first career strikeout vs. All-Star SS Gunnar Henderson.
- Recorded his first career winning decision on July 5 at MIN (1.0 IP, 2 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 1 BB, 0 SO).
- Had two stints with the Astros...was selected to the MLB roster on June 22 and was optioned to Triple A on Aug. 29...was recalled on Sept. 12 and spent the remainder of the season on the active roster.
- Went 1-0 with a 2.21 ERA (9ER/36.2IP), a .209 opponent average, a 1.15 WHIP and 44 strikeouts through 34 appearances with Triple A Sugar Land.
- Made his POSTSEASON debut in Game 1 of the ALWC vs. DET, tossing 0.2 of a scoreless inning (1K).

MINOR LEAGUE CAREER:

- In his first year in the Astros organization, did not make an appearance during the 2023 season while recovering from Tommy John surgery.
- Split his 2022 season between Double A Tennessee and Class A Myrtle Beach, combining for a 1.61 ERA (4ER/22.1IP)...made his last appearance of the season on July 1 before being sidelined with injury...acquired by Houston after the season in the minor league phase of the 2022 Rule 5 Draft.
- Pitched the majority of the 2021 season at Class A South Bend before a late season promotion to Double A Tennessee...combined for a 4.53 ERA (22ER/43.2IP) in 23 relief appearances.
- Did not appear in a regular season game in 2020 due to the cancellation of the minor league season.
- Made his professional debut in 2019 for the AZL Cubs...did not allow an earned run in five appearances (9.1IP) before being promoted to Class A Eugene...finished his year with nine relief appearances in Eugene.

Contract Status: Signed through 2026
Acquired: Selected from CIN in the Major League phase of the 2025 Rule 5 Draft.
Resides: Santo Domingo, D.R.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Right-handed reliever, who has pitched in parts of two Major League seasons (2024-25), entered the Astros organization after being selected from the Reds in the MLB Phase of the 2025 Rule 5 Draft.
- Has gone 2-7 with a 6.73 ERA (70ER/93.2IP) and 84 K's in 27 games (17 starts) in the Majors, appearing with the Marlins (2024) and Cardinals (2025).
- Worked exclusively in relief for the first time in his career in 2025, striking out 14 batters in 11.0 IP while posting a .225 opponent average in nine appearances with the Cardinals...also went 4-3 with a 3.28 ERA (21ER/57.2IP), a .218 opponent average and 11.9 SO/9IP in 38 apps with Triple A Memphis.
- Has pitched in parts of seven seasons at the minor league level, going 22-26 with a 4.76 ERA (208ER/393.2IP), 436 strikeouts and a .238 opponent batting average in stints within the Braves (2018-23), Nationals (2023), Marlins (2024) and Cardinals (2025) systems.

2025 SEASON:

- Worked as a full-time reliever for the first time in his career and recorded an 8.18 ERA (10ER/11IP) with 14 strikeouts and a .225 opponent batting average through nine appearances with the Cardinals.
- Spent the bulk of his season with Triple A Memphis, where he went 4-3 with a 3.28 ERA (21ER/57.2IP), three saves, a .218 opponent average and 76 strikeouts in 38 apps...his 11.9 SO/9IP ranked third among International League pitchers (min. 55 IP).
- Held left-handed hitters to a .188 opponent average (3x16) with six strikeoutsin his MLB apps.
- Made six separate stints with the Cardinals, serving as the 27th player on the active roster for a doubleheader as one of the stints.
- Plkayed for the Aguilas Cibaenas of the Dominican Winter League in the offseason, logging a 5.79 ERA (3ER/4.2IP) and 0.86 WHIP in five relief outings.
- Was claimed off waivers by the Reds on Nov. 6 and signed a minor league contract with Cincinnati on Dec. 2 before being selected by the Astros in the Rule 5 Draft on Dec. 10.

2024 SEASON:

- In his debut season, went 2-7 with a 6.53 ERA (60ER/82.2IP), 70 strikeouts and a 1.58 WHIP in 18 games (17 starts) across four stints with the Marlins.

BROADCAST NOTES

- Originally signed by the Braves as an 18-year-old international free agent from the Dominican Republic on June 11, 2018.
- Is the middle child among a set of triplets...his twin brother, Rolddy, was also signed by the Braves, just a little over a year after Roddery (June 14, 2019)... Rolddy made his Major League debut with the Braves on Sept. 2, 2025 and made three relief appearances with Atlanta as part of his debut season.
- In 2025, Muñoz utilized a five-pitch mix, relying heavily on his slider, cutter, sinker and four-seamer... he averaged 95.2 mph with his fastball in the Majors last season...Muñoz tossed the fastest pitch of his MLB career last season, a 98.5-mph fastball to Pete Alonso.
- The Astros are the seventh organization Muñoz has been employed by since the middle of the 2023 season...was first claimed off waivers by the Nationals from the Braves (July 17, 2023)...the following offseason, was claimed by the Pirates (Dec. 1, 2023) and then traded to the Marlins (Dec. 20, 2023)...after spending the entire 2024 season in the Marlins organization, he was claimed by the Cardinals (Nov. 1, 2024)...this past offseason, he was claimed by the Reds (Nov. 6, 2025) and then signed a minor league contract with the Reds (Dec. 2, 2025)... the Astros then selected him in the 2025 Rule 5 Draft.
- Muñoz is the Astros' first Rule 5 Draft selection since they took converted outfielder LHP Anthony Gose in 2017...the Astros have found some recent gems in the Rule 5 Draft, including LHP Wesley Wright, who appeared in 286 games through six seasons with Houston (2008-13), along with OF Willy Taveras, who batted .284 and swiped 68 stolen bases in three seasons as the club's center fielder (2004-06)... perhaps no Rule 5 Draft selection has had a bigger impact on the organization than RHP Josh Fields, who the Astros traded to the Dodgers in August 2016 in exchange for future Rookie of the Year and three-time All-Star, Yordan Avarez.
- Due to being a Rule 5 selection, Muñoz must remain on the Astros active roster throughout the 2026 season (barring an IL stint)...if the Astros wish to option Muñoz, he must first clear waivers and then be offered back to the Reds for $50,000 (half the price of what a drafting teams pays to original club at Rule 5 Draft).

- Held RHH to a .237 opponent average (10x40).
- Made his MLB debut with a start on April 20 at CHC (5.0 IP, 2 H, 2 R/ER, 1 BB, 7 SO) and took a no-decision in what was the second game of a doubleheader... his seven strikeouts were tied for third-most in a debut in Marlins history.
- Recorded the first winning decision of his career on May 1 vs. COL, allowing one run on three hits with seven strikeouts through 6.0 innings.
- Carried a no-hitter through 5.1 IP on June 13 vs. NYM.
- Also made 12 appearances (8 starts) with Triple A Jacksonville, going 4-4 with a 4.96 ERA (27ER/49IP).

MINOR LEAGUE CAREER:

- Pitched in the Braves and Nationals systems in 2023, spending most of the season at Triple A, while also making one start at Double A and five rehab appearances in the Florida Complex League...went a combined 4-6 with a 5.42 ERA (47ER/78IP) and 81 strikeouts in 34 games (14 starts)...began his year in the Braves system and was claimed off waivers by the Nationals on July 17 after being DFA'd... following the season, was claimed off waivers by the Pirates on Dec. 1 and then traded to the Marlins on Dec. 20 in exchange for cash considerations.
- Spent most of his 2022 season with High A Rome (19g), while also appearing with Double A Mississippi (3g), going a combined 8-4 with a 4.66 ERA (52ER/100.1IP) and 119 strikeouts...went 6-1 with a 1.67 ERA over his final seven starts with High A Rome (June 26-Aug. 4) before being promoted and finishing his season with Double A Mississippi.
- Played the entire 2021 season with Low A Augusta and went 1-2 with a 6.67 ERA (22ER/29.2IP), 33 strikeouts and a 1.48 WHIP...was on the 7-day IL from June 15-July 16 and July 23-Sept. 23.
- Did not play in an official game in 2020 due to the cancellation of the minor league season.
- Spent the entire 2019 season with the Dominican Summer League Braves and went 0-5 with a 3.77 ERA (26ER/62IP) with 67 strikeouts, a 1.24 WHIP and a .213 opponent batting average in 14 starts.
- Made his pro debut in 2018 and went 1-2 with a 6.88 ERA (13ER/17IP), one save and 17 strikeouts through 10 appearances.

Contract Status: Signed through 2026
Acquired: From Tampa Bay in exchange for OF Jose Siri on Aug. 1, 2022. The Astros also acquired IF Trey Mancini from Baltimore for RHP Chayce McDermott to complete the deal.
ML Service: 0.026

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Right-handed reliever made his Major League debut in 2025 and has pitched in parts of six professional seasons (2019, 2021-25), including four with Houston....has gone 20-16 with a 3.78 ERA (148ER/352.2IP), a 1.18 WHIP and .225 opponent batting average through 118 career minor league appearances (61 starts).
- Worked as a full-time reliever for the first time in 2025 and posted a 1.54 ERA (2ER/11.2IP) through his first nine Major League appearances...also made 50 appearances with Triple A Sugar Land, going 1-2 with a 4.64 ERA (33ER/64IP)...had made just seven relief appearances through his first five professional seasons entering 2025.
- Spent parts of the first four years of his professional career in the Rays minor league system (2019-22), reaching up to the Triple A level, before being traded to the Astros as part of a three-team trade with the Orioles ahead of the 2022 Trade Deadline.

2025 SEASON:

- Transitioned into a full-time reliever and reached the Majors for the first time, recording a 1.54 ERA (2ER/11.2IP), .227 opponent batting average (10x44), 1.11 WHIP and two holds in nine appearances (1 start) to close out the regular season.
- Was scoreless through his first seven Major League appearances (9.1 IP)...became the fifth pitcher in Astros history, and the first since RHP Andre Scrubb (2020), to record at least seven consecutive scoreless appearances to open their career.
- His 1.54 ERA was the fourth-lowest among AL rookies in September.
- Held left-handed hitters to a .167 opponent average (3x18) during his time in the Majors.
- Made his Major League debut on Sept. 4 vs. NYY, with 1.1 scoreless and hitless innings...picked up his first career strikeout vs. IF José Caballero.
- Logged his first career Major League start on Sept. 12 at ATL, working 3.0 scoreless innings.
- Was selected to the active roster on Sept. 3 and spent the rest of the season with the Major League club.

BROADCAST NOTES

- A native of Vernal, Utah, Murray graduated from Uintah High School...Vernal is located in northeast Utah, approximately 20 miles from the Colorado border and three hours from Salt Lake City.
- Began his collegiate career with Arizona Western College (Yuma, Ariz.)...went 11-3 with two saves and a 3.12 ERA in his lone season.
- Transferred to Utah Tech (St. George, Utah) for the 2018-19 seasons...in 2019, set Utah Tech's single-season records in strikeouts (92) and SO/9IP (9.93)... also tied the program record with 10 wins in 2019, while posting a 3.78 ERA through 14 starts...ended his Utah Tech career with the program record for SO/9IP (8.39), while finishing fourth in strikeouts (138) and tied for fourth in wins (13)...had his No. 35 retired by Utah Tech in a ceremony prior to the school's alumni game in February 2026.
- Selected by the Rays in the 23rd round of the 2019 MLB First-Year Player Draft.
- Just ahead of the 2022 Trade Deadline, the Astros, Rays and Orioles connected on a three-team deal, which brought slugging first baseman Trey Mancini from Baltimore and Murray, a minor leaguer in the Rays system, to Houston...the Astros sent OF Jose Siri to Tampa Bay and minor leaguer RHP Chayce McDermott to Baltimore to complete the deal.
- Received an invite to Major League Spring Training in 2023 but had his season cut short while with Triple A Sugar Land due to surgery to repair Thoracic Outlet Syndrome...went on to make just two appearances in 2024, both with the FCL Astros, while recovering from the surgery, along with an ulnar nerve injury.
- Murray is joined by bullpen mate LHP Bennett Sousa as having undergone the rare thoracic outlet surgery, which relieves compression in the thoracic outlet (near the collarbone and first rib) and usually involves the removal of the first rib: "You can talk to 10 different people that have had TOS symptoms or the surgery and everybody's symptoms are going to be different...I'm very grateful that the team stuck with me," Murray told the Houston Chronicle in September 2025 upon his promotion to the Majors.
- Made his MLB debut on Sept. 4, 2025, vs. the Yankees at Daikin Park, and was greeted by Aaron Judge as the first batter of his career...he retired the three-time American League MVP on a fly out as part of a scoreless and hitless 1.1 innings of work.

- Spent the bulk of his season with Triple A Sugar Land where he posted a 4.64 ERA (33ER/64IP) with 66 strikeouts, a 1.33 WHIP and .239 opponent average in 50 appearances.
- Ranked second in the Pacific Coast League in appearances and ranked second in all of Minor League Baseball in appearances at the time his contract was selected.

MINOR LEAGUE CAREER:

- Made just two appearances in 2024, both coming with the FCL Astros, while recovering from thoracic outlet surgery and a separate nerve injury.
- Had an injury-shortened 2023 season, spent entirely with Triple A Sugar Land, going 2-4 with a 8.27 ERA (38ER/41.1IP) in 11 games (eight starts)... made his last appearance of the season on May 30 in order to undergo thoracic outlet surgery.
- Began the 2022 season at the Double A and Triple A levels in the Rays minor league system before being dealt to the Astros as part of a three-team Trade Deadline deal with the Orioles...spent the majority of his season with Double A Montgomery, where he went 8-2 with a 2.83 ERA (24ER/76.1IP) in 16 games (15 starts).
- Split his 2021 season between Double A Montgomery and High A Bowling Green and went a combined 8-3 with a 2.16 ERA (23ER/96IP), 96 strikeouts, a 0.71 WHIP and .152 opponent batting average in 20 starts...earned June Midwest League Pitcher of the Month with Bowling Green and August Southern League Pitcher of the Month with Montgomery...among all pitchers in Minor League Baseball, he ranked first in WHIP, first in opponent batting average and third in ERA (min. 90 IP).
- Did not play in an official game in 2020 due to the cancellation of the minor league season.
- Made his professional debut in 2019, making 11 appearances (eight starts) with the Princeton Rays of the Rookie Appalachian League and one start with short-season Hudson Valley...went a combined 1-2 with a 2.45 ERA (11ER/40.1IP), a 0.97 WHIP and .212 opponent batting average...struck out 10 batters and allowed just one hit through 6.0 scoreless innings in his lone start with Hudson Valley on Aug. 27 en route to being named the New York-Penn League Player of the Week.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Veteran lefty reliever became an integral piece of the Astros bullpen after signing a minor league deal ahead of the 2025 season...has pitched in parts of eight Major League seasons (2016-18, 2021-25) with the Giants (2016-18), Marlins (2021-23), Twins (2024) and Astros (2025)...is 18-13 with two saves and a 3.70 ERA (124ER/301.1IP) in 340 career Major League appearances...has 337 strikeouts in 301.1 career innings.
- Had one of the finest seasons of his career in 2025, setting career highs in appearances (68), innings (71.2), strikeouts (84), WHIP (0.90) and opponent batting average (.181), while going 3-2 with a 3.01 ERA (24ER/71.2IP)...among AL relievers, ranked 5th in opponent OPS (.533), 6th in WHIP, 9th in opponent batting average and 11th in strikeout-to-walk ratio (4.32).
- Has made 236 appearances since 2022, which are tied with teammate LHP Josh Hader for the ninth-most among left-handed relievers in the Majors over that span.
- Dating back to 2012, has pitched in parts of 11 minor league seasons...has 344 career minor league appearances under his belt, going 30-13 with 44 saves and a 3.41 ERA (156ER/412IP)...has 497 strikeouts in his 412.0 minor league innings.
- Has one career POSTSEASON appearance, which came with the Marlins in the 2023 National League Wild Card Series at Philadelphia...in Game 1, allowed one run on two hits in 1.0 inning with no walks and one strikeout at Citizens Bank Park.
- Had a breakout 2014 season with Advanced A San Jose and Double A Richmond...led the Giants organization with 24 saves...named to the California League Mid-Season ALL-STAR team...after the season, pitched for the Scottsdale Scorpions in the Arizona Fall League...selected to the AFL All-Prospect Team and was named to the Rising Stars. Game after posting a 0.75 ERA (1ER/12IP) with 17 strikeouts in 10 games.

2025 SEASON:

- Had a resurgent campaign after signing a minor league deal with the Astros in the offseason, going 3-2-1 with a 3.01 ERA (24ER/71.2IP), .181 opponent batting average (45x248), 0.90 WHIP and 10.55 SO/9IP in 68 appearances

BROADCAST NOTES

- Graduated in 2009 from Rowlette HS in Rowlette, TX, which is a suburb of Dallas...went undrafted out of high school and went on to attend Grayson Community College in nearby Denison, TX.
- Pitched two seasons (2010-11) at Grayson and was drafted twice, but did not sign...drafted by Milwaukee on both occasions, in the 43rd round of the 2010 draft and then again in the 33rd round of the 2011 draft.
- Transferred to the University of Oklahoma for his junior season (2012)...went 9-8 with a 3.07 ERA in 85.0 innings with the Sooners that year.
- Selected by the Giants in the fourth round of the June 2012 draft and began his professional career.
- Made headlines in 2024 after riding the Nationals bullpen cart to the mound prior to his appearance in May...for his services, Okert notably tipped his driver $5 for the ride...Okert was a frequent rider of the cart during his time in the NL East division as a member of the Marlins from 2021-23...he had no intentions of ever riding the cart, but an early-season trip to Washington and a freezing day changed his mind...upon leaving the bullpen, Okert saw the waiting cart and jumped in...he had a strong appearance that game and has continued the tradition since.
- Prior to the 2025 season, Okert visited Tread Athletics in Charlotte, N.C., which provides free biomechanical analysis to MLB players...the training facility is credited for helping pitchers such as RHP Mitch Keller and LHP Cole Ragans in altering their mechanics en route to All-Star seasons...Okert was able to identify minor issues with his delivery, specifically in motions with his scapula and his pelvis.
- At the advice of Astros pitching coach Josh Miller, he simplified his repertoire in 2025 to rely near-exclusively on his slider and four-seam fastball, tossing his four seamer at a career-high 41.2% rate.
- Okert was the ringleader in getting Astros hitters to acknowledge the bullpen during home run trots in 2025...a common practice among teams ranging from the college to the pros, the Astros had yet to adopt the tradition until Okert joined the team in 2025.
- Is under a Major League contract for the 2026 season and was eligible for arbitration for the second time in his career this past offseason.

- Set career highs in appearances, innings, strikeouts, WHIP and opponent batting average.
- His 0.90 WHIP ranked as 10th-lowest in a season by a qualified reliever in club history and ranked sixth among AL relievers.
- Also among AL relievers, ranked 5th in opponent OPS (.533), 9th in opponent batting average and 11th in strikeout-to-walk ratio (4.32)...was tied for 10th among AL left-handed pitchers in appearances.
- Led Astros relievers and ranked tied for seventh in the AL with 16 scoreless multi-inning relief appearances...were the most scoreless multi-inning relief appearances by an Astro in a single season since RHP Chris Devenski posted 19 such appearances in 2017.
- Used his 4-seam fastball at a 41.2-percent rate, the highest mark of his career (previous high: 38.6 percent in 2023).
- Per Baseball Savant, ranked in the 96th percentile among MLB pitchers in hard-hit percentage (32.7), the 93rd percentile in whiff percentage (32.8) and the 91st percentile in strikeout percentage (30.4).
- Tossed a scoreless 1.0 inning on April 5 at MIN...marked his first career appearance against the Twins, giving him appearances against all 30 current MLB franchises.
- Recorded his second career save on April 8 at SEA (1.0 IP, 0 H, 0 R, 0 BB, 2 SO)...his other career save came on April 10, 2024 vs. LAD while with the Twins.
- Did not surrender his first walk of the season until his 13th appearance (May 4 at CWS)...was the eighth reliever in Astros history to work at least 13 consecutive appearances to open a season without allowing a walk (last: RHP Ryan Pressly in 2019).
- Worked three consecutive scoreless outings of 2.0 innings from May 6-12...marked the first time in his career he logged back-to-back scoreless outings of 2.0 innings...was the first Astros reliever since RHP Cristian Javier (2022) to log three consecutive scoreless relief outings of at least 2.0 innings.
- Made a start as an opener on Aug. 5 at MIA (1.2 IP, 1 H, 1 R/ER, 0 BB, 2 SO)...was the longest start among his four career starts (all as an opener) and was his first start since July 24, 2024, with the Twins.
- Signed by the Astros to a minor league contract with an invite to Spring Training on Nov. 12, 2024...made 10 scoreless appearances (11.1 IP) in Spring Training en route to making his third career OPENING DAY roster (also 2022-23 with MIA).

2024 SEASON:

- Pitched in his first season with the Twins after being acquired via trade with Miami on Feb. 11, in exchange for utility player Nick Gordon.
- Was in the Twins bullpen from Opening Day through Aug. 24 as a middle reliever and lefty specialist.
- Held left-handed hitters to a .193 batting average with a .564 OPS with Minnesota and right-handers to a .317 average with a .984 OPS.
- Recorded his first career save in his fourth appearance of the season on April 10 vs. LAD, pitching a scoreless 9th inning in a Twins 3-2 victory...got the opportunity after Brock Stewart and Griffin Jax pitched the 7th and 8th, and Jhoan Duran began the season on IL.
- Allowed just four hits to left-handed batters (36 lefties faced) in first 21 appearances from March 30-June 5; posted .118 BAA to lefties in that span.
- Was the opener on July 24 vs. PHI (in front of bulk pitcher David Festa), pitching 0.1 inning in a Twins 5-4 victory...marked the third start of his career.
- Allowed just three home runs in first 35 games (29.0 IP) from March 30-July 24, but allowed three in final nine appearances (6.1 IP) from July 27-Aug. 23.
- Designated for assignment on Aug. 24...cleared waivers and accepted assignment to Triple-A St. Paul...pitched in seven games for St. Paul to finish the season, from Aug. 31-Sept. 21.

2023 SEASON:

- Pitched in his third season with Miami.
- Missed 19 games to begin the season with a left adductor strain before returning from the IL on April 21...made season debut on April 22 at CLE.
- Had a career-high 10.0-inning scoreless streak (12 games) from May 2-24...during the stretch, held opponents to a .094 (3x32) batting average with three walks and 16 strikeouts.
- Struck out a career-high 73 batters...was one of four left-handed relievers on the Marlins with 70+ strikeouts (others, Andrew Nardi, A.J. Puk, Tanner Scott)...marked the first time in franchise history that two or more left-handed relievers finished with 70+ strikeouts in a season.
- Ranked in the 89th percentile in baseball in strikeout percentage (29.6%).
- Held left-handed batters to a .241 (20x83) batting average with a .720 OPS while right-handed batters hit .222 (30x135) with a .747 OPS.
- Made a POSTSEASON appearance in Game 1 of the NL Wild Card Series vs. PHI at Citizens Bank Park, allowing one run on two hits in 1.0 inning.

2022 SEASON:

- Made a career-high 60 appearances for Miami in 2022...his five wins, 2.98 ERA, and 1.169 WHIP all led the Marlins bullpen...set career highs in innings pitched (51.1) and strikeouts (63).
- Inherited 19 runners, the most among Marlins relievers, with only five inherited runners scoring.
- Led Marlins bullpen with 19 holds and the lowest batting average against (.186), ranking 10th among NL relievers in BAA and seventh among lefty NL relievers in ERA (min. 40 IP).
- Held righties to a .152 (17x112) average, allowing 18 walks and striking out 36...lefties batted .239 (17x71) against him with eight walks and 27 strikeouts.

2021 SEASON:

- Signed with Miami prior to the start of Spring Training as a free agent after spending the first eight years of his career with San Francisco...went 3-1 with a 2.75 ERA for Miami in 2021.
- Worked 36.0 innings and struck out 40 batters... allowed just 22 hits but walked 15.
- Joined the big league club on June 29, went 2-0 with a 1.80 ERA in 15 games (20.0 IP) for the Jumbo Shrimp...collected four saves in four opportunities.
- Made his season debut on April 11 at NYM...pitched a scoreless 1.2 innings.
- Worked 9.0 consecutive scoreless innings from Aug. 9-Sept. 10.

2020 SEASON:

- Did not pitch in 2020 due to cancellation of minor league season (COVID 19 pandemic).

2019 SEASON:

- Spent all of 2019 with Triple A Sacramento in the San Francisco Giants organization...finished 8-2 with a 5.31 ERA in 50 games (4 starts)...struck out 75 in 57.2 innings

2018 SEASON:

- Pitched in 10 games for San Francisco in 2018... went 0-0 with a 1.23 ERA in 7.1 innings in the big leagues...held hitters to a .148 average.
- Appeared in 33 games with Triple A Sacramento, going 2-1 with a 4.55 ERA (16ER/31.2IP) prior to his September call-up.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- The two-time ALL-STAR infielder enters his second year in Houston...has batted .237 (453x1915) with 87 doubles, three triples, 92 home runs and 246 RBI in 566 major league games across five seasons with Detroit (2020-21), Tampa Bay (2022-24), Chicago (2024) and Houston (2025)...has posted a career .429 OBP, nearly 100 points higher than his career batting average (.237).
- A patient hitter, Paredes ranks third in the Majors in pitches per plate appearance (4.31) since becoming an everyday regular in 2022...ranked second in the AL in the category in 2025 (min. 400 PA), seeing 4.43 pitches per plate appearance.
- Has been a dead pull power hitter in his career, having pulled all 92 of his career homers.
- Was selected to his second consecutive ALL-STAR Game in 2025, his first season with the Astros... batted .254 (96x378) with 15 doubles, 20 home runs, 53 RBI and an .809 OPS (.352 OBP/.458 SLG) through 102 games in an injury-shortened campaign.
- As an ALL-STAR in 2024, Paredes hit .238 (129x542) with 64 runs, 25 doubles, 19 homers, 80 RBI and a .739 OPS (.346 OBP/.393 SLG) in 153 games between the Rays and Cubs...split his time defensively between third base (128g) and first base (17g).
- His best season in his young career came in 2023 when he hit 31 home runs with 98 RBI in 143 games for the Rays...his 31 home runs ranked second among AL third basemen that season.
- Helped Mexico to its first semifinal appearance at the 2023 World Baseball Classic...in the quarterfinal vs. Puerto Rico, he hit a 412-foot homer off Marcus Stroman as part of a three-RBI night that also included a game-tying two-run single.
- In 2022, he was named AL Player of the Week for June 20-26...slashed .579/.619/1.474 (11x19) with two doubles, five HR and nine RBI in five games over that stretch, leading the majors in avg., slugging pct., OPS, homers and extra-base hits.
- Made his MLB debut on Aug. 17, 2020...on Aug. 21 at CLE, he hit his first career homer, a go-ahead grand slam...he became the 10th rookie in Tigers history to hit a grand slam for his first homer.

BROADCAST NOTES

- Full name is pronounced as eez-AHK puh-RAY-dehs.
- A native of Hermosillo, Mexico, Paredes became a favorite of Major League scouts at the 2014 Under-15 World Baseball Cup while playing for Team Mexico...a shortstop at the time, Paredes was the starting pitcher for Mexico against the United States team, which was headlined by prep-prospect Royce Lewis...he took the mound displaying his 90+ mph fastball and struck out five in 4 IP, while also going 2x3 with a double at the plate.
- With this performance, he impressed Cubs scout Louie Eljaua, who's best known for discovering and signing a young Miguel Cabrera years before...Eljaua and Cubs scouting supervisor Sergio Hernandez signed Paredes in July of 2015 at the age of 16.
- Has been a part of four trades in his young career, going from Chicago (NL) to Detroit in 2017, Detroit to Tampa Bay in 2022, Tampa Bay back to Chicago in 2024, and Chicago to Houston prior to the 2025 season.
- He became the 13th Mexican-born player to appear in the Majors with the Astros and just the sixth position player...Paredes also became the first Astros everyday player from Mexico since 3B Vinny Castilla played in 122 games for the Astros in 2001...Paredes is joined on the Astros by his winter ball teammate C César Salazar, who's also from Hermosillo, MX...they are two of the six natives of Hermosillo to reach the Majors, joining RHP Francisco Barrios, RHP Elmer Dessens, IF Erubiel Durazo and OF Luis García.
- Isaac's grandmother, Gloria, was pivotal to his baseball development, routinely walking him to Little League practices as a child, an almost two-mile trek in the blazing Hermosillo heat...as a youth, Isaac promised Gloria she would watch him in the Majors one day...that promise was fulfilled on April 4, 2024, when Gloria traveled to Tropicana Field to watch Isaac play as a member of the Rays.
- Paredes is friends with fellow Mexico native and Mariners closer, Andres Muñoz, with the two first meeting as 9-year-old's on a Mexican youth national team...the duo have been selected as American League All-Stars in back-to-back seasons (2024-25).

- Graduated from Bishop McLaughlin High School (Spring Hill, Fla.)...did not pitch his junior season due to elbow surgery...returned to the mound as a senior and posted a 0.91 ERA with 117 strikeouts while also batting .315 with nine homers en route to being named the Florida Dairy Farmers Class 3A Player of the Year.
- Began his collegiate career at Florida International University and posted a 2.70 ERA in 19 appearances (one start)...transferred to College of Central Florida and was named the 2017 National Junior College Athletic Association Pitcher of the Year after going 5-2 with a 1.56 ERA and 118 strikeouts in 13 starts.
- Was selected by the Blue Jays with the 28th overall pick in the first round of the 2017 MLB First-Year Player Draft...headed into the 2020 season, he was ranked as the Blue Jays' top prospect and the No. 7 overall prospect in baseball by Baseball America, as well as the top right-handed pitching prospect in baseball by MLB Pipeline.
- After a dominant pro debut in 2017, Pearson tossed just 1.2 innings in 2018 prior to being struck by a line drive on his pitching arm in his season debut, causing a non-displaced fractured ulna in his right forearm...he rehabbed the injury at the Blue Jays' Spring Training complex in Dunedin, Fla., located approximately 10 miles from where he grew up and his family still lived in Oldsmar, Fla...Pearson was able to live with his family throughout the rehab process and credited them as a support group for helping him stay focused.
- Cited the Astros' confidence in him as a potential starter as a reason for signing with the club this offseason...once regarded as one of the game's top starting pitching prospects, Pearson has pitched almost entirely in relief since 2021, with his last start (not as an opener) coincidentally coming against the Astros on May 9, 2021 at Daikin Park.
- Pearson has used his 6-foot-6 frame to help produce triple digit fastballs throughout his career...entering the 2026 season, he's thrown 94 pitches that were at least 100.0 mph, including five during the 2025 season...in 2020, his last season working as a starter, he averaged 96.3 mph with his fastball, ranking in the 89th percentile among all Major League pitchers.
- Signed a one-year Major League deal with the Astros on Oct. 20, 2025...has four years and five days of Major League service time headed into this season.

2025 SEASON:

- Spent the majority of his season with Triple A Iowa in the Cubs organization, while also making 11 relief appearances at the Major League level with the Cubs.
- Posted a 9.20 ERA (15ER/14.2IP) in his 11 Major League appearances...made the Cubs OPENING DAY roster as part of three stints with the big league club...was his second career Opening Day roster (also: 2024 with the Blue Jays).
- Went 3-2 with a 2.22 ERA (11ER/44.2IP), a .175 opponent average, a 1.14 WHIP and 11.5 SO/9IP through 38 games (one start) with Triple A Iowa
- Made his season debut on March 29 vs. the Dodgers at the Tokyo Dome as part of the Tokyo Series (1 IP, 1 H, 1 R/ER, 0 BB, 2 SO).
- Was released by the Cubs on Sept. 21 after being designated for assignment...signed by the Astros to a Major League contract on Oct. 17.

2024 SEASON:

- Began his season with the Blue Jays before being traded to the Cubs in July...made a career-high 60 combined appearances (1 start), posting a 4.48 ERA (33ER/66.1IP) and logging a career-best two saves.
- Had a stellar finish to his season with the Cubs, going 2-1 with a 2.73 ERA (8ER/26.1IP), a 0.99 WHIP and a .227 opponent batting average over his final 19 appearances (1 start) of the season.
- Made his first career OPENING DAY roster and was scoreless in 10 of his first 11 outings of the season, posting a 1.80 ERA over that span.
- Recorded a 11.47 SO/9IP through his 41 appearances with the Blue Jays, ranking 12th among AL relievers (min. 40g) through July 27.
- Logged an average fastball velocity of 97.7 mph, which ranked in the 96th percentile among Major League pitchers.
- Was traded by the Blue Jays to the Cubs on July 27 in exchange for minor leaguers OF Yohendrick Piñango and IF Josh Rivera.
- Posted a 1.86 ERA (4ER/19.1IP) through his first 12 appearances with the Cubs (July 29-Sept. 10).
- Tossed the eighth inning in the Cubs' combined no-hitter on Sept. 4 vs. the Pirates.

2023 SEASON:

- Logged 35 appearances across four stints with the Blue Jays and went 5-2 with one save and a 4.85 ERA (23ER/42.2IP), 43 strikeouts, a .226 opponent batting average and a 1.27 WHIP.
- Made his Major League season debut on April 25 vs. the White Sox...was his first MLB appearance since October 3, 2021 vs. the Orioles.
- Ranked second in the AL (min. 25 IP) with a .153 opponent batting average at home.
- Posted a career-best 10.2 scoreless innings streak from June 24-July 18.
- Tossed a 101.9-mph fastball to C James McCann (resulting in a ground out) on June 15 at Baltimore... is the fastest pitch of his career and prior to the 2025 season was the fastest by a Toronto pitcher in the Statcast Era (since 2015).
- Notched the first save of his career on July 6 at CWS in the second game of a doubleheader (1.1 IP, 1 H, 0 R, 0 BB, 0 SO).
- Also made 20 appearances with Triple A Buffalo, recording a 1.74 ERA (4ER/20.2IP) with 34 strikeouts, a .184 opponent batting average and 1.40 WHIP.

2022 SEASON:

- Missed the entirety of the Major League season and nearly all of the minor league season while recovering from mononucleosis and a right lat strain.
- Made a total of 13 appearances (1 start) at the minor league level in stints with Triple A Buffalo and Low A Dunedin, going a combined 2-1 with a 3.52 ERA (6ER/15.1IP).
- Recorded two Major League Spring Training appearances before being shut down due to mononucleosis...was officially placed on the 10-day IL on April 7.
- Started a rehab assignment in late May but sustained a right lat strain on June 19 while with Triple A Buffalo and was shut down until September.
- Began another rehab assignment on Sept. 4 and made eight appearances (seven with Triple A Buffalo and one with Low A Dunedin) to close out his season...was officially activated from the 60-day IL following the conclusion of the regular season on Oct. 5.
- Went on to play for the Tigres del Licey of the Dominican Winter League in the offseason... allowed just one unearned run and five hits while striking out 16 batters in 12 relief outings (12 IP).

2021 SEASON:

- Entered the season as the Blue Jays' top prospect, per MLB Pipeline and Baseball America...was also rated as the top right-handed pitching prospect in baseball by MLB Pipeline and was rated as the No. 14 overall prospect in baseball by Baseball America.
- Made 12 appearances (one start) with the Blue Jays and went 1-1 with a 4.20 ERA (7ER/15IP), 20 strikeouts and a .237 opponent batting average.
- Also made 12 appearances (six starts) with Triple A Buffalo, going 1-3 with a 4.40 ERA (15ER/30.2IP), a 1.11 WHIP and a .189 opponent batting average.

BROADCAST NOTES

- Born in Santo Domingo, DR, Jeremy spent his childhood in the Dominican before moving to Rhode Island with his family at the age of nine...did not speak English when he moved to Rhode Island and credits playing sports as a way to connect with kids his age without knowing the language.
- Played baseball at Classical HS (RI) in Providence, serving as team captain his senior season in 2015... also participated in Track and Field for four years and was a member of a State Championship team... drafted by Atlanta in the 39th round of the June 2015 draft, but did not sign.
- Was not heavily recruited by colleges until his senior season in high school...the University of Maine, on the other hand, had followed Jeremy the majority of his high school career...Jeremy credits that early interest in his decision to attend Maine, where he played three seasons for the Black Bears.
- Drafted by Houston in the third round of the June 2018 draft with the 102nd overall selection.
- Jeremy is the son of Gerónimo Peña, who played second base in the Majors for seven seasons with St. Louis (1990-95) and Cleveland (1996)...during his MLB career, Gerónimo batted .262 (265x1010) with 124 RBI and 54 steals...despite being the son of a Major Leaguer, Jeremy never saw his dad play since he wasn't born until Gerónimo's playing career ended...Gerónimo shared an infield with Hall-of-Fame shortstop Ozzie Smith for part of his career... throughout Jeremy's life, Gerónimo has passed along many of Ozzie's defensive lessons to his son.
- Announced his engagement to Canadian soccer star Julia Grosso in December of this offseason...Grosso appeared with the Canadian Women's National Team in both the 2020 and '24 Olympics and played for the Chicago Stars of the National Women's Soccer League during the 2025 season.
- IN THE COMMUNITY: Hosts his community group, Peña's Pals, at the ballpark for select Friday night home games...the groups consist of students from Houston-area schools, selected based on character, grades and growth...the students attend Astros BP and meet with players, while also decorating a pair of cleats for Peña to wear that night...this initiative, along with others, earned him the Astros nomination for the 2023 Roberto Clemente Award.

- Had a highly productive minor league career, in which he hit .291 (201x690) with 85 RBI, 29 steals and an .814 OPS (.371 OBP/.443 SLG) in 182 games.
- Played in the Dominican Winter League in the 2020 and 2021 offseasons with the Estrellas de Oriente... earned the league's Gold Glove Award at shortstop in both seasons...also named the league's Rookie of the Year in 2020-21...combined to hit .298 (71x238) with eight doubles, five homers and 24 RBI over his two seasons with Estrellas.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- The 23-year-old outfielder is coming off his rookie season after spending the entire 2025 season at the Major League level, skipping the Triple A level when he impressed in his first big league Spring Training...finished the season as a finalist for a Gold Glove award and named the Houston BBWAA Astros rookie of the year for 2025.
- His 32 minor league games are the third fewest by a position player in Major League history before making his debut, behind Peter Incaviglia and John Olerud, who both did not play a single minor league game.
- Was featured in numerous preseason top-100 prospect rankings headed into the 2025 season, including The Athletic (No. 43), Baseball America (No. 55), MLB Pipeline (No. 59; No. 3 third-base prospect) and ESPN (No. 73).

2025 SEASON:

- The 2024 first-round pick entered his second professional season as the consensus top-ranked prospect in the Astros system and one of the top third-base prospects in all of baseball.
- Made his first OPENING DAY roster and earned the start in right field for his MLB debut...went 1x3 with a single in the second inning for his first Major League hit...was the second-youngest Astros position player (22yo) to make his MLB debut as a starter on Opening Day...the youngest was Rusty Staub (19yo) in 1963.
- Was a Gold Glove Award finalist for the first time in his career, putting together a phenomenal campaign in right field...the rookie outfielder ranked 1st in zone rating (.900), 2nd in fielding percentage (.992) and T-3rd in assists (6) among AL right fielders.
- The 22-year-old rookie outfielder batted .236 (104x441) with 55 runs, 21 doubles, three triples, nine home runs, 51 RBI, 43 walks, eight stolen bases and a .671 OPS in 134 games.
- Began the season as the Astros starting right fielder, batting .277 (81x292) with 39 runs scored, 16 doubles, two triples and seven homers in his first 82 games before the All-Star Break...later transitioned to a platoon role after the Trade Deadline.

BROADCAST NOTES

- Graduated from Palm Beach Central High School (Wellington, Fla.), where he was ranked as the No. 1 shortstop in Florida and the No. 53 prospect nationally by Perfect Game following his senior year in 2022...was ranked as the No. 84 draft prospect by MLB Pipeline heading into the 2022 MLB Draft, but went undrafted due to his strong commitment to Florida State.
- Also played basketball and indoor volleyball before falling in love and focusing on baseball - credits his grandma for introducing him to the sport.
- Was named a second-team All-American by Perfect Game and Baseball America as a sophomore in 2024, batting .387 (104x269) with 22 doubles, 16 home runs, 57 RBI and a .488 on-base percentage for the Seminoles...Smith's .387 batting average was the highest from a Florida State player since Tyler Holt in 2009 (.401) and his 104 hits were the most since Buster Posey in 2008 (119).
- Selected by Chicago (NL) in the first round (14th overall) of the 2024 draft...was recommended by Cubs area scout, Ike Ballou.
- Was the key prospect return for the Astros in the trade that sent OF Kyle Tucker to the Cubs on Dec. 13, 2024, joined by IF Isaac Paredes and RHP Hayden Wesneski from the Cubs in exchange for Tucker.
- After a phenomenal Spring Training where he batted .342 (13x38) with 8 runs scored, 3 triples, 4 homers and 11 RBI, Smith made the Opening Day roster...with only 32 career minor league games, the emotional moment of his mom delivering the news in the Astros clubhouse was caught on camera and posted on Astros socials before the team's exhibition game against the Triple A Space Cowboys on March 25.
- Chose the number 11 as a tribute to Mike Martin, his former coach at Florida State after seeing his college number, 24, has been retired for Jimmy Wynn since 2005.
- Cam credits the use of meditation to help him focus and handle pressure before and during games...he initially used the Calm App to help him with his meditation, but now uses Reggae music as a relaxation tool, with Bob Marley and the Wailers as one of his top choices within the genre.
- Smith grew up in Lake Worth, Fla., located approximately 30 minutes from the Astros Spring Training Complex in West Palm Beach, Fla.

- Among AL rookies, ranked 1st in games, T-1st in triples (3), 4th in doubles (21), 4th in runs (55), 4th in RBI (51) and 6th in hits (104).
- Mashed his first Major League home run in his ninth career game on April 11 vs. LAA, a two-run shot to left field off RHP Ian Anderson.
- In May, he hit .307 (23x75) with seven doubles, seven RBI, nine walks and a .788 OPS in 22 games.
- On June 17 at ATH, recorded his second career multi-homer game (also, April 18 vs. SD)...became the fourth youngest Astros player to record 4 hits and 2 home runs...the three younger players were Joe Morgan (21.292), Carlos Correa (21.197) and Rusty Staub (20.081)...lastly, became the second player in franchise history to record at least two multi-homer games in a player's first 59 career games, joining Yordan Alvarez in 2019, who has three multi-homer games in that span.

MINOR LEAGUE CAREER:

- Had a strong professional debut in 2024, batting .313 (36x115) with 20 runs scored, five doubles, four triples, seven home runs, 24 RBI, two stolen bases and a 1.004 OPS (.396 OBP/.609 SLG) through a combined 32 games between the Low A, High A and Double A levels in the Cubs system...homered in six consecutive games from Aug. 20-25 while with Low A Myrtle Beach, also batting .556 (10x18) with eight RBI over that span...he became the first player in Myrtle Beach's 25-year history to homer in six consecutive games and the streak was the longest in MiLB in 2024...was named the Carolina League Player of the Week on Aug. 25 as part of the homer streak...was promoted to High A South Bend on Aug. 27 and then Double A Tennessee on Sept. 10...also appeared in the Southern League playoffs with Double A Tennessee, going 2x10 with three runs scored, a home run, three RBI and two walks in three games.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Enters the 2026 season as one Houston's top pitching prospects and has posted one of the lowest opponent batting averages in the minor leagues since making his professional debut in 2021...through parts of five minor league seasons with the Astros, he's gone 18-27 with a 4.32 ERA (207ER/431.0IP), 576 strikeouts and a .187 opponent batting average (287x1536) in 113 games (87 starts).
- Dominican right-hander was named Sugar Land's 2025 Pitcher of the Year after turning in his first full season in Triple A, topping the Pacific Coast League leaderboards in ERA, BAA, SO% and SO/9IP (min. 110IP) and earning PCL Pitcher of the Month honors for May, posting superb numbers on the month.
- His .184 opponent average since the 2021 season ranks first among all MiLB pitchers (min. 400 IP).
- Has six career 10+ strikeout games, adding two to the count last season (10 on May 8, 2025 at SL and 11 on July 20, 2025 vs. SL) along with 18 career games where he allowed 1 or fewer hits with 4.0+ innings pitched (last, Sept. 2, 2025 vs. OKC).

MINOR LEAGUE CAREER:

- Spent his first full season in the Triple A rotation in 2025 and went 7-6 with a 3.88 ERA in 28 appearances (23 starts)...despite not reaching qualified status, he ranked 1st in ERA (3.88), 1st in BAA (.183), 1st in strikeout percentage (26.6%), 1st in strikeout-per-nine (10.37), 2nd in strikeouts (131) and 4th in WHIP among PCL starters with a minimum of 100 IP...won PCL Pitcher of the month for May after pitching to a 3-0 record in 5 starts with a 1.17 ERA (3ER/23IP), 34 strikeouts and a .175 BAA.
- Was one of the most dominant starters in the minors in 2024, ranking first among all MiLB pitchers with a .161 opponent average (min. 100 IP), while also ranking third with 171 strikeouts (130.1 IP)...made all but one of his 28 appearances (24 starts) in the regular season with Double A Corpus Christi, going 5- 9 with a 4.24 ERA (60ER/127.1IP) in his time with the Hooks...set Corpus Christi's single-season record with 166 strikeouts and logged a career-high 12 strikeouts on May 10 vs. Amarillo... made his Triple A debut in his regular-season finale on Sept. 19 (2ER/3IP)...went on to get the start in Game 2 of the Pacific Coast League Championship Series vs. Reno, tossing 4.0 scoreless innings while striking out five batters.

BROADCAST NOTES

- Last name is pronounced "oo-YOH-lah"
- Miguel signed with the Astros as an 18-year-old international free agent out of the Dominican Republic in January 2021...is looking to join a long list of successful Astros starters who joined the organization past their initial international signing window at 16 years old, including Framber Valdez, Cristian Javier, Ronel Blanco and Luis Garcia.
- Ullola is a native of Puerto Plata, a major coastal city in the D.R. known for its beaches and resorts, with a population just over 160,000 as of 2022.
- Entering the 2026 season ranked as the No. 5 pitching prospect and No. 10 overall prospect in the Astros system by Baseball America.
- Miguel relies heavily on a fastball-slider mix, with his fastball sitting between 92-96 mph and peaking at 98 mph...his fastball is extra deceptive thanks to a flat approach angle coupled with superb carry...also works in a changeup and curveball in his arsenal.
- Ullola's older brother introduced him to the game at a young age...grew up idolizing Pedro Martinez, like many who grew up in the Dominican Republic.
- The 2026 season is Ullola's second at Major League Spring Training (2025)...is under a Major League contract for the upcoming season after being added to the 40-man roster on November 18, 2025.

- Spent the entire 2023 season with High A Asheville, going 3-9 with a 5.86 ERA (59ER/90.2IP) with 116 strikeouts in 25 games (13 starts)...went on to make seven relief appearances with the Mesa Solar Sox of the Arizona Fall League in the offseason.
- Worked all of 2022 with Low A Fayetteville and went 2-2 with a 3.25 ERA (26ER/72IP), 120 strikeouts and a .157 opponent batting average in 22 games (11 starts)...his .157 opponent batting average (39x249) was the lowest among Astros minor leaguers and the fourth lowest among all MiLB pitchers (min. 70 IP).
- Made his professional debut in 2021, splitting time between the Astros Dominican Summer League (8g) and Florida Complex League (2g) affiliates... went a combined 1-1 with a 4.07 ERA (11ER/24.1IP) and 38 strikeouts in 10 games (five starts)

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Right-hander appeared in nine games across four Major League stints in 2025 after making his debut with Houston on April 11...owns a Major League ERA of 5.06 (6ER/10.2IP) with three walks and seven strikeouts.
- Has become one of the premier relievers in the Astros minor league system since joining the organization as an undrafted free agent in 2022... has gone 14-3 with seven saves, a 3.43 ERA and 205 strikeouts through 127 games (two starts) in parts of four minor league seasons (2022-25).
- Has averaged 12.14 strikeouts-per-nine-innings since making his pro debut in 2022, which ranks third among Astros minor leaguers over that span (min. 150 IP).
- Was second among all MiLB pitchers with 60 appearances in 2024, trailing only his Triple A Sugar Land teammate, RHP Wander Suero (67)...led Pacific Coast League relievers with 98 strikeouts on the year, while also ranking tied for fourth among all PCL pitchers in wins (9) and sixth in holds (12).
- Named the Astros Upper Level Minor League Player of the Month for May 2024...went 4-0 with a save, a 3.29 ERA (5ER/13.2IP) and 19 strikeouts through 12 appearances during the month.

2025 SEASON:

- Began the 2025 season in Triple A Sugar Land before his contract was selected and he made his Major League debut on April 11 vs. LAA.
- Pitched two hitless innings with his first strikeout of Logan O'Hoppe...also induced a groundout to 11-time All-Star and three-time AL MVP Mike Trout.
- Made nine relief appearances across four stints in the Majors and finished the season with a 5.06 ERA (6ER/10.2IP) with three walks and seven strikeouts.
- In 23 games with Sugar Land, threw for a 4.70 ERA (12ER/23.0IP) with 26 walks and 28 strikeouts... held an 8.0 scoreless innings streak from August 8-September 2, allowing only one hit over the streak with nine strikeouts...spent three separate stints on the minor league IL.

BROADCAST NOTES

- Last name is spelled "VanWey" and pronounced "Van-WHY".
- Graduated from Webb City High School (Webb City, Mo.) and went on to play five seasons at nearby Missouri Southern State University (2018-22), a NCAA Division II school in Joplin, Mo., which had an enrollment of just over 3,500 students as of the 2022-23 academic year.
- Finished his career at Missouri Southern State as the program's all-time leader in career appearances (76) and strikeouts-per-nine-innings (13.49)...also finished second in program history with 15 career saves and fifth with 222 career strikeouts.
- As a fifth-year senior in 2022, he was a unanimous All-Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association First Team selection, going 7-3 with a 3.47 ERA and 123 strikeouts through 14 starts...were the second-most strikeouts in a single season in MSSU history.
- Directly following his final season at MSSU, he joined the Glacier Range Riders of the independent Pioneer league...he made nine starts for the Range Riders, who are based out of Kalispell, Mont.
- Signed with the Astros as a non-drafted free agent on July 26, 2022...was signed by Astros scout Jim Stevenson...VanWey was dominant in his introduction to the affiliated ranks, allowing just one hit and striking out 16 batters in eight scoreless innings through four appearances (two starts)...he was shut down for the season, though, having already surpassed 130 innings including his time at the collegiate and independent level.
- Logan utilizes an unconventional delivery that helps create deception among his pitches, while also adding more spin...he's described his motion as a side-arm motion that comes more over the top at the point of release...former Double A Corpus Christi pitching coach Sean Buchanan described it as, "an unorthodox delivery from a lower slot, and it's kind of like the arms and legs come at ya and it just looks a little bit different."...ahead of his 2024 breakout season at the Triple A level, Logan added a sinker to go with his fastball, changeup and slider, continuing to fuel his deception.
- The 2026 season is VanWey's second at Major League Spring Training...was added to the 40-man roster on April 7, 2025 but was outrighted to Sugar Land on December 5...is under a minor league contract for the upcoming season.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Left-handed control specialist enjoyed a breakout season in 2025 after posting a 1-3 record with a 3.35 ERA (20ER/53.2IP) with a 0.93 WHIP and a .225 BAA in nine starts before suffering a season-ending elbow injury in late July.
- Set to enter his eighth professional season (2019-25)...has appeared in 18 Major League games (nine starts), along with 81 appearances (50 starts) in the minors, a majority with the Red Sox organization.
- Was a highly-regarded prospect within the Red Sox system, going 15-13 with a 3.61 ERA (100ER/274.1IP), 334 strikeouts, a .226 opponent batting average and a 1.12 WHIP through his 70 minor league appearances...has averaged a 4.77 strikeout-to-walk ratio through his 70 minor league appearances with the organization (2019-23).
- Made his MLB debut with the Red Sox in 2023 and logged nine relief appearances on the season... worked mainly as a long reliever, posting a 6.26 ERA (16ER/23IP) with one save...tossed 6.2 innings in relief in his MLB debut on June 22, 2023...became the fourth Red Sox pitcher in the Live Ball Era (since 1920) to tossed 6.0+ innings in relief in their Major League debut, and was the first to do so since RHP Clem Hausmann in 1944.

- Promoted to the Astros on May 20 to make his first Major League start and his first appearance since Sept. 14, 2023 when he was with the Red Sox...threw 5.0 shutout innings at TB, allowing just three hits and a walk with five strikeouts...optioned postgame.
- Recalled on June 8 to take a permanent spot in the Astros rotation...in nine starts for the year, held a 1-3 record with a 3.35 ERA (20ER/53.2IP) with a 0.93 WHIP and a .225 batting average with 52 strikeouts before losing the rest of his season to an elbow injury.
- Earned his first career win on June 27 vs. CHC, a start where he allowed one run through 6.0 innings.
- His most dominant start came from his final one before injury on July 23 at AZ, where he pitched a career-high 7.0 innings, giving up just one run across four hits and a walk.

BROADCAST NOTES

- Graduated from Hodgson Vocational Technical High School (Newark, De.) in 2015, where he was a first-team All-Star pick as a junior and senior...went 23-3 with a 0.83 ERA in his high school career, also finishing with Delaware's state record for career strikeouts (333).
- Was undrafted out of high school and went on to spend four seasons at the University of Delaware...made just nine starts his sophomore season in 2017 before undergoing Tommy John surgery and subsequently missing the entire 2018 season...returned in 2019 and posted a 3.86 ERA through 14 starts, also becoming the fourth player in program history to log 100+ strikeouts in a single season (106)...finished his UD career fourth all-time in program history with 252 career strikeouts.
- Was drafted by the Red Sox in the 26th round of the 2019 MLB Draft.
- Became the second player born in Delaware to appear for the Boston franchise when he made his MLB debut in 2023, joining RHP George Prentiss, who pitched in the franchise's first two seasons (1901-02).
- Was named the winner of the 2023 Lou Gorman Award, "given annually to a Red Sox minor leaguer who has demonstrated dedication and perseverance in overcoming obstacles while working his way to the Major League team."
- Became just the fourth pitcher in Red Sox history to toss 6.0-plus innings in relief in their Major League debut (June 22, 2023, at MIN)...coincidentally, the last pitcher in the Majors to toss 6.0-plus innings in relief in their big league debut was Astros lefty Kent Emmanuel, who pitched 8.2 innings in relief in his debut on April 24, 2021 vs. the Angels.
- Was a consistent contributor to Red Sox community initiatives...as part of the club's 2023 Rookie Development program, he visited patients at Boston Children's Hospital and helped host a Play Ball clinic with the Red Sox Foundation...also took part in the Red Sox Caravan in Dec. 2023, participating in visits to hospitals, food banks and Boys & Girls Clubs.
- Signed a minor league contract with the Astros on Aug. 16, 2024, and has been on the 40-man roster since May 20, 2025...is under an MLB contract for the 2026 season...expected to miss a portion of the 2026 season after undergoing elbow surgery in September 2025.

- Allowed two runs or fewer in seven of his nine starts in 2025 and his career...excluding his start on June 21 at LAA (7ER/6IP), he posted a 2.45 ERA (13ER/47.2IP)
- His four walks through his first nine starts were the fewest in a player's first nine starts as an Astro, surpassing Hal Brown in 1963.

2024 SEASON

- Did not make a regular-season appearance at the minor league or Major League level due to a left shoulder injury.
- Was designated for assignment by the Red Sox on July 30 and released on Aug. 2...signed a minor league contract with Houston on Aug. 16.

2025 SEASON REVIEW

CHASE THE FIGHT

2025 CLUB NOTES

IN THE STANDINGS: The Astros finished their season in second place in the AL West with a 87-75 record, trailing the Mariners by 3.0 games...in the postseason standings, the Astros had the same record as the final Wild Card winner, the Tigers, but did not qualify for the postseason after losing the season series to Detroit...the Astros 87 wins were the most by any non-playoff team in 2025.

RECORD RUN ENDS: Prior to the ending of the 2025 season, the Astros had made the postseason in eight consecutive seasons (2017-24), which is the fourth-longest streak in Major League history.

Most Consecutive Playoff Appearances

1. Braves - 14 (1991-2005)
T2. Dodgers - 13 (2013-25, current)
T2. Yankees - 13 (1995-2007)
4. Astros - 8 (2017-24)

Postseason Success: From 2017-24, the Astros were 59-40 (.596) in their 99 postseason games, giving them the most postseason games and wins in the Majors in that span...among AL clubs, the Yankees, at 29-29, have the second-most postseason wins in that span.

MEANINGFUL BASEBALL: The Astros were eliminated from Postseason contention in the middle of their 161st game when the Guardians picked up a walkoff win...this made game 162 just the fourth day since the start of the 2015 season that the Astros began play while not in contention for a Postseason berth...the other three came at the end of the 2016 season (3-game series at LAA, Sept. 30-Oct. 2).

25 YEARS DOWNTOWN: The Astros downtown ballpark in Houston, TX, was renamed Daikin Park (pronounced dye-kin) just prior to the 2025 season...while the name is new, the ballpark itself celebrated its 25th anniversary this season.

MEASURING UP: The Astros played .500 against top teams this year, going a combined 14-14 vs. clubs that finished in first place in their divisions: 4-2 vs. TOR, 3-0 vs. PHI, 3-0 vs. LAD, 1-2 vs. MIL, 2-4 vs. CLE, 5-8 vs. SEA.

CLOSE CALLS: The Astros finished the season 12 games over .500 thanks in part to their record in one-run games, which was 27-17 (.614), the second-best record in one-run games by any Major League team (DET, 21-12, .636)...Houston also went 17-15 in two-run games and 8-7 in extra-innings.

FACING LEFTIES: The Astros went 19-14 in games started by an opponent left-handed pitcher...the club has the second-fewest plate appearances vs. lefties (1,310) among any MLB team, trailing only the Angels (1,145).

HOME BOYS: The Astros went 46-35 at home, their same home record that they had in 2024...the Astros enjoyed their time at home in June, winning nine games in a row from June 11-27, which tied their third-longest home win streak in stadium history.

ROAD WARRIORS: The Astros went 41-40 on the road, giving them a winning road record for the fifth consecutive season...since 2021, the Astros are a combined 229-175 (.567) on the road, which is tops in the AL.

Best Road Record Since 2021 (AL)

1. Astros: 229-175 (.567)
2. Yankees: 222-183 (.548)
3. Blue Jays: 210-196 (.517)

IN INTERLEAGUE PLAY: The Astros finished Interleague play at 31-17 (.646), which tied as the best Interleague record in the Majors this season, along with the Phillies...the Astros 31 Interleague wins matched an MLB record and are a franchise record, topping the club's 28 Interleague wins in 2023.

THE BOYS OF SUMMER: The Astros had their best month of the season in June, going 19-7 in the month, which was the best winning percentage in June among all Major League teams...this marked the Astros first 19-win month since they also won 19 in July of 2022.

BATTLE FOR THE BOOT: The Astros went 7-6 vs. the Rangers in 2025, which marks the ninth consecutive year (2017-25) for the Astros to win this season series...the Astros are 93-51 vs. the Rangers since 2017 and are remarkably knotted up all-time against the Rangers at 146-146.

Astros MVP: Jeremy Peña
Astros Pitcher of the Year: Hunter Brown
Astros Rookie of the Year: Cam Smith
Darryl Kile Good Guy Award: Josh Hader
Fred Hartman Long and Meritorious Service to Baseball Award: Alex Treviño

ALL-STROS GAME: The Astros had four players selected to the All-Star Game in RHP Hunter Brown, LHP Josh Hader, 3B Isaac Paredes and SS Jeremy Peña...the Astros have now had three or more All-Star selections every season since 2017...their 37 All-Star selections since 2017 are more than any other AL club in that span.

PITCHING IN: Astros pitchers led the AL in strikeouts (1,504), finishing just one strikeout shy of the Major League leading Dodgers (1,505)...the Astros also ranked second in the AL in opponent OBP (.303), third in opponent average (.232) and third in hits per 9.0 (7.85).

K'S TO SUCCESS: Since 2017, the Astros have led the AL in strikeouts five times (2017-19, 2022, 2025), accruing 12,900 K's over that span, which are by far the most in the Majors...the 2018 Astros (1,687) and 2019 Astros (1,671) have the two highest strikeout totals in ML history.

LEAVE 'EM STRANDED: Astros pitchers allowed just 26.6% of inherited runners to score, the lowest percentage in Major League Baseball...LHP Bryan King stranded 23 of 24 inherited runners, while RHP Kaleb Ort stranded 19 of 22.

ALL HANDS ON DECK: Twenty-three different Astros pitchers earned a win this season, which is a club record, topping the previous record of 21 different pitchers with a win in 2021...also, the team used 15 different starters in 2025, which is the second-most in club history, trailing only the 1965 Astros (17).

TOSSING ZEROS: Astros pitchers tossed 12 shutouts this season, which ranked fourth in the AL...among these included back-to-back shutouts on June 24-25 vs. PHI, which was part of a season-long 25.0 inning scoreless streak posted by the Astros pitching staff... the streak marked their longest since recording 26.0 consecutive scoreless innings from Sept. 18-21, 2022.

PENDING FREE AGENTS: The Astros have four players set to reach free agency this offseason, including C Victor Caratini, RHP Craig Kimbrel, IF Brendan Rodgers and LHP Framber Valdez...these players will become free agents the day after the World Series ends and will be eligible to sign with any club five days after the World Series.

JUNE PITCHERS OF THE MONTH: The Astros had a pair of players take home monthly awards this season with RHP Hunter Brown and LHP Josh Hader being named the AL Pitcher of the Month and AL Reliever of the Month for June...Brown is a first-time winner of this award while Hader has now won it eight times, which is the second-most ever behind RHP Edwin Díaz (nine times).

THE DIESEL: All-Star RHP Hunter Brown has positioned himself as a top Cy Young candidate in the AL, ranking in the top three in the league in ERA, quality starts, opponent OPS (.589), hits per 9.0 (6.46), and strikeouts...AL rankings below:

ERA	Strikeouts
1. T. Skubal: 2.21	1. G. Crochet: 255
2. H. Brown: 2.43	2. T. Skubal: 241
3. G. Crochet: 2.59	3. H. Brown: 206

REACHING 200: RHP Hunter Brown finished his season with 206 strikeouts, making him the 18th pitcher in club history to reach 200 strikeouts in a season...he's the first Astros hurler to reach 206 strikeouts in a season since both RHP Gerrit Cole (326) and RHP Justin Verlander (300) accomplished the feat in 2019.

2025 CLUB NOTES

AMONG THE FRANCHISE BEST: RHP Hunter Brown posted a 2.43 ERA, which ranks 10th all-time among Astros starters and is the second-lowest by an Astros starter in the last 20 seasons (since 2005), topped only in that span by RHP Justin Verlander, who had a 1.75 ERA in his Cy Young-winning 2022 season.

Astros Lowest ERA - Single Season

1. Ryan: 1.69 (1981)	T6. M. Cuellar: 2.22 (1966)
2. Verlander: 1.75 (2022)	T6. M. Scott: 2.22 (1986)

FRAMBULOUS: LHP Framber Valdez went 13-11 with a 3.66 ERA in 31 starts, ranking tied for fifth among AL starters in quality starts (20) and sixth in innings pitched with a club-best 192.0...since 2020, Valdez ranks tied for first among all pitchers in wins with 73 while posting a 3.23 ERA in 154 appearances (153 GS).

OPENING DAY FRAMBER: LHP Framber Valdez became the first lefty in franchise history to make four straight Opening Day starts and is the first Astros pitcher to do so since RHP Roy Oswalt started eight straight Opening Days from 2003-10...Valdez and the Giants RHP Logan Webb are the only Major League pitchers to start every Opening Day for the same club in each of the last four seasons (2022-25).

FRAMBER'S STREAKS: LHP Framber Valdez won a career-high 10 consecutive decisions over a 14-start stretch from May 7-July 22, which tied as the second-longest winning streak in the Majors this season...the streak was also the longest by an Astro since RHP Gerrit Cole set the club record with 16 consecutive winning decisions in 2019...in addition to his personal winning streak, the Astros also won 13 straight starts by Valdez, which ties the club record, also set by Cole within that same streak in 2019.

LEFTY LIST: LHP Framber Valdez picked up 13 wins this season, running his total up to 81 career wins as an Astro...he ranks second among left-handed pitchers in franchise history in wins...that all time list:

WINS BY LHP IN ASTROS HISTORY

1. Bob Knepper: 93-100	T4. Mike Hampton: 76-50
2. F. Valdez: 81-52	T4. Dallas Keuchel: 76-63
3. W. Rodriguez: 80-84	6. Jim Deshaies: 61-59

REACHING 1,000: LHP Framber Valdez went over 1,000 career strikeouts during the season and ended his year with 1,053 career strikeouts...he is just the 10th pitcher in Astros history to record 1,000 strikeouts with the club...Valdez immediately trails LHP Wandy Rodriguez (1,093) on the Astros all-time strikeout list.

ALEXANDER THE GREAT: RHP Jason Alexander, a waiver claim from the A's on May 18 of this season, made 14 appearances (13 starts) as an Astro, going 4-2 with a save and a 3.66 ERA (29ER/71.1IP)...the Astros went 10-3 in his 13 starts...in five starts in August, he went 3-0 with a 2.17 ERA (7ER/29IP), which ranked fifth among AL starters in the month (min. 25IP).

YOU'RE MY BOY BLUE!: Rookie RHP AJ Blubaugh had a great debut season, going 3-1 with a 1.69 ERA (6ER/32IP) in 11 games, including three starts...Blubaugh went scoreless over his final eight appearances, running his scoreless streak up to 21.0 innings, which ranked as the second-longest scoreless streak by an Astro in 2025 and the longest by an Astros rookie since RHP Alberto Arias posted a 21.1-inning scoreless streak in 2009.

LANCE'S RETURN: After missing the entire 2023 and 2024 seasons due to a right flexor tendon injury, RHP Lance McCullers Jr. returned to a Major League mound by tossing 3.2 scoreless innings with four strikeouts in a start on May 4 at CWS...it marked McCullers Jr.'s first MLB appearance since Game 3 of the 2022 World Series, a span of 915 days between appearances.

LOCKING IT DOWN: In his second year with the club, LHP Josh Hader had a dominant season, going 6-2 with 28 saves in 29 chances, while posting a 2.05 ERA (12ER/52.2IP) and 76 strikeouts in 52.2 innings pitched...he converted his first 25 save opportunities to open the season, setting the Astros record for most consecutive converted save opportunities to begin a season...the record was previously held by RHP Dave Smith, who converted 21 consecutive save opportunities to open the 1989 season.

HADER NAMED CLEMENTE NOMINEE: Josh Hader was named the Astros 2025 nominee for the Roberto Clemente Award presented by Capital One, baseball's most prestigious individual honor for Major Leaguers...the Roberto Clemente Award is the annual recognition of a Major League player who best represents the game of Baseball through extraordinary character, community involvement, philanthropy and positive contributions, both on and off the field.

THE 100 CLUB: RHP Bryan Abreu ranked second among MLB relievers in strikeouts (105), which gave him his third straight 100-strikeout season...he joined RHP Brad Lidge (2004-06) as the only relievers in club history to record this feat and is the first MLB reliever to do so since RHP Dellin Betances (2014-18).

THE BRYAN KING: LHP Bryan King had a great season, posting a 2.78 ERA (21ER/68IP) with 27 holds, which ranked fourth in the AL...he stranded 23 of his 24 inherited runners and limited opponents to a .233 average, including a .204 average against right-handed hitters.

ONE OF THE BEST: On Aug. 22, the Astros signed veteran RHP Craig Kimbrel, who turned in a 2.45 ERA (3ER/11IP) in 13 relief appearances down the stretch...Kimbrel finished his season with 1,282 career strikeouts, which ranks fourth among relievers in MLB history...that all-time list is below:

ALL-TIME K'S AS RELIEVER IN MLB HISTORY

3. A. Chapman: 1,331	6. Lee Smith: 1,225

WHIP IT GOOD: LHP Steven Okert, a minor league signing in the offseason, went 3-2 with a save and a 3.01 ERA (24ER/71.2IP) in 68 appearances...among AL relievers, he ranked sixth in WHIP (.090), which also ranked as the 10th-lowest WHIP posted by a qualified reliever in club history.

TRADE WINDS: The Astros made three trades just prior to the trading deadline...below are details on the moves:

- IF Carlos Correa and cash were acquired from the Twins in exchange for minor leaguer LHP Matt Mikulski.
- OF Jesús Sánchez was acquired from the Marlins in exchange for RHP Ryan Gusto, and minor leaguers IF Chase Jaworsky and OF Esmil Valencia.
- IF Ramón Urías and cash were acquired from the Orioles in exchange for minor leaguer RHP Twine Palmer.

250 CLUB: Jose Altuve hit his 250th career homer on Aug. 10 at NYY, making him the 11th player whose primary position is second base to reach 250 career HR...Altuve (255 HR, 325 SB) is just the fourth primary second baseman in MLB history to reach both 250 homers and 250 steals, joining Craig Biggio (291 HR, 414 SB), Joe Morgan (268 HR, 689 SB) and Ryne Sandberg (282 HR, 344 SB).

MILESTONE SEASON: Jose Altuve moved up several leaderboards in Astros history this season, including moving into second all-time in hits, third in extra-base hits and third in games played...Astros rankings below:

Hits	XBH	Games
1. Biggio: 3060	1. Biggio: 1014	1. Biggio: 2850
2. Altuve: 2388	2. Bagwell: 969	2. Bagwell: 2150
3. Bagwell: 2314	3. Altuve: 742	3. Altuve: 1976

DOUBLE DOUBLE: Jose Altuve hit his 450th career double on Aug. 22 at BAL making him the third player in club history to do so, also Craig Biggio (668) and Jeff Bagwell (488)...Altuve, who finished his season with 455 career doubles, ranks third among active players in that category, trailing only Freddie Freeman (547) and Paul Goldschmidt (477).

2025 CLUB NOTES

PUTTING UP NUMBERS: Jose Altuve hit 26 home runs this season, his most homers in a season since 2022 (28 HR)...Altuve also recorded 77 RBI on the season, his most since recording 83 in 2021.

OPENING DAY CORNERSTONE: Jose Altuve, who's under contract for the next four years, made his 13th career Opening Day start, which marks the third-most in club history...only 2B Craig Biggio (19, 1989-2007) and 1B Jeff Bagwell (15, 1991-2005) have more in club history.

LIKE RIDING A BIKE: Yordan Alvarez missed 100 games to injury midseason, but returned on Aug. 26, finishing his season hitting .369 (24x65) in 19 games with three homers and nine RBI while posting a .462 OBP, a .569 SLG and a 1.031 OPS...after that date, he ranked third in the Majors in batting average, third in OBP, and eighth in OPS.

FOUR-MIDABLE: Yordan Alvarez matched his career high with four hits in back-to-back games on Sept. 3-4 vs. NYY...this marked the 15th time in franchise history that a player has had consecutive four-hit games and the first time since OF Kyle Tucker from Sept. 20-21, 2024 vs. LAA.

CARLOS COMES HOME: The Astros made a huge deal at the deadline, re-acquiring franchise great 3B Carlos Correa from the Twins... after the trade, Correa hit .290 (58x200) with six homers, 21 RBI and a .785 OPS...his 58 hits after Aug. 1 led the Astros and ranked tied for fifth in the AL.

THE 200 CLUB: Carlos Correa hit the 200th homer of his career on Sept. 10 at TOR, becoming the fourth active player whose primary position has been shortstop to reach the 200-homer mark...he joined Francisco Lindor, Corey Seager and Trevor Story in that select group.

POWER AND SPEED: For the second season in a row, SS Jeremy Peña reached both 15+ homers and 20 stolen bases...Peña is just the second primary shortstop in club history to reach those two marks in a single season, joining SS Dickie Thon (20 HR, 34 SB), who did so in 1983.

STANDING TALL AT SHORT: Despite missing over a month on the IL (June 28-July 31), SS Jeremy Peña led all AL shortstops in WAR (6.4), which ranked fourth in the AL overall... Peña's .304 batting average ranked fifth in MLB.

LEADOFF LIFT-OFFS: SS Jeremy Peña hit five of the Astros seven leadoff homers this season, a total that ranked tied for fourth in the AL...the Astros franchise has a long tradition of hitting leadoff homers, with their 225 all-time leadoff homers ranking second in the Majors in MLB's expansion era (since 1961)...Craig Biggio (53) is the club's all-time leader, while Jose Altuve (41) and George Springer (39) rank second and third all-time.

LEADING MAN: SS Jeremy Peña moved to the leadoff spot on a consistent basis on April 27 and made 96 starts this season hitting leadoff...Peña hit .317 (126x397) with a .372 OBP in 96 games out of the leadoff spot.

PEÑA'S STREAK: SS Jeremy Peña recorded a career-high 14-game hit streak from April 8-23, which ranked as the longest hitting streak by an Astro this season...his streak was the longest by an Astros player since Mauricio Dubón also had a 14-game streak from June 4-21 of 2024...Peña hit .327 (17x52) during his streak.

HEART & HUSTLE: SS Jeremy Peña was named as the Astros 2025 Heart and Hustle Award winner...this prestigious honor, which is awarded by the Major League Baseball Players Alumni Association (MLBPAA), is presented yearly to players who exemplify a passion for the game and who best embody the values, spirit, and traditions of the game.

ROAD WARRIOR: 1B Christian Walker excelled In his last 18 road games, hitting .338 (26x70) with nine homers and 20 RBI with a .740 SLG and a 1.086 OPS...in 80 road games overall this season, Walker had 19 HR and 54 RBI.

WORKING COUNTS: DH Isaac Paredes led the Astros in pitches per plate appearance (4.43), while ranking third in the Majors in that category (min. 425 PA)...going back to 1988 when pitches began being recorded, Paredes' PPA number was the highest for a single season by an Astro, topping 1B Chris Carter, who saw 4.26 pitches for plate appearance in 2015 (min. 425 PA).

JAKE RAKES ON THE ROAD: OF Jake Meyers did his damage on the road, where he hit .350 (63x180) with an .894 OPS in 53 games...among players with at least 200 PAs on the road, Meyers ranked first in average, edging out Aaron Judge (.340), and second in on-base percentage (.422).

JAKE FROM RAKE FARM: Jake Meyers had one of the best single-game performances in club history on May 3 at CWS, going 4x4 with a double, triple, two home runs and seven RBI in an 8-3 win...highlights on his day are below:

- Tied the club record with 13 total bases (last, Yordan Alvarez - Aug. 28, 2024 at PHI).
- Became the first Astro to tally 13 total bases while batting in the nine-hole...is also the first Astro to record four extra-base hits from the nine-hole.
- Became just the fourth player in MLB history ever to record 13 or more total bases while batting in the nine-hole...Jackie Bradley Jr. has the record with 14 TB while batting ninth (Aug. 15,2015 vs. SEA, 5x6, three doubles, two HR, seven RBI).
- Tied the club record with four extra-base hits in a game, which has now happened six times (last, Alex Bregman on Aug. 18, 2022 at CWS (4x6, two doubles, 2 HR).

CATCHING ON: On the season, Astros catchers combined to hit .286 with 27 homers, 88 RBI and a .795 OPS, which ranked second among backstop combos in the Majors, trailing only the Mariners (.901), who were led by Cal Raleigh...C Yainer Diaz hit 19 of those home runs, which tied the franchise record for a catcher, which is also held by Evan Gattis (19 HR in 2016).

YAINER REACHES 50: C Yainer Diaz hit his 50th career homer this season and finished his year with 59 career homers...Diaz is the fourth primary catcher to hit 50 HR as an Astro, joining Jason Castro, Alan Ashby and Martín Maldonado.

MY SACRIFICE: 2B Ramón Urías ranked second in the AL with 10 sac flies...Urías is the third player in MLB history to record 10+ sac flies and 44-or-fewer RBI in the same year, joining Jack Heidemann (10 SF, 37 RBI), who did so for Cleveland in 1970, and Randy Bush (10 SF, 43 RBI), who did so for Minnesota in 1984.

ELIAS SAYS: RF Jesús Sánchez recorded his second career five-hit game on Aug. 21 at BAL, which came immediately after a 10-game hitless streak...per Elias, prior to Sanchez, C John Roseboro (MIN) was in the record book by snapping a nine-game hitless streak with a five-hit game on April 29, 1968 at BOS.

IT'S A COLE WORLD: OF Zach Cole hit .462 (6x13) with two homers and seven RBI in his first four Major League games after being selected to the Major League roster on Sept. 12...a few notes on his hot start:

- In his MLB debut on Sept. 12 at ATL, Cole homered on the first pitch he saw and finished his night 3x4 with four RBI...he became the fifth Astro to homer in his first ML plate appearance (last, Mark Saccomanno on Sept. 8, 2008 vs. PIT).
- He also set a franchise record for RBI in an MLB debut and matched the club record for hits in an MLB debut.
- In his fourth MLB game on Sept. 15 vs. TEX, Cole went 2x3 with a homer and three RBI...this made him the eighth player in club history to hit two homers within their first four career games (last, Yordan Alvarez, three HR in 2019) and the fourth player in club history to record seven RBI within their first four games.
- Lastly, Cole also became just the second Astros player in club history to have two three-RBI games within their first four career games, joining Tyler White (2016).

MATTHEWS DEBUTS: Houston native and Astros top prospect IF Brice Matthews made his debut this season, appearing in 13 games... Matthews, who the Astros took with the 28th overall pick of the 2023 Draft, is not only a Houston-area native (Atoscocita HS) but also an alumnus of the Astros Youth Academy.

2025 CLUB NOTES

THE BRICE IS RIGHT: Rookie 2B Brice Matthews had a huge series in Arizona from July 21-23, hitting .250 (3x12) with three homers, while collecting eight of the Astros 11 RBI in the series, which resulted in a sweep...a few notes on Mathews' series in the desert:

- On July 21, in his fifth game, Matthews became the second player in club history to record a multi-homer game within their first five career MLB games, joining IF Orlando Miller, who did so in his third career Major League game on July 10, 1994 at CHC.
- He also had five RBI on July 21, becoming the first Astros player to record a five-RBI game within their first five Major League games since C George Bjorkman did so in his third Major League game on July 13, 1983 vs. MON.
- On July 22, Matthews hit a two-run, go-ahead homer in the 8th and turned a game-ending double play in the win.
- On July 23, he picked up a sac fly RBI to give him eight RBI in the series, the most by an Astros rookie in a single series since Yordan Alvarez also had eight RBI in a three-game series from Aug. 9-11, 2019 at BAL.

SELECT COMPANY: RF Cam Smith hit his second and third career home runs in a multi-homer game on April 18 vs. SD...at 22 years and 55 days on that date, Smith ranked as the sixth-youngest Astro to post a multi-homer game, behind only Rusty Staub (20.081), Carlos Correa (20.313), John Mayberry (21.056), Joe Morgan (21.292) and Yordan Alvarez (22.015).

HOT START: SS Jeremy Peña and 3B Isaac Paredes hit back-to-back homers to open the game on June 20 vs. LAA, marking the sixth time in Astros history for this to happen... it was the first time the Astros had done so since Jose Altuve and Peña opened a game with back-to-back homers on July 24, 2022 at SEA.

HOME HOMERS: The Astros hit their 2,500th all-time homer at Daikin Park this season, which fittingly came off the bat of 2B Jose Altuve on July 12 vs. TEX...Lance Berkman (155) and Altuve (150) are the all-time leaders in HR at the venue.

Notable Astros Homers at Daikin Park:

#1	R. Hidalgo on April 7, 2000 vs. PHI
#500	Jose Vizcaino on Sept. 3, 2004 vs. PIT

ASTROS HALL OF FAME PRESENTED BY HOUSTON METHODIST

The Astros Hall of Fame presented by Houston Methodist was established in 2019, and resides in Hall of Fame Alley on the main concourse of Daikin Park in left-center field. The Astros Hall of Fame was created to give Astros fans an opportunity to celebrate and connect with the greatest individuals and moments in Astros franchise history.

The inaugural Astros Hall of Fame class of 2019 featured 16 individuals: the nine Astros with retired numbers, as well as the members of the Astros Walk of Fame located on Texas Ave. outside Daikin Park. Each member of the Astros Hall of Fame has their own custom plaque on display inside Hall of Fame Alley.

In 2025, the Astros celebrated Hall of Fame Weekend by retiring legendary closer Billy Wagner's No. 13 in honor of his induction into the National Baseball Hall of Fame.

CLASS OF 2019

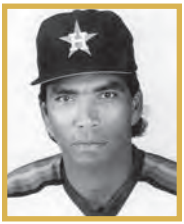
An original member of the Colt .45s franchise, Aspromonte took the first plate appearance in Houston franchise history, as he was the leadoff hitter in the club's inaugural game on April 10, 1962. Aspromonte recorded the first hit, run and stolen base in Houston franchise history, and was an Opening Day starter in all seven of his seasons with Houston. He established a franchise record for grand slams (6), and in 1965 he tallied 14 game-winning hits and a team-high 11 game-winning RBI. Aspromonte also recorded the first regular season homer by an Astros player in the Astrodome on April 24, 1965.

5 • 1B JEFF BAGWELL (1991–2005)
CLASS OF 2019

One of three players inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame as a member of the Astros, Bagwell played his entire 15-year career with Houston, leading the club to six playoff appearances, four division titles and a National League Pennant (2005). He became the first player in Astros history to be named MVP of his league (1994), and was the first Astros player to win Rookie of the Year (1991). The franchise leader in homers (449), walks (1401) and RBI (1529), Bagwell was also an elite defensive player, winning a Gold Glove Award in 1994. He is the only first baseman in MLB history to record 200 steals and 400 homers.

7 • 2B CRAIG BIGGIO (1988–2007)
CLASS OF 2019

The first player to be inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame as a member of the Astros, Craig Biggio played all 20 of his Major League seasons with the Astros. He is the only player in Astros history to reach 3,000 total hits, and is the MLB modern-day all-time leader in hit by pitches (285) and ranks third all-time in leadoff home runs (53). Biggio was named to seven All-Star teams, won five Silver Slugger Awards and four Gold Gloves. Biggio impacted the community off the field as well with his lifelong dedication to the Sunshine Kids organization, and in 2007 he won MLB's Roberto Clemente Award for his efforts in the community.



25 • LF JOSE CRUZ (1975–87)
CLASS OF 2019

Jose "Cheo" Cruz played 19 total seasons in the Majors, including 13 seasons with the Astros where he was a fan favorite. Cruz played in 1,870 games with the Astros, batting .292 with 335 doubles, a franchise-record 80 triples, 138 home runs, 942 RBI and 288 stolen bases. Cruz was a two-time All-Star and two-time Silver Slugger Award winner with Houston. In 1980, he finished third in the NL MVP voting and led Houston to its first-ever division title and postseason berth. Cruz spent 13 seasons as the Astros Major League first base coach and over a decade in the front office.

49 • RHP LARRY DIERKER (1964–76)
CLASS OF 2019

In addition to pitching 13 seasons in the Majors with Houston, Larry Dierker impacted the Astros for over 40 years as a broadcaster, front office executive and as one of the greatest managers in franchise history. The franchise-leader in innings pitched, complete games, shutouts and starts, Dierker was a two-time All-Star, posting a 137-117 record and a 3.28 ERA in 345 career games (320 starts) with the Astros. Dierker became the sixth manager in MLB history to lead his club to a division title in his first season, and led the Astros to four division titles in his five seasons. In 1998, Dierker was named the NL Manager of the Year.

CLASS OF 2019

Gene Elston broadcast Major League games in Houston for 25 years as the Voice of the Astros from 1962-86. He was behind the mic for the first game in franchise history on April 10, 1962, when the Colt .45s defeated the Chicago Cubs. Elston was the first play-by-play broadcaster fo the Houston franchise, and a generation of baseball fans received their introductions to both the Astros and MLB by his broadcasts. Elston broadcasted baseball for 47 years, and in 2006 was honored with the Ford C. Frick Award from the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum for his significant and lasting contributions to the game of baseball.

BROADCASTER • MILO HAMILTON (1985–2012)
CLASS OF 2019

Milo Hamilton, the 1992 recipient of the Ford C. Frick Award, broadcast Major League baseball for close to 60 years, including 28 seasons with the Astros. Hamilton was behind the mic for some of the greatest moments in Astros franchise history, including the club's National League pennant run in 2005, Craig Biggio's 3,000th hit, Nolan Ryan's 4,000th strikeout and six postseason appearances. Hamilton was also a tremendous ambassador for the Astros away from the booth, dedicating his time to numerous charitable endeavors and fundraising activities.

8 • 2B JOE MORGAN (1963–71, 1980)
CLASS OF 2019

Before going on to win two NL MVP Awards and two World Series Championships with the Big Red Machine in Cincinnati, Joe Morgan kickstarted a Hall of Fame career with the Houston Colt .45s and Astros from 1963-71. A two-time All-Star with Houston, Morgan finished second in the NL Rookie of the Year Award voting in 1965, winning the Sporting News Rookie of the Year award. Morgan returned to the Astros in 1980 and helped the club reach its first playoff berth and division title in franchise history. Morgan still ranks among the top five Astros all-time in triples (2nd, 63), OBP (3rd, .374) and stolen bases (5th, 219).

36 • RHP JOE NIEKRO (1975–85)
CLASS OF 2019

The Astros all-time franchise leader in career wins with 144, Joe Niekro pitched in 11 seasons with the Astros as part of a 22-year career in the Majors. While the knuckleballer found moderate success prior to joining the Astros, he blossomed into a true ace with Houston. Over a seven-year stretch from 1977-83, Niekro was one of the game's elite pitchers, ranking second in the National League in wins (109), fourth in innings pitched (1,602.2) and ninth in strikeouts (803) over that span. Niekro set a new single-season franchise record for wins in 1979, going 21-11 with a 3.00 ERA while being named to the NL All-Star team.

37 • RHP SHANE REYNOLDS (1992–2001)
CLASS OF 2019

Shane Reynolds led the Astros starting rotation during the final years of the Astrodome and the first years of Daikin Park, helping the Astros reach the playoffs four times in his 11 seasons with the club. An All-Star in 2000, Reynolds went 103-86 with a 3.95 ERA and 1,309 strikeouts in 274 career games (248 starts) in his Astros career. Reynolds led the NL in starts in back-to-back years from 1998- 99, and eclipsed 200.0 innings pitched in three out-of-four seasons from 1996-99. He won 19 games while posting a 3.51 ERA and 209 strikeouts in 1998, propelling the Astros to a second-straight division title.

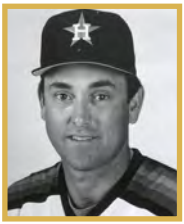
50 • RHP J.R. RICHARD (1971–80)
CLASS OF 2019

J.R. Richard was one of the most imposing pitchers of his era. In 10 seasons with Houston, he went 107-71 with a 3.15 ERA, 76 complete games, 19 shutouts and 1,493 strikeouts in 238 games. Richard won the NL ERA title in 1979 with a 2.71 mark over 38 starts while also setting a new single-season club record for strikeouts with 313. In 1978, he became the first pitcher in franchise history to lead the Majors in strikeouts in a single season (303). Richard's 1,493 strikeouts are the third-most in club history. Richard was named to the NL All-Star team in 1980, but suffered a career-ending stroke on July 30, 1980.



34 • RHP NOLAN RYAN (1980–88)
CLASS OF 2019

Major League Baseball's strikeout king spent nine seasons pitching at the top of Houston's rotation, his most among any of the four teams he played for in a 27-year career. In 282 starts with the Astros, Ryan went 106-94 with a 3.13 ERA, 1,866 strikeouts, 38 complete games and 13 shutouts. The all-time franchise leader in career strikeouts, Ryan also owns the top career ERA in Astros history. A two-time All-Star with Houston, he led the NL in both ERA (2.76) and strikeouts (270) as a 40-year-old in 1987. In 1980, his first year with Houston, he helped pitch the club to their first National League West Division title.

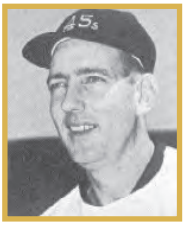
Mike Scott pitched nine seasons with Houston, tallying a 110-81 record with a 3.30 ERA and 1,318 strikeouts in 263 games. He became the first pitcher in MLB history to throw a no-hitter in a clinching situation when he shut down San Francisco, 2-0, to help the Astros wrap up the NL West title on Sept. 25, 1986. Scott won the NL Cy Young Award that season after leading the National League in ERA (2.22), innings pitched (275.1) and strikeouts (306). A three-time All-Star with Houston, Scott became the first player ever to win NLCS MVP honors while pitching for the losing team in 1986.



32 • RHP JIM UMBRICHT (1962–63)
CLASS OF 2019

Jim Umbricht was an original member of the Houston Colt .45s. He opened the 1962 season with the Colts and was one of the top relief pitchers in the NL, posting a 4-0 record with a 2.01 ERA. Umbricht was diagnosed with cancer in 1963, and made a remarkable comeback. Following a cancer operation in mid-March of 1963, Umbricht came back to the Astros and pitched in 35 games, making three starts, posting a 4-3 record with a 2.61 ERA. Umbricht died on April 8, 1964 at the age of 33. His number, 32, was officially retired by the Astros on April 12, 1965.

40 • RHP DON WILSON (1966–74)
CLASS OF 2019

Don Wilson compiled a 103-92 record in nine seasons with the Astros, posting a 3.15 ERA with 78 complete games and 20 shutouts. He was named to the NL All-Star team and named the Astros Team MVP in 1971 after going 16-10 with a 2.45 ERA in 268.0 innings pitched. Wilson is the only pitcher to throw two complete-game no-hitters in a Houston uniform. On July 14, 1968, he established the franchise record for strikeouts in a single game with 18, eight of which were consecutive. He died on January 5, 1975, and his number, 40, was retired by the Astros on April 13, 1975.

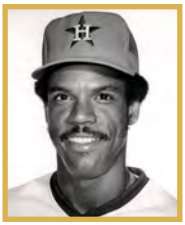
CLASS OF 2019

Jimmy Wynn spent the first 11 years of his 15-year Major League career with Houston, the first two as a member of the Colt .45s. Despite his small frame (5'9"), Wynn boasted enormous power and a strong throwing arm, earning him the nickname "The Toy Cannon". In 11 years with Houston, he hit .255 with 228 doubles, 32 triples, 223 homers, 719 RBI and an .806 OPS in 1,426 games, the majority of which were played in the pitcher-friendly Astrodome. Wynn was named to the 1967 All-Star Team after clubbing 37 home runs with 107 RBI.

17 • 1B LANCE BERKMAN (1999–2010)
CLASS OF 2020

One of the greatest pure hitters in baseball over his 15-year Major League career, Lance Berkman was a five-time All-Star in 12 seasons with Houston, including four seasons in which he finished in the top-five of the National League MVP voting. A first-round pick by the Astros out of Rice University in 1997, Berkman went on to become the Astros all-time leader in career on-base percentage (.410), slugging percentage (.549), and OPS (.959). Berkman, affably known as "Big Puma" during his time in Houston, helped lead the Astros to three playoff appearances, including the club's first appearance in the World Series in 2005.



28 • CÉSAR CEDEÑO (1970–81)
CLASS OF 2020

After bursting into the Major Leagues with a fourth-place finish in the 1970 NL Rookie of the Year voting as a 19-year-old, César Cedeño quickly became one of the top outfielders in baseball and one of the best young players in Major League history. The ultimate five-tool player, Cedeño hit .285 with 199 homers, 436 doubles, 60 triples and 550 stolen bases across his 17-year Major League career, with 12 of his years spent in Houston. In 1972 at age 21, he began a stretch in which he received five consecutive Gold Glove awards (1972-76) while being named to four National League All-Star teams in that five-year stretch.

FOUNDER & OWNER • ROY HOFHEINZ (1962–76)
CLASS OF 2020

One of the founding fathers of the Astros, Judge Roy Hofheinz was the first owner of the Houston franchise. A state legislator at age 22, a Harris County judge at age 24 and the mayor of Houston at age 40, Hofheinz played an instrumental role in getting the Colt .45s to Houston in 1962, and in 1965 renamed the club the Astros to coincide with the opening of the first domed stadium in professional sports history, the iconic Astrodome. Hofheinz revolutionized baseball and the sports industry in many ways, including his decision to utilize an artificial playing surface in 1966 which he dubbed "AstroTurf".

44 • RHP ROY OSWALT (2001–10)
CLASS OF 2020

Roy Oswalt ushered in a new era of Astros baseball as the club's first bona-fide ace to pitch inside their new ballpark in downtown Houston, Daikin Park. After debuting as a rookie in 2001 with a 14-3 record and a 2.73 ERA, good for a runner-up finish in the NL Rookie of the Year voting, Oswalt went on to win 143 games with a 3.24 ERA in 303 games (291 starts) in an Astros uniform. A 23rd-round pick in the 1996 draft out of Holmes Community College in Ridgeland, Miss., Oswalt ranks second in franchise history in career wins, second in strikeouts (1593), third in innings pitched (1932.1) and fifth in ERA.

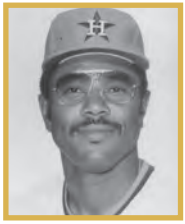
13 • LHP BILLY WAGNER (1995–2003)
CLASS OF 2020

A seven-time All-Star and one of the most dominating closers in Major League history, Billy Wagner spent the first nine years of his standout 16-year MLB career with Houston, posting 225 saves and 694 strikeouts in 464 games with the Astros. Wagner was selected by Houston in the first round of the 1993 draft, and within four years became Houston's shutdown closer at the Major League level. He set an Astros single-season franchise record for saves in 1999 (39 saves), before topping his own club-record mark in 2003 with 44 saves. In 1999, Wagner finished fourth in the NL Cy Young Award race.



27 • 1B BOB WATSON (1966–79)
CLASS OF 2020

Bob Watson spent 14 of his 19 MLB seasons with the Astros, making two All-Star teams while batting .297 with 241 doubles, 139 homers, 782 RBI and an .808 OPS in 1,381 games. He scored MLB's one millionth run on May 4, 1975, and became the first player in MLB history to hit for the cycle in both leagues. Following his playing career, Watson became the second African-American General Manager in Major League history when he was named GM of the Astros in 1994. In 1996, Watson became the first African-American GM to win a World Series when he did so as GM of the New York Yankees.

21 • OF TERRY PUHL (1977–90)
CLASS OF 2022

Longtime Astros outfielder Terry Puhl, who spent the first 14 seasons of his 15-year Major League career in an Astros uniform, is in the top 10 all-time in franchise history in multiple categories, including games played, hits, doubles, triples and runs scored. His 14 seasons as an Astro match Jose Altuve and are topped only by Craig Biggio (20 seasons) and Jeff Bagwell (15 seasons). In addition to his offensive production, Puhl was considered a talented, all-around player that provided strong defense and speed on the basepaths.

CLASS OF 2022

Covering three different stints, Tal Smith spent 35 of his 54 years in Major League Baseball with the Houston Colt .45s/Astros franchise. In that span, Smith played a major role in many different aspects of the organization's growth, development and success, both on and off the field. Among other accomplishments, as a front office executive, he held leadership roles in the construction of both the Astrodome and Daikin Park and in the creation of Astroturf. On the field, he was an architect for both the first Astros team to advance to the postseason and for the first Astros team to play in the World Series.

BROADCASTER • BILL BROWN (1987–2016)
CLASS OF 2023

For 30 seasons, Bill Brown served as the primary television voice of the Astros. His professionalism and knowledge of the game, along with his powerful voice and relentless preparation, made him one of the top play-by-play men of his generation. Over the years, Brown has received many well-deserved honors in his career, including an induction into the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame and an induction into the Astros Media Wall of Honor. He was also honored with the National Sportscasters Association Texas Sportscaster of the Year Award and the Fred Hartman Award for Long and Meritorious Service, which is given out annually by the Houston Chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America.

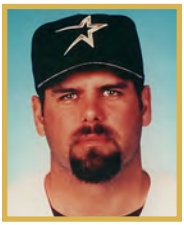
19 • 2B BILL DORAN (1982–1990)
CLASS OF 2023

Bill Doran was a fan favorite among Astros players in the 1980's. He was a tough, hard-nosed player that was admired for both his hustle and ferocity and for his production on the field. As a player, he was one of the top, all-around second basemen in the National League and one of the best at that position in franchise history. During the 1980's, the switch-hitting Doran led all Astros players in runs scored, stolen bases and walks, was second in hits and third in games played. Among all NL second basemen in the 1980's, he ranked first in walks, second in runs scored and fourth in stolen bases. On the Astros all-time franchise lists, Doran ranks in the top 10 in hits, runs, stolen bases, walks, at-bats and triples. Doran was voted as the Team MVP on two occasions (1985, 1987). Defensively, he ranks third in franchise history in assists and fourth in double plays turned.



11 • 3B KEN CAMINITI (1987–94, 1999–2000)
CLASS OF 2024

During his 10 seasons in an Astros uniform, All-Star Ken Caminiti developed a reputation as one of the finest defensive third basemen of his era. While manning the hot corner, he combined range, soft hands and one of the most explosive throwing arms that the game has ever seen. In addition to his physical talent, to his peers, he was known as the "ultimate gamer" and as a great teammate. In franchise history, he ranks second all-time among third basemen in games (1,063), innings (9,043) and assists (1,906) and third in putouts (828). He ranks third among Astros third basemen in career RBI with 546, which ranks 11th all-time in franchise history. Among Astros switch-hitters, he ranks second all-time only to Lance Berkman in several categories, including home runs, RBI and doubles. Caminiti was also a clutch performer in the postseason for the Astros, hitting .471 (8x17) in the 1999 NLDS vs. Atlanta with three home runs and eight RBI while posting a 1.526 OPS.

BROADCASTER • RENE CARDENAS (1961–74, 2007–08)
CLASS OF 2024

René Cárdenas truly was a broadcasting pioneer for both the Colt .45s/Astros organization and for Major League Baseball. In 1958, he became the first full-time Spanish-language broadcaster to call games for a Major League Baseball team, doing so with the Los Angeles Dodgers. In 1961, he was hired by the expansion Houston Colt .45s (now the Houston Astros) to pioneer their Spanish radio broadcasts as both their first broadcaster and as director of Spanish broadcasting. Cárdenas would call Astros games for 14 seasons before returning to Nicaragua in 1975, where he called baseball games on both television and radio. In 2008, he also called several Astros games in Spanish on television for the first time. Additionally, Cárdenas has been a finalist three times for the Cooperstown National Baseball Hall of Fame's Ford C. Frick Award for broadcasting excellence.

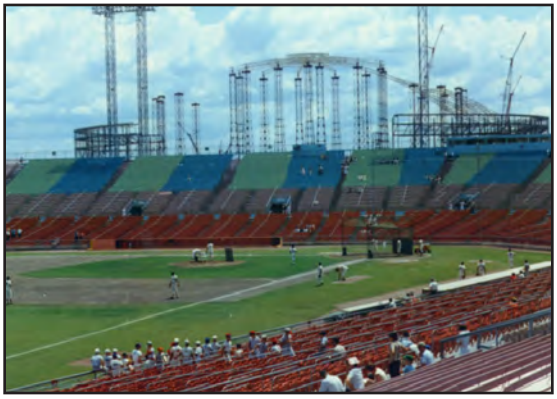
ASTROS STADIUM HISTORY



Colt Stadium served as the home to Houston's first Major League Baseball franchise: the Colt .45s. The outdoor, single-deck facility was constructed as a temporary home until a domed stadium was completed. It was in operation for three seasons, from 1962-1964, and was witness to two no-hitters, both by the Colts: Don Nottebart in 1962 and Ken Johnson in 1963. High heat and humidity moved many games to late afternoon starts and pushed the National League to lift its ban on Sunday night games. It was located in what is now the Astrodome's north parking lot.

By the time the Astrodome opened on April 9, 1965, for an exhibition game between the Houston Astros and New York Yankees, it was already heralded as the "Eighth Wonder of the World." The largest structure of its kind and the world's first multi-purpose domed stadium, the Astrodome came to symbolize the futuristic home of professional sports in America. In honor of Houston's significance to the country's space program, it was appropriately named the Astrodome, and to maintain the theme, the Colt .45s were proudly renamed the Astros. AstroTurf was developed and installed to start the 1966 campaign after natural grass was unsuccessful. It served as the Astros home for 35 seasons.

ASTROS FORD C. FRICK AWARD WINNERS

The Ford C. Frick Award is presented annually by the Baseball Hall of Fame to a broadcaster for "major contributions to baseball." The award, named after the late broadcaster, National League President, Commissioner, and Hall of Famer, has been presented annually since 1978. Frick was a driving force behind the creation of the Hall of Fame in Cooperstown and he helped foster the relationship between radio and the game of baseball.

The Ford C. Frick Award is presented annually during the Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony. Each award recipient (not to be confused with an inductee) is presented with a calligraphy of the award during the Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony and is recognized in the "Scribes & Mikemen" exhibit in the Library of the National Baseball Hall of Fame.

GENE ELSTON (Astros broadcaster from 1962-1986)

Gene Elston's baseball broadcasting career spanned 47 years, primarily as a radio announcer. The 2006 recipient of the Ford C. Frick Award, delivered baseball to a new legion of fans as the lead voice of the expansion Houston Astros for 25 years, from their beginnings as the 1962 Colt .45s, through their 1986 National League West Division championship. While his voice became a beacon to fans in Texas and the Southwest, Elston's broadcasting responsibilities also included numerous national assignments. Elston broke into radio as a high school basketball broadcaster in 1941 in Fort Dodge, Iowa. After serving in the Navy during World War II, he returned to the small midwest stations he knew so well. His break came in 1945 when he handled color commentary for the National Football League's Cleveland Rams. His entry into baseball came in 1946, when Elston was hired to call games for the Waterloo White Hawks of the Three I League. Three years later, he was named play-by-play for Des Moines of the Western League. In 1954 he made the Major Leagues as the number two man for the Chicago Cubs. In 1958, Elston was chosen to work with Bob Feller for Mutual's Game of the Day, which aired over 350 stations across the country, a position he held through 1960. In 1962, as baseball was expanding, he was the first announcer to handle play-by-play duties for the Houston franchise. He went on to work the CBS Radio Game of the Week from 1987-1995 and CBS postseason games from 1995-1997. A Texas Baseball Hall of Fame inductee, Elston also created a unique scorebook, Gene Elston's Stati-Score Baseball Scorebook, and authored two books, including the 2001 release, A Stitch in Time: A Baseball Chronology, 1845-2000.

MILO HAMILTON (Astros broadcaster from 1985-2012)

Milo Hamilton, the 1992 recipient of the Ford C. Frick Award, broadcast Major League baseball for more than 40 years. His big league on-air career included stops with the St. Louis Browns (1953), St. Louis Cardinals (1954), Chicago Cubs (1956-57 and 1980-84), Chicago White Sox (1962-65), Atlanta Braves (1966-75), Pittsburgh Pirates (1976-79), and Houston Astros (1985-2012). It was no coincidence that he was behind the microphone for more historic baseball events than any other announcer. His smooth style appealed to his listeners and his knowledge of the game has earned him the respect of his peers. Among the milestones he broadcast were Hank Aaron's 715th home run, Ernie Banks' fifth grand-slam of the 1955 season, seven no-hitters and Roger Maris' 61st homer (recreated on Western Union ticker). He was also on the Cardinals' broadcast crew when Stan Musial hit his record-breaking fifth home run in a doubleheader and he was doing the play-by-play 18 years later when San Diego's Nate Colbert duplicated Musial's feat. Wherever he has been, Hamilton involved himself in fundraising activities, and over the years he helped raise over $1.5 million for local charities. Born in Fairfield, Iowa, on Sept. 2, 1927, Hamilton graduated from the University of Iowa with a degree in radio speech. Milo shared the broadcast booth with numerous other Frick Award winners, including Jack Brickhouse, Bob Elson, Harry Caray and Jack Buck.

AL HELFER (Astros broadcaster in 1965)

Al Helfer, who was big in stature, big in personality and a big league mainstay in broadcast booths across the country for four decades, was named the 2018 recipient of the Ford C. Frick Award. The burly 6-foot-4 Helfer worked behind a microphone in the Majors for eight different clubs, the Pirates (1933-34), Reds (1935-36), Yankees (1937-38, 1945), Brooklyn Dodgers (1939-41, 1955-57), New York Giants (1945, 1949), Phillies (1958), Colt .45s (1962) and Athletics (1968-69), and gained a national following as a radio broadcaster for Mutual Broadcasting System's Game of the Day in the 1950's. For a five-year period between 1950 and '54, he was traveling to a different ballpark six days a week. A rewarding but exhausting assignment, it was due to this Game of the Day exposure – the broadcasts carried by approximately 400 stations in non-MLB markets and around the world by the Armed Forces Radio Network – which Helfer became one of the nation's best-known baseball broadcasters. It was said that his audience reached 80 million at times. In 1962, Helfer was a member of the Colt .45s original broadcast crew, along with other Astros greats, Gene Elston, Loel Passe and Rene Cardenas.

ASTROS FORD C. FRICK AWARD WINNERS

HARRY KALAS (Astros broadcaster from 1965-1970)

Harry Kalas, longtime announcer for the Philadelphia Phillies, was the 2002 recipient of the Ford C. Frick Award. A native of Naperville, Ill., Kalas graduated from the University of Iowa in 1959 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Speech, Radio, and Television. The affable broadcaster was drafted into the military on graduation day and spent the following two years in Hawaii with the U.S. Army. In 1961, he served as sports director of radio station KGU and also began broadcasting for the Pacific Coast League's Hawaii Islanders as well as the University of Hawaii. An original member of the Astros broadcast team in 1965, he called games for Houston until 1970. In 1971, he moved to the Phillies broadcast booth, where he shared the microphone with Hall of Fame outfielder Richie Ashburn for 26 seasons. Kalas was honored as Pennsylvania Sportscaster of the Year 18 times. He also broadcast Big Five basketball and Notre Dame football. Kalas, revered for his uncanny ability to connect with his listeners, whether on radio or television, called more than 5,000 Phillies games. His passion for the game was unsurpassed, and his powerful, soothing voice was a summertime tradition throughout Pennsylvania, Delaware and New Jersey.

THE HOUSTON BASEBALL MEDIA WALL OF HONOR

Each season, the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor, located on the club level at Daikin Park, inducts a current or former Houston media member who has made significant and lasting contributions to the landscape of Houston baseball through their work in journalism or broadcasting.

ANITA MARTINI (inaugural, 2007 inductee)

The inaugural inductee into the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor was the late Anita Martini, a pioneer in the sports media field. Martini, a native of Galveston, was a pioneer for women in sports journalism. Martini began her career with Houston radio station KTRH during the 1960s and became the nation's first woman sports anchor in the early 1970s, at Houston television station KPRC. In 1974, she challenged Major League Baseball for the right to join her male colleagues in the clubhouse for post-game interviews with the players. Martini won her fight when she interviewed Jimmy Wynn in the Los Angeles Dodgers visiting clubhouse after a game at the Houston Astrodome. By the 1980s, she was hosting one of the first call-in sports shows on Houston AM radio station KPRC. She died of cancer in 1993 at the age of 54. Martini also is an inductee of the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame.

GENE ELSTON (2008 inductee)

Elston broadcast Major League Baseball games in Houston for 25 years as the Voice of the Astros from 1962-1986. He was behind the microphone for the first game in franchise history on April 10, 1962, when the Colt .45s defeated the Chicago Cubs. Elston was the first play-by-play broadcaster for the Houston franchise, and a generation of baseball fans received their introductions to both the Astros and Major League Baseball by his broadcasts. Elston broadcast baseball for 47 years, beginning with Waterloo of the Triple I League in 1947. After nine seasons broadcasting minor league baseball, Elston made his Major League debut with the Chicago Cubs in 1954. He also called the Mutual "Game of the Week" from 1958-60 and the CBS Radio "Game of the Week" from 1987-97. In 2006, Elston was honored with the Ford C. Frick Award from the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum for his significant and lasting contributions to the game of baseball through his work in broadcasting. Among the highlights of Elston's career with the Astros included calling eight of the team's no-hitters, two Astros NL Western Division Championships (1980, 1986), and Nolan Ryan breaking Walter Johnson's all-time strikeout record in 1983. He was inducted in the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame in 1993.

NEIL HOHLFELD (2009 inductee)

Hohlfeld covered the Houston Astros as the beat writer for the Houston Chronicle from 1979 until 1995. He served as president of the Houston chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America in 1993. In 1996, Hohlfeld went on to cover other sports, including Texas A&M athletics and NASCAR, through 2006 before assuming an editing assignment for the Chronicle. In 2007, he returned to his first love as a baseball analyst for FS Houston's pre- and post-game shows. Hohlfeld graduated from the University of Missouri with a Bachelor of Journalism in 1973 and began his career in Hannibal, Mo. He worked for the Chicago Tribune from 1974-79 before joining the Chronicle in 1979. Hohlfeld passed away on July 19, 2008 at the age of 56. He was honored by the Houston chapter of the BBWAA as the recipient of the 2008 Fred Hartman Long and Meritorious Service Award.

MICKEY HERSKOWITZ (2010 inductee)

Herskowitz was one of Houston's original beat writers and columnists, having covered the team since its inception in 1962. He wrote for both the Houston Post and Houston Chronicle. A graduate of the University of Houston, at age 26, Herskowitz became the nation's youngest sports editor of a major newspaper and later received international recognition for his coverage of the terrorist tragedy at the 1972 Munich Olympics. He was the first writer to win national first place awards in three Associated Press categories in one year, 1968. In addition to his journalism career, Herskowitz has authored books on historical figures, such as Gene Autry, Nolan Ryan, Paul "Bear" Bryant and Prescott Bush. He was also the ghostwriter of several autobiographies, including Dan Rather and Mickey Mantle. A former Marine, he has been inducted into the Houston Chamber of Commerce Hall of Fame, and received the national Headliners Award for excellence in sports writing. Herskowitz is also a former executive with the American Football League; a New York magazine editor; an original partner with the Houston Rockets; and a journalism professor at Sam Houston State University. He was inducted into the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame in 1997.

BILL BROWN (2011 inductee)

Bill Brown was the Houston Astros play-by-play announcer for 30 seasons. Brown, also known as "Brownie," was inducted into the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame on Nov. 12, 2004. He joined the Astros in 1987 after working as senior producer and anchor of the Financial News Network's SCORE program. Prior to that assignment, he was the sports director of the Sports Time Cable Network, which televised select Reds, Royals and Cardinals games. He spent one year with HSE in Pittsburgh and was the television voice of the Cincinnati Reds from 1976-82. Brown, who began his broadcast career on radio at 18 years old, graduated from the University of Missouri in 1969 and became a U.S. Army broadcast specialist, working as a sportscaster for the Armed Forces Vietnam Network in Saigon from 1970-71. After leaving the service in 1971, Brown completed one semester of graduate school at Central Missouri State College in 1971 and then earned a job at WLWT-TV in Cincinnati. Brown has broadcast for two teams in the World Series, the 1976 Reds and the 2005 Astros. He also called Craig Biggio's historic 3,000th hit in 2007, as well as many other memorable moments during both his Astros broadcasting tenure and overall broadcasting career.

MILO HAMILTON (2012 inductee)

Hall of Fame broadcaster Milo Hamilton spent a total of 59 seasons broadcasting Major League Baseball, which ranked as the second-longest broadcasting career in the game's history. A member of the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame, Hamilton has also been recognized by the National Baseball Hall of Fame, having won the Ford C. Frick Award in 1992. As an Astros broadcaster, he called many of the greatest moments in franchise history, including Nolan Ryan's 4,000th strikeout in 1985, the final out of Mike Scott's dramatic, division-clinching no-hitter in 1986, the Astros historic, six-pitcher, combined no-hitter at Yankee Stadium in 2003, the Astros 2005 Game 6 NLCS clincher, and Craig Biggio's 3,000th hit in 2007. Prior to joining Houston, Hamilton had already established himself as a top broadcaster in the game, having called Hank Aaron's historic 715th home run on April 8, 1974. His career accomplishments also include calling games at 59 Major League ballparks, being behind the mic for 11 no-hitters and broadcasting for the Pirates during their 1979 World Series championship season. At the conclusion of the 2012 campaign, he retired from his position as "The Voice of the Astros", having established himself as one of the all-time great broadcasters in Major League Baseball history.

RENÉ CÁRDENAS (2013 inductee)

Cárdenas, a native of Managua, Nicaragua, started his professional baseball broadcast career with the Los Angeles Dodgers in 1958, becoming one of the first members of a Spanish radio broadcast team in the history of Major League Baseball. In the coming years, Cárdenas further made history as a pioneer, as he and his team became the first Spanish radio broadcast team to call a World Series (1959) and an All-Star Game (1961). Cárdenas was brought into the Houston organization by Judge Roy Hofheinz in 1962 as the Director of the Spanish Division for the Colt .45's, and stayed with the Astros through 1975. He also spent time with the Texas Rangers organization, where he started their very first Spanish radio broadcast. Following his time in Arlington, Cárdenas returned to LA where he did Spanish radio and TV broadcasts for the Dodgers in the 1980s. Cárdenas returned to Houston in 2000 where he began writing for the club. He returned to Spanish radio broadcast in 2007 and in 2008, became a television broadcaster for the team. Among his many honors are a place in both the Texas Rangers and former Los Angeles Dodgers Walks of Fame, and three nominations for the Ford C. Frick award in 1993, 2010 and 2011. Cárdenas was inducted into the Astros Hall of Fame in 2024.

ALEX TREVINO (2014 inductee)

Alex Treviño became a distinguished member of the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor on Thursday, Sept. 18, 2014, in what was his 19th year in the Astros Spanish radio booth. He joined the broadcast team in 1996 and has called over 3,000 Astros games and six postseason appearances, including the 2005 World Series run. His 30 seasons in the broadcast booth are the most in franchise history by a Spanish broadcaster. Prior to joining the broadcast staff, Treviño spent 13 seasons in the Majors, primarily as a catcher, including the 1988-90 seasons with the Astros. He also spent time with the Mets, Reds, Braves, Giants and Dodgers in his Major League career. Treviño finished his playing career in the Mexican League, playing three seasons (1993-95) in his hometown of Monterrey, Mexico. Treviño was a member of the 1972 Pony League World Series championship team, which hailed from Monterrey. He later would become one of 13 Mexican-born players to play for the Astros, and was inducted into the Hispanic Heritage Baseball Museum Hall of Fame in 2003.

HARRY SHATTUCK (2015 inductee)

Long-time sportswriter for the Houston Chronicle, Harry Shattuck, was inducted into the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor on Sept. 23, 2015. Shattuck covered the Astros beat for the Houston Chronicle for several seasons. Shattuck worked in the newspaper business for the Houston Chronicle for parts of four decades from 1970-2009. He began covering the Astros in 1970 and served as the Chronicle's beat writer from 1972-1985. He moved on to serve as the Chronicle's national baseball writer (1985-88), the assistant sports editor (1989-93) and the travel editor (1993-09) before his retirement. In his distinguished career, Shattuck covered 14 World Series, was the former chairman of the Houston Chapter of the BBWAA and voted for the Baseball Hall of Fame for over 30 years. While on the Astros beat, Shattuck covered the team during the tumultuous change in team ownership in 1976 and during the Astros 1980's playoff appearances.

MARK BERMAN (2016 inductee)

On Monday, Sept. 26, 2016, long-time sports director at KRIV-TV Mark Berman was inducted into the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor. Berman spent over 30 years at KRIV-TV in Houston, having joined the Houston FOX affiliate in 1986 and being named the station's sports director in 1988. In his role, Berman covered all sports in the Houston area, including professional, collegiate and high school athletics. A leader in his industry, Berman is best known for his relentless work ethic, his professionalism and his accuracy in breaking stories. While a member of the Houston media, Berman covered a host of Astros playoff teams, including, five World Series and the club's "Golden Era" (1980-81, 1986, 1997-99, 2001, 2004-05, 2015, 2017-22). Berman grew up in Hempstead, Texas, and graduated from the University of Houston with a degree in communications.

BOB ALLEN (2017 inductee)

Houston sports anchor and director Bob Allen was inducted into the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor on Sept. 17, 2017. One of the most iconic members of the Houston media market, Allen sadly passed away in October of 2016 after a lengthy battle with cancer. Allen spent 38 years as sports director at ABC13 News (KTRK) after getting named to the post in 1975, making him the longest tenured major market sports anchor in the country. He also spent two years as sports director at KHOU 11 News following his run with KTRK. During his career, Allen covered virtually all of the Astros postseason runs, all five ownership groups in the history of the Houston franchise, the construction and opening of Daikin Park, the Astros first appearance in a World Series and Craig Biggio's 3,000th hit and Hall of Fame selection. A native of Houston, Allen was committed to giving back to his community, as he was an enthusiastic supporter and board member of both the Sunshine Kids organization and the Special Olympics.

KAREN WARREN (2018 inductee)

Longtime Houston Chronicle photojournalist Karen Warren was inducted into the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor on Sept. 14, 2018, becoming the first photojournalist to receive this honor since the award's inception in 2007. With over 20 years as a staff photographer at the Houston Chronicle, Warren has covered some of the best years in the history of the Astros franchise and has become a fixture in the Houston media market. Since joining the Houston Chronicle in 1997, she has shot a multitude of Astros regular season and postseason games, and has traveled to Spring Training in Florida to cover the team for close to 20 seasons. In addition to her coverage of the Astros, Warren has also covered the Houston Texans and Houston Rockets during her time at the Chronicle. Warren began her career in photojournalism at the Austin American-Statesman in 1987, where she spent nine years before joining the St. Louis Post-Dispatch in 1996. She joined the Houston Chronicle staff in 1997. A graduate of the University of Texas at Austin, Warren has shot or edited 14 Super Bowls, two World Series runs, the 2004 NLCS, the 2003 College World Series and the 2010 Little League World Series.

LARRY DIERKER (2019 inductee)

Franchise icon Larry Dierker was inducted into the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor on Sept. 22, 2019, his 73rd birthday and the 55th anniversary of his Major League debut, which came as a 17-year old for the Houston Colt .45s. Dierker debuted with Houston in 1964 and had a remarkable 14-year playing career, including 13 seasons with the Astros (1964-77). After his playing days, Dierker was hired to the club's radio and television broadcast teams in 1979. He worked on both platforms for a total of 20 seasons (1979-96, 2004-05) over two stints in the booth. Dierker has the distinction of moving directly from the broadcast booth to the managerial position, which he did in 1997. He went on to lead the Astros to four playoff appearances (1997-99, 2001) in his five seasons as manager. Since 2005, Dierker has filled a variety of roles with the Astros, including appearances on club broadcasts, writing for team publications and serving as an Astros Community Outreach Executive and as a Special Advisor to the club. In 2019, he was inducted into the Astros Hall of Fame, as a member of the inaugural class.

KEVIN ESCHENFELDER (2020 inductee)

Longtime Houston broadcaster and native Houstonian Kevin Eschenfelder was inducted into the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor on July 24, 2021. He was celebrating his 25th season in 2021 as the Astros pre and postgame host for the then-AT&T SportsNet Southwest. Eschenfelder has over 30 years experience working in the Houston media market, originally getting his start in 1991 at Fox Sports Net, covering all three of Houston's major professional sports teams. He began hosting the Astros and Rockets pre and postgame shows in 1997 for Fox Sports Southwest, before continuing in that role for FS Houston, Comcast SportsNet Houston, AT&T SportsNet SW and Space City Home Network. In addition to his pre and postgame duties for Astros games, Eschenfelder fills in on the Astros television broadcasts as a play-by-play announcer. A graduate of the University of Houston, Eschenfelder has been the radio voice of the University of Houston Football team since 2013.

JAMIE HILDRETH (2022 inductee)

Longtime Astros executive Jamie Hildreth was inducted into the the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honors on October 3rd, 2022. Hildreth last served as the Astros Senior Vice President of Broadcasting and Alumni Relations before sadly passing away in Spring Training of 2017. Hildreth originally joined the Astros in 1987 as the club's Director of Broadcasting and would remain with the Astros for 30 seasons serving in various roles within the organization. Working behind the scenes, rather than in front of the microphone, Hildreth worked alongside longtime Astros broadcasters Alan Ashby, Bill Brown, Jim Deshaies, Larry Dierker, Milo Hamilton, Alex Treviño, Bill Worrell and others. Hildreth also had a hand in the hiring of the current Astros broadcast teams in the television and radio booths. Prior to joining the Astros, Hildreth was already a fixture in the Houston media market after having a successful career in radio, which included stops at KRBE and KTRH in Houston and KTRM/KALO in Beaumont, TX. Hildreth had a highly decorated career, which included winning the 2014 Fred Hartman Award, given annually by the Houston Chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America. Additionally, in 2021, he was inducted into the Texas Radio Hall of Fame. A native Texan, Hildreth was a graduate of the University of Houston, majoring in radio and television.

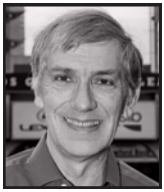
PHIL BOUDREAUX (2023 inductee)



Phil Boudreaux, a staple of Astros baseball for over 40 years, was voted in as the 2023 inductee into the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor. The Astros recognized Boudreaux at Daikin Park in a pregame ceremony during the 2024 season. Boudreaux works behind the scenes as the statistician for Astros telecasts. For nearly every Astros home game in his 40 seasons, Boudreaux has assisted Astros broadcasters, a group that includes the current team of Todd Kalas and Geoff Blum and former broadcasters Bill Brown, Jim Deshaies, Larry Dierker, Milo Hamilton and Gene Elston, to name a few. Boudreaux has worked over 3,000 Astros games for the various television broadcasters over the years and also collaborated with Bill Brown and Mike Acosta on the 2021 book "Houston Astros' Golden Era," which traced the team's history.In addition to joining the telecast in 1982, Boudreaux also served as a sports producer and reporter for KTRH Radio from 1982-89 producing the award winning Sportsbeat show with Jerry Trupiano and John Breen.

ALAN ASHBY (2024 inductee)

Alan Ashby, longtime Astros player and broadcaster, was voted in as the 2024 inductee into the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor. Ashby called 12 seasons of Astros baseball across two stints in the broadcast booth, first on radio (1998-2005) then on television (2013-16). He spent his first eight seasons on radio alongside his on-air partner, Hall of Famer Milo Hamilton. While on radio, Ashby was on air for memorable years in club history, including the Astros 102-win season in 1998, the Astrodome's final season in 1999, and the opening of Daikin Park in 2000. Ashby was also in the booth for the 2004 ALDS and ALCS, which marked the club's first postseason series victory, and the Astros first World Series run in 2005. Overall, he called 38 Astros postseason games on radio. After a six-season stint in the Blue Jays broadcast booth, Ashby returned to Houston in 2013 for the Astros first season as an AL club. He remained on air for the Astros through the 2016 season, calling the Major League debuts of franchise icons George Springer, Carlos Correa, Lance McCullers Jr. and Alex Bregman. Prior to his broadcasting career, Ashby spent 11 of his 17 Major League seasons as a catcher with the Astros from 1979-89. He appeared in 965 games as an Astro and still leads all catchers in franchise history in homers (69), while ranking second in games, hits, runs, doubles and RBI.

BILL WORRELL (2025 inductee)

Bill Worrell had a broadcasting career that spanned over 50 years, which included over 20 years in the Astros television broadcast booth from 1984-2004. During his time on the air, Worrell called five seasons of Nolan Ryan's Astros career (1984-88), while also calling debut seasons for many of the greats in Astros history, including Ken Caminiti (1987), Craig Biggio (1988), Jeff Bagwell (1991), Shane Reynolds (1992), Billy Wagner (1995) and Roy Oswalt (2001), to name a few. He was also on air for the Astros final season in the Astrodome (1999) and the inaugural season at Daikin Park in 2000. During his time in the booth, Worrell worked alongside Astros Hall of Fame broadcasters Milo Hamilton, Bill Brown and Larry Dierker and had strong ties to other members of the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor, including Anita Martini and Jamie Hildreth. A native of Houston and a graduate of the University of Houston, Worrell covered the Astros from 1970-80 while at KPRC Channel 2, where he served as Sports Director from 1974-80. During his time at KPRC, Worrell received six "Best Sportscaster" awards from the United Press International and the Texas Association of Broadcasters. In addition to his time covering baseball, Worrell served as the Houston Rockets lead play-by-play announcer for 40 seasons before retiring following the 2020-2021 campaign.

ASTROS HOME RUNS IN HOUSTON

On May 11, 1998, Jeff Bagwell hit his 98th Astrodome home run off the Marlins' Livan Hernandez to put the first baseman one ahead of outfielder Jimmy Wynn, whose 97 Houston homers were the most by any player in the history of the franchise. Bagwell eventually hit 126 home runs in the Astrodome before the Astros moved to Daikin Park in 2000. Wynn hit 93 of his roundtrippers in the Astrodome and four in Colt Stadium during his 11-year career which lasted from 1963-73. And, speaking of Colt Stadium, the record for Houston homers in that facility stands at 21 by Bob Aspromonte.

ALL-STAR GAME #39 | ASTRODOME, HOUSTON | JULY 9, 1968

The 1968 All-Star Game reflected overpowering pitching. The two leagues combined for only eight hits and just one run, marking the first 1-0 contest in the history of the Midsummer Classic. The lone run – by the National League – was scored in the 1st inning on a single, an error, a wild pitch, and a double play.

Playing for the injured Pete Rose, Willie Mays led off in the bottom of the 1st and singled to left field. In a failed pick-off at first, Luis Tiant's (CLE) throw went wild, advancing Mays to second. Curt Flood (STL) was then walked, and a fourth-ball wild pitch moved Mays to third. First baseman Willie McCovey (SF) grounded into a double play, but Mays took advantage to score the only run of the game.

With the victory, the NL stretched its winning streak to six. The six-man NL pitching staff held the AL to just three hits, as Tom Seaver (NYM) tossed five strikeouts late in the game and Juan Marichal pitched 2.0 perfect innings. Nine pitchers in the game did not allow a single walk.

The game was the first played indoors and on an artificial surface, as many players got their first look at the Astrodome.

1968 ALL-STAR GAME

The 1968 All-Star Game in Houston was the first played indoors and on artificial turf.

ALL-STAR GAME #57 | ASTRODOME, HOUSTON | JULY 15, 1986

Los Angeles left-hander Fernando Valenzuela fanned five consecutive batters to tie Carl Hubbell's 52-year-old All-Star record, but the National League's pitching triumphs weren't enough as the American League recorded the 3-2 victory on two home runs.

The NL pitching staff sat down 12 total batters, but the AL's Roger Clemens (BOS) had a strong night of his own. He tossed 3.0 perfect innings which included just three balls and 21 strikes. The AL bats came through at the same time as second baseman Lou Whitaker (DET) followed a Dave Winfield (NYY) double with a two-run shot off Dwight Gooden (NYM) in the 2nd. In the 7th inning, Frank White (KC) came in to pinch-hit for Whitaker, knocking an 0-2 pitch from Mike Scott (HOU) over the left-center field wall to seal the AL's second All-Star win in the 1980s.

Valenzuela tied the 1934 record for consecutive strikeouts, setting down (in order): Don Mattingly, Cal Ripken, Jesse Barfield, Whitaker, and Ted Higuera.

ALL-STAR GAME #75 | MINUTE MAID PARK, HOUSTON | JULY 13, 2004

The American League displayed its offensive prowess early, scoring six runs in the 1st inning en route to a 9-4 win over the National League in the third All-Star Game played in Houston and the first at Daikin Park.

Astros right-hander Roger Clemens, who also started the 1986 All-Star Game in Houston, allowed six runs and five hits in suffering the loss. Clemens allowed two 1st-inning homers, to Manny Ramirez (BOS) and Alfonso Soriano (TEX). Mark Mulder (OAK) pitched 2.0 innings and allowed one run to earn the win. Soriano was named the game's Most Valuable Player after finishing 2x3 with three RBI. Soriano was the first leading vote-getter to also earn MVP honors in the same season.

The National League cut the lead to 7-4 with a three-run 4th, including an RBI double by Edgar Renteria (STL) and a two-run double by Albert Pujols (STL). David Ortiz' (BOS) homer against Carl Pavano (FLA) in the 6th ended the game's scoring.

The AL pitching staff held the NL scoreless through the final 5.0 innings, thanks to scoreless efforts from Javier Vazquez (NYY), Ted Lilly (TOR), Joe Nathan (MIN), Tom Gordon (NYY), Francisco Rodriguez (ATL), and Mariano Rivera (NYY).

The American League won its seventh consecutive victory, not counting the 2002 tie at Miller Park in Milwaukee. The NL remained winless since 1996.

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS

The Houston Astros utilize MLB's online credentialing system. All media credential requests and applications for coverage of the Houston Astros must go through MLB's online credentialing system at http://credentials.mlb.com. Additionally, all credentials – whether issued by Major League Baseball, the BBWAA, or the Astros – will bear photographs. Scout identification cards will also require photos.

- Houston Astros season credentials will be issued only to those legitimate news-gathering agencies that cover the Astros on a daily basis. Daily passes will be issued to approved media members who do not qualify for season credentials and who meet Major League Baseball's policies for media access. Requests for daily credentials must come directly from the affiliation editor, producer or director, via the online credential system at least 24 hours in advance of the game being requested. CREDENTIALS MUST BE DISPLAYED IN A VISIBLE MANNER AT ALL TIMES.
- ALL credential requests, whether season or daily, must go through MLB's online credential system. This will also be the process for Astros Spring Training, regular season, Wild Card and American League Division Series credential applications.
- Daily credentials will be available at Window 26, located next to the right field gate, four hours prior to first pitch.
- No spouses, guests or children of media members will be issued passes.
- Credentials are not transferable.
- Credentialed media are also prohibited from requesting autographs. Any violations will result in the immediate revocation of the credential.
- Credentials may be revoked at any time without cause.

SECURITY: To comply with security measures implemented by Major League Baseball and the Houston Astros, all media will be required to follow the following procedures upon entering Daikin Park and while covering the game.

When entering Daikin Park, please be prepared to:

- Enter the ballpark at the First Base Entrance, located in the Diamond Lot near the intersection of Preston and Hamilton Streets.
- Provide photo identification.
- Sign in at the media entrance.
- Allow bags to be searched upon entering the ballpark.

While covering the game, please be prepared to:

- Clearly display working credentials at all times.
- Allow bags and equipment cases to be randomly searched if requested by ballpark security officials.
- Observe credential regulations as set forth by Major League Baseball and the Houston Astros. Only those individuals with the proper credentials will be admitted in the clubhouses, on the field and in the press box.

MEDIA SERVICES

PARKING: Working media may park in the B and C lots at Daikin Park with a season credential, BBWAA credential or media identification badge. Entrances to these lots are located on St. Emanuel St., Preston St. and Texas Ave.

MAIN PRESS BOX: The press box and broadcast booths are located on the Club Level behind home plate and are accessible from the press box elevator and the elevator at the First Base Entrance (level C) prior to the opening of gates and after the game. The escalators on the main concourse are available at all times.

MEDIA DINING ROOM: Media dining is located in the press box on the Club Level just behind the broadcast booths. There is a monetary charge per meal. Media dining is open to accredited members of the media only. Spouses/children are not allowed in the media dining room. Credit cards are only accepted.

CLUBHOUSES: Both clubhouses are located on the Service Level and are accessible via the press box elevator. The Astros clubhouse is located on the first base side of the ballpark, while the visiting teams and umpires are on the third base side. Pre- and postgame access rules are determined by Major League Baseball. The Astros clubhouse opens approximately four hours before game time and closes once the team takes the field for batting practice. When the team does not hit outside or under unusual circumstances, the Astros will use their discretion on when to open and close the clubhouse. All times are approximate and subject to change.

General clubhouse rules include:

- Absolutely no autographs or gifts of any kind.
- Do not sit in the player's chairs.
- No still photography in the clubhouse.
- No shooting B-roll inside the clubhouse.
- When shooting video interviews, please make sure it is only of the player at his locker or in front of a wall while he is giving the interview. Players should be shot from the chest up.

FIELD: All media must leave the field 45 minutes prior to the first pitch. No person will be allowed on the field unless that individual has credentials expressly specifying field privileges (i.e., club pass, photo pass).
PHOTOGRAPHERS/PHOTO WELLS: In-game access to photo wells is limited to still photographers and rightsholders broadcasting the game. There are four photo wells, located on either side of both the home and visiting dugouts. All photographers must remain in the photo wells while the game is in progress. Photographers are only permitted to change location between innings. No ball - in play or dead - should be handled by anyone other than a ballboy.
PHOTOGRAPHER WORK ROOM: A photographer work room is located on the Service Level behind home plate.
PRESS CONFERENCE ROOM: The press conference room is located on the Service Level across from the home clubhouse down the first-base side.
NOTES: Game notes, lineup sheets and other pertinent media information will be available near the entrance of the press box on the Club Level two hours prior to first pitch. Box scores, play-by-play sheets and postgame notes will be available in the same area after each game.
MEDIA GUIDES: Media guides are available upon request in the press box from Astros Communications staff members and are available online at MLBPressbox.com.
WI-FI: Wireless Internet access is available in Daikin Park. Contact the Astros Communications department for details.
ASTROS ON THE WEB: The official website of the Houston Astros is Astros.com. The site is updated daily with news, statistics, game notes, feature stories and minor league information. The Major League Baseball website, MLB.com, can also be accessed via Astros.com. The Astros also offer a Spanish website, AstrosDeHouston.com. The site features daily news coverage of the team as well as feature stories from international sports writers.
MLB PRESSBOX: With approved registration, media members gain electronic access to numerous Major League Baseball resources by logging onto MLBPressbox.com (on the official MLB website). Some of the information on this site includes: public relations contacts; daily statistical updates; daily game notes; current and archived press releases; media guides; press kits; credential language and media regulations; and historical information about MLB and its entities. In addition, this site provides media the opportunity to download HD-quality video, hi-resolution logos and information on special events for all 30 clubs, as well as headshots of players, coaches, umpires and select executives. All media covering the Astros should register on the MLB Pressbox site to access these resources.

MAJOR LEAGUE BASEBALL DRESS GUIDELINES

Major League Baseball requests members of the media covering our games to dress in an appropriate and professional manner that reflects their respect for their colleagues, the teams and the players they are covering. Clubhouses, dugouts, press boxes, interview rooms and the playing field are working areas, and MLB expects members of the media to adhere to a business casual dress code. In that regard, media members are requested to adhere to following dress guidelines:

- Flip-flops are not permitted in clubhouses
- Jeans should be clean, neat and presentable (e.g., Ripped jeans should be avoided)
- T-shirts bearing offensive, disrespectful or inappropriate messages are not permitted
- Clothing bearing MLB club logos should not be worn in press areas
- Clothing should be appropriate for a business casual work environment. The following are some non-exclusive examples of apparel that should be avoided:
  - Sheer or see-through clothing
  - Excessively short skirts, dresses or shorts (e.g., Cut more than 3-4 inches above the knee)
  - Tank tops, muscle shirts, one-shouldered or strapless shirts
  - Clothing exposing bare midriffs or visible undergarments

We ask all members of the media to respect these guidelines. MLB will consider appropriate actions in those cases in which the guidelines are violated.

Major League Baseball
Online Audio, Photography and Video Rules

The following are rules established by Major League Baseball regarding the usage of audio, photos and video online during the regular season by non-rightsholders.

1) Any media member credentialed to cover a Major League game must notify and receive permission from the host club or Major League Baseball that he/she intends to post audio or video content online.

2) The gathering of audio and video content in clubhouses pre-game and post-game is subject to the host club rules regarding electronic media access.

3) The manager's pre-game media availability may not be carried live and audio and video postings may be no longer than 120 seconds.

4) One-on-one interviews that are posted online with players, team personnel and baseball officials must be pre-arranged, can be posted for a maximum of 72 hours, must be no longer than 120 seconds long and cannot include any game highlights.

5) Any video captured within the ballpark, excluding press conferences, must be limited to 120 seconds and cannot be carried live.

6) No live or taped audio or video is permitted to be captured by any entities other than rightsholders from 45 minutes prior to game time until the game has concluded.

7) The post-game manager's press conference may be captured via video and audio and posted online but may not be carried live. This specific content may be archived for 72 hours.

8) Entities credentialed for photography may transmit on-line or display up to seven still pictures or photographs of any Game during its progress; provided, however, that under no circumstances may Bearer display any more than seven still pictures or photographs of any Game during its progress regardless of whether Bearer obtained such pictures or photographs at the Game.

THE ASTROS TELEVISION BROADCAST TEAM

TODD KALAS

TELEVISION PLAY-BY-PLAY BROADCASTER

- The 2026 season marks Todd Kalas' 34th year as an MLB broadcaster and 10th as the Astros play-by-play voice on television. The Astros have advanced to the postseason in eight of Todd's nine seasons with the club.
- Kalas has won five Lone Star Emmys for his work on Astros telecasts.
- Todd is the son of Hall of Famer and former Astros broadcaster Harry Kalas.
- Prior to joining the Astros in 2017, Todd spent the previous 19 seasons (1998-2016) as part of the Tampa Bay Rays TV broadcast team. While his primary duties for the Rays were as pre- and postgame host and in-game reporter, Todd also handled play-by-play duties for hundreds of Rays games on both television and radio during his time there.
- Known for his distinctive voice and personality, Todd grew to be a popular figure with Rays fans as a result of his work on the broadcasts and was a three-time Suncoast Emmy award winner. Prior to joining the Rays, Todd worked with the New York Mets radio (1992-93) and Philadelphia Phillies television (1994-96) broadcast teams.
- A native Houstonian, Todd was born at St. Luke's Episcopal Hospital in Houston while his father, Harry, served as an Astros broadcaster from 1965-70. Harry would later call Phillies games from 1971-2009 en route to a Hall of Fame career. When the Phillies and Rays met in the 2008 World Series, Todd and his father called an inning together on radio during Game One of the Fall Classic.
- Todd graduated with a degree in broadcast journalism from Syracuse University, and began his baseball career with the Louisville Redbirds in 1991.
- In past years, Todd has called college football, basketball and baseball games and has been a studio host for NHL and NBA teams.
- Todd and his wife, Michele, reside in Houston.

GEOFF BLUM

TELEVISION COLOR BROADCASTER

- Geoff Blum returns for his 14th season with the Astros TV broadcast team in 2026, which will be his 10th as the everyday color analyst for Astros telecasts. Geoff, who retired after 14 Major League seasons as an infielder (1999-2012), made the transition from the playing field to the broadcast booth in 2013.
- Geoff has won five Lone Star Emmys for his work on Astros broadcasts.
- During his playing career, Geoff had two stints with the Astros, totaling five seasons in Houston (2002-03, 2008-10). Over the course of his tenure with the Astros, Geoff hit .259 with 228 RBI, 46 homers, 77 doubles and a .711 OPS.
- A switch-hitter, Geoff was known as one of the top pinch-hitters and utility players in baseball, appearing at all four infield positions in nine straight years (2000-08). He appeared in the postseason three times in his career (2005-06, 2011).
- Geoff was originally drafted by the Montreal Expos in the 1994 June Draft. Prior to his professional career, Geoff was a standout at the University of California, Berkeley. He also played a season in the Cape Cod League.
- Geoff and his wife, Kory, have four daughters: Mia Lea and triplets Ava, Audrey and Kayla.

JULIA MORALES

TELEVISION SIDELINE REPORTER

- Julia Morales returns for her 14th season as the Astros TV sideline reporter. As a reporter and anchor for Space City Home Network, Julia serves as the primary in-game reporter on Houston Astros telecasts. She has five Lone Star Emmys for her work covering the Astros.
- Before moving to Houston, Julia worked as a sports reporter for Time Warner Cable News, formerly YNN in Austin, covering a wide range of events, including the Super Bowl, NBA Finals, World Series, and the College Baseball WS.
- Prior to joining the Time Warner Cable sports crew, Julia was the weekend sports anchor/reporter for KYTX-TV in Tyler, TX. Julia began her television career at KTEN-TV in Denison, Texas.
- A native of Crandall, TX, Julia spent two years as a "World Famous Kilgore College Rangerette" before graduating from UT Austin, where she was a member of Texas Pom for the Longhorns' 2005 National Championship season.
- Julia and husband Matt are the parents to their five-year-old daughter Valerie Rose.
- Julia is extremely passionate about animals and served on the Advisory Board for Houston Pets Alive!, a no-kill animal rescue.

THE ASTROS RADIO BROADCAST TEAM

RADIO PLAY-BY-PLAY BROADCASTER

- Robert Ford was named to the Astros radio broadcast team to work alongside Steve Sparks as the play-by-play commentator on Feb. 13, 2013. He enters his 14th season as the radio voice of the Astros. In their 13 seasons, the duo of Robert and Steve have called nine postseasons, including seven ALCS and four World Series.
- In 2025, he was inducted into the Frontier League Hall of Fame. He was also named the 2022 Texas Sportscaster of the Year, during the 2022 offseason.
- Prior to joining the Astros, Robert had served as the radio pre- and postgame host for Kansas City Royals games on 610 AM KCSP, the Royals flagship station, since 2009.
- Robert has seven years of experience broadcasting minor league baseball, having called more than 800 games during stints with the Binghamton Mets, Kalamazoo Kings and Yakima Bears. In that span, Robert was twice named Frontier League Broadcaster of the Year (2003 and 2004). The Frontier League's Broadcaster of the Year is named after Robert. He also has extensive play-by-play experience in college basketball, including calling games for ESPN in recent years.
- Robert is a 2001 graduate of Syracuse University, where he earned a bachelor's degree in broadcast journalism.
- Robert has twice been a finalist for the Esurance MLB Award for "Best Call, TV/Radio," including in 2017 for his call of Alex Bregman's walk-off RBI single in Game 5 of the World Series.
- Robert lives in Houston. He has one daughter, Elena.

STEVE SPARKS

RADIO BROADCASTER

- Steve Sparks was named to the Astros radio broadcast team to work alongside Robert Ford as the color commentator on Feb. 13, 2013. He enters his 14th season on the Astros radio broadcast.
- Since 2015, Steve and partner Robert have called seven ALCS' and four World Series.
- A knuckleballer in his playing days, Steve pitched in the Major Leagues in parts of nine seasons (1995-2004) for the Brewers, Angels, Tigers, A's and Diamondbacks. His best season was in 2001 while with Detroit when he went 14-9 in 35 appearances (33 starts) with a 3.65 ERA while leading the Majors in complete games with eight. He also tallied a career high in innings pitched (232.0) that season.
- Steve attended Sam Houston State University, where he helped lead the Bearkats to back-to-back Gulf Star Conference baseball titles and an NCAA Division II Regional playoff appearance in 1986 and again in the school's first year at the Division I level in 1987. On Nov. 3, 2017, Steve was inducted into the Sam Houston Letterman's Association Hall of Honor.

MATT BOLTZ

RADIO BROADCAST ENGINEER

- Matt Boltz enters his 12th season with the Houston Astros and his 26th overall in Major League Baseball.
- Matt is the Radio Broadcast Engineer & Producer for the Astros Radio Network. He generates, maintains and produces all live audio for the entire Spring Training, regular season & postseason schedule.
- In the 2020 pandemic season, Matt started an entertaining Astros podcast, that featured current and former players as guests, with Astros broadcasters serving as hosts.
- Matt also orchestrates all broadcast material, live commercial inventory, promotions and live interviews with the broadcasters, the front office, the radio flagship and the entire radio network.
- His offseason duties include editing and archiving all recorded sound, managing and servicing technical elements and assisting with network affiliate relations. Matt also engineers and produces Astroline, which has been on the air since 1988.
- Prior to joining the Astros, Matt served as the Radio Producer Engineer for the Chicago Cubs Radio Network from 2001-2014. During that time, he also engineered game broadcasts for WGN Chicago and Northwestern Wildcats basketball and football programs.
- Matt resides in Pearland, Texas, with his wife, Melissa, and their two children: Emma Lucille and Theodore Matthew.

THE ASTROS SPANISH RADIO BROADCAST TEAM

FRANCISCO ROMERO

SPANISH RADIO BROADCASTER

- Francisco Romero enters his 19th season of play-by-play on the Astros Spanish radio network and has called over 2,000 games in his career, including eight no-hitters and a perfect game.
- Francisco and partner Alex Treviño are one of the longest-tenured broadcast duos in the Majors. The two have been a team since 2008.
- Prior to coming to Houston, he spent five seasons broadcasting Milwaukee Brewers games in Spanish on Telemundo Wisconsin. His MLB broadcasting experience also includes selected Minnesota Twins games over five seasons (2003-08).
- His Major League broadcast debut was for the Arizona Diamondbacks on Telemundo Arizona in 1999, and he spent two years on Diamondbacks broadcasts from 1999-2000.
- Other Major League broadcasting experience includes select games on Spanish Radio with the Cincinnati Reds in 2005. Francisco also spent four seasons as the play-by-play broadcaster and pre and postgame show producer on Spanish radio broadcasts for the Triple A Tucson Sidewinders of the Pacific Coast League.
- Additional sports broadcasting experience includes both football and basketball for the University of Arizona Spanish Radio Network (1999-2021), as well as three seasons on the Arizona Cardinals radio halftime report.
- Francisco and Alex also currently produce a series of webisodes for the Astros Spanish social media channels (Contacto con Los Astros).
- Francisco has been part of three Spanish broadcast effort debuts (Brewers, Reds and Royals) and is the only Spanish broadcaster to have broadcast games for six different MLB teams (D-backs, Brewers, Twins, Reds, Royals and Astros).
- In addition to broadcasting baseball games, Francisco was the English as a Second Language instructor for the Arizona Diamondbacks and the Chicago White Sox (extended Spring Training) players from 1998 - 2001.
- A graduate of the University of Arizona, Francisco spent 10 years as the sports anchor for the Telemundo affiliate in Tucson, Arizona, as well as one year as general assignment reporter.
- As a sports anchor/reporter for Telemundo, Francisco has covered some of the most important sports events in the world, such as: MLB World Series and All-Star Games, the Super Bowl, NBA Finals, Road to the World Cup, NCAA Basketball Tournaments, NCAA Softball Tournaments, NCAA Baseball Tournaments, NASCAR and Championship Boxing.
- In 2005, Francisco was inducted into his High School Media Hall of Fame, Pueblo High School in Tucson, Ariz. Francisco was also elected to the Pueblo High School Warrior Foundation Hall of Fame Class in 2017.
- He earned a 2004 Emmy Award from the Rocky Mountain Chapter in the sports reporting category; that same year he also earned the Communicators Award for sports reporting. In 2003, the Arizona Daily Star named him as one of the Top 100 Sports Figures of Southern Arizona.
- In 2014, the Association of Sports Broadcasters of Nicaragua invited Francisco to speak on MLB broadcasting.
- Francisco was ranked No. 3 in the Top 100 Sports Figures of Southern Arizona by the Arizona Daily Star, behind former Astros pitching coach Brent Strom and former Astros bullpen coach Craig Bjornson in 2017.
- Francisco has been featured in several published works highlighting the impact of Spanish-language broadcasters in Major League Baseball. His life career and contributions have been written about in the following books: Los Otros Campeones Aztecas: Cronistas mexicanos ganadores de Series Mundiales (Spanish Edition) by Miguel Sallard; B*eisbol on the Air: Essays on Major League Spanish-Language Broadcasters* by Jorge Iber; Franklin Otto: Locutores Hispanos, Perspectiva desde las Grandes Ligas; and Corky: 30 Years of Sports Commentary: Heroes, Egos, Gloves, Sweat & Tears by Corky Simpson.
- Francisco resides in Houston, Texas with his wife Larissa, daughter Isabella and son Frankie.

ALEX TREVIÑO

SPANISH RADIO BROADCASTER

- Alex Treviño returns for his 31st season as color analyst on the Astros Spanish radio network. He and partner Francisco Romero have been a team since 2008, making them one of the longest-tenured teams in baseball.
- Alex joined the Astros broadcast booth in 1996 and has called more than 3,000 Astros games, 14 postseason appearances and five World Series (2005, 2017, 2019, 2021 and 2022).
- Alex's 30 seasons in the broadcast booth are the most in franchise history by a Spanish broadcaster, besting Orlando Sanchez Diago's record of 21 years.
- A native of Monterrey, Mexico, Alex spent 13 seasons playing in the Majors, primarily as a catcher, including the 1988-90 seasons with the Astros. He also spent time with the Mets, Reds, Braves, Giants and Dodgers. While with the Mets in 1980, he threw out 44% (47 of 106) of attempted basestealers, which was tops in the NL. Later in his career, while with the Dodgers on June 13, 1986 vs. the Padres in San Diego, he was part of history when he and pitcher Fernando Valenzuela formed the first Mexican-born battery in Major League history.
- Alex' older brother, Bobby Treviño, played in the Major Leagues as an outfielder for the Angels.
- Alex hit a career-high .290 while serving as Houston's backup catcher in 1989 and hit .364 (32x88) in 25 starts.
- He played in 939 Major League games and had a .249 lifetime average.
- In September 2014, Alex was inducted into the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor for his significant and lasting contributions to the landscape of Houston baseball through his work in broadcasting.

DAIKIN PARK

CHASE THE FIGHT

DAIKIN PARK
501 CRAWFORD ST.
HOUSTON, TX 77002

The 2026 season marks the 26th year of baseball in downtown Houston and the second under the name Daikin Park (pronounced: DIKE-in). The venue, which went by "Minute Maid Park" from 2002-24, has hosted numerous special events, including the 2004 All-Star Game and Home Run Derby, the World Series (2005, 2017, 2019, 2022), the 2014 Civil Rights Game, Super Bowl LI Opening Night, major concert events, weddings, graduations, galas, college baseball tournaments, charity drives and was used as a vaccination site during the COVID-19 pandemic.

The year 2000 saw something the grand old game of baseball had not experienced since 1964 — a Major League team in Houston playing on natural grass outdoors. While clear skies and real grass were welcome additions for fans, the Bayou City hardball-faithful also enjoyed another first: Daikin Park's 242 foot-tall retractable roof. More than three million fans embraced the new ballpark in its inaugural season. Since then, the club has welcomed more than 60 million visitors during the facility's 25-season tenure.

Daikin Park has become a welcome home for the Houston Astros and has ushered in a new era of Major League sports in the city. With the downtown ballpark, Houston continues to stand on the forefront of modern stadium construction that began with the club's previous home – the Astrodome. The park's retractable roof brought open-air baseball to Houston for the first time in 35 years, and the natural grass field and classic architecture provided the opportunity of capturing the same atmosphere from the great ballparks of baseball's golden age.

Approval of the ballpark, however, was not limited to the applause of the fans. Less than one calendar year after its opening, Daikin Park had already been recognized on local, state and national levels with several awards. The following are the first four major awards that the home of the Astros were honored with:

- Greater Houston Preservation Alliance, 2000 Good Brick Award. The President's Award was presented to former owner Drayton McLane, the Astros and the Harris County-Houston Sports Authority for the renovation of the 1911 Union Station building. The Good Brick Awards are presented annually in recognition of leadership and excellence in historic preservation.
- Most Outstanding Civil Engineering Project. This honor came from the Texas Section of the American Society of Civil Engineers (ASCE), a professional organization that represents the vast majority of civil engineers.
- National Honor Award for Engineering Excellence. This national recognition for engineering excellence came from the American Consulting Engineers Council (ACEC). This honor stamped Daikin Park as one of the top 24 engineering projects among all buildings and civil works projects nationally.
- National Center for Spectator Sports Safety and Security, 2023 Facility of Merit Award . This award recognizes a sports facility that has demonstrated an innovative approach to enhancing safety and security beyond their normal operations, or addressed a significant safety/security concern. The award is selected by each respective sports league, association, or advisory committee, and presented at the annual National Sports Safety and Security Conference & Exhibition.

LOCATION: Daikin Park is located at 501 Crawford Street on the northeast end of downtown Houston. Situated near the George R. Brown Convention Center, Discovery Green and BBVA Compass Stadium, the ballpark is located one block west of U.S. 59 and is bound by Congress Avenue on the north, Texas Avenue on the south, Crawford Street on the west and Hamilton Street on the east.

HISTORY: The idea for a public-private financing drive for a downtown Houston ballpark was conceived in 1996. Fourteen leading Houston companies joined together to form the Houston Sports Facility Partnership. The Partnership agreed to provide a $35 million interest-free loan with no repayment due until 10 years of ballpark operation had passed. With the Partnership's initial commitment, the Harris County-Houston Sports Authority had the support it needed to present a ballpark proposal to the public in November 1996. Voters approved the $250 million project.

ALL-STAR GAME: In 2004, Daikin Park played host to the 75th Major League Baseball All-Star Game. More than 350,000 people participated in All-Star Week activities, which included the Futures Game, the Legends/Celebrity Softball Game, and the Home Run Derby - all of which took place at Daikin Park - in addition to the John Hancock All-Star Fan Fest. The week culminated with the All-Star Game and a 9-4 American League win over the National League squad. Four Astros played for the National League squad, including the NL starting pitcher Roger Clemens, Carlos Beltran, Jeff Kent and Lance Berkman.

FIRST GAMES: The Houston Astros and New York Yankees played an exhibition game on March 30, 2000, with Houston winning 6-5. The Astros hosted the Philadelphia Phillies in the first official regular-season game on April 7, 2000, with Philadelphia winning 4-1.

PLAYING FIELD: Featuring Platinum TE Paspalum grass, the playing surface covers 2.5 acres. The drainage and irrigation systems include 6,682 linear feet of perforated pipe and 4,406 linear feet of PVC pipe, respectively. A total of 51 irrigation heads help make the job for Head Groundskeeper Izzy Hinojosa and his staff much easier.

All grassed areas of the playing field are also constructed to USGA golf green construction specifications, allowing for excellent drainage and a growing media which is ideal for maintaining high-performance turfgrass.

SIZE: The building dimensions cover 28.97 acres of gross square footage, a total of 1,263,240 square feet. The height is 93 feet to the last seating tread, equivalent to a nine-story building.

TRAIN: A replica of a 19th century locomotive (circa 1860) and linked coal tender is a fan favorite. The train provides an architectural icon which combines sight, sound and motion for a dynamic entertainment and celebration feature. It also provides a link to the past for Houston and the Union Station site. The train was designed by Uni-Systems and built by SMI & Hydraulics, which also provided the transporters for the retractable roof. Weighing close to 50,000 pounds, the train runs some 800 feet along the low roof track on the west side of the ballpark. The tender of the train had long carried a stack of oranges, a nod to the venues former name, "Minute Maid Park." Beginning in 2025, the train was rebranded to the Phillips 66 Home Run Train. Along with a fresh color scheme, featuring the Astros' blue and orange, the tender of the train carried 25 baseballs with Astros logos from over the years as a nod to the ballpark's 25th anniversary.

THE NAME: On Nov. 18, 2024, the Houston Astros and Daikin Comfort Technologies North America, Inc (Daikin) announced they had reached an agreement on a 15-year, exclusive naming-rights partnership that brands the home of the Astros as Daikin Park.

The agreement, which took effect on January 1, 2025, will run through the 2039 season, and includes official naming rights, other partnership benefits, and giving back to the Greater Houston community through educational programming and youth sports development in underserved communities.

Daikin Industries, Ltd. (DIL) is a leading global indoor comfort solutions provider with over 98,000 employees around the world, and over 22,000 employees across Daikin group companies in the U.S.. The company was founded in Japan on Oct. 25, 1924, and recently celebrated its 100th anniversary.

Daikin constructed and operates a 4.2 million square foot campus, the largest HVAC manufacturing facility in North America (Daikin Texas Technology Park), located in Waller, Texas, a part of the Greater Houston community. Daikin provides jobs for approximately 10,000 people in the Greater Houston area.

An event to announce the partnership was held at Daikin on Nov. 18, featuring appearances from Owner and Chairman of the Houston Astros Jim Crane, President and Chief Executive Officer, Daikin Comfort Technologies North America Inc., Satoru Akama, and Executive Vice President and Chief Sales and Marketing Officer, Daikin Comfort Technologies North America, Inc., Takayuki "Taka" Inoue.

"We are excited to be partnering with Daikin for our ballpark's naming rights," Crane said at the announcement event. "Daikin is an international company that proudly calls the Greater Houston area its North American home. The Houston Astros and Daikin share the same values, a commitment to excellence and a desire to give back to our local community. As we celebrate the 25th anniversary of this ballpark in 2025, I am proud to have Daikin alongside us to create even more special memories for our fans now and in the future."

Overall, Daikin has invested more than $1 billion in the Houston area, including more than $500 million in building Daikin Texas Technology Park. In August 2024, Daikin launched an initiative with the City of Houston to equip low-to-moderate income homes with advanced air conditioning and heating solutions, providing more comfort and energy efficiency for homeowners. Daikin is always looking for new ways to support their community and to create innovative technologies, with an unwavering commitment to making sustainable and responsible choices.

The partnership between the Astros and Daikin will enable the franchise to continue to invest in stadium amenities, as the organization is always looking to improve and make the gameday experience better for all fans. The partnership also includes community initiatives aimed at continuing and creating deep connections between the Astros, Daikin and the Houston community.

The stadium had been named Minute Maid Park since 2002 and Minute Maid will continue to be a partner of the Houston Astros through 2029.

The Astros played their first regular-season game in the Daikin Park era vs. the New York Mets on March 27, 2025, logging a 3-1 win on Opening Day.

UNION STATION: According to HOK's design platform, the most literal tie between Houston's past and its new ballpark is a physical line to Union Station. On March 2, 1911, Houston's second downtown Union Station, rebuilt at a cost of $500,000, opened its doors for the first time. In the 104 years since, it has served as an epicenter of the city's population growth, been a catalyst for commercial evolution, and become an identifying landmark within the downtown skyline.

Houston was once described as "Where 17 Railroads Meet the Sea". An article in a 1913 issue of "The Rotarian" called Houston the "City of First Consideration" and "The Largest Manufacturing City in the Southwest." Union Station was at the center of it all, the hub of a strong industrial municipality that specialized in oil, rice, sugar and lumber. The historic landmark has also served as a shelter for hurricane refugees and has been visited by Presidents of the United States.

Trains with names such as Acadian, Argonaut, Katy Flyer, California Special, Lone Star, Orleanean and Pioneer made hundreds of stops at Union Station during its active period (1911-1974). Other trains with monikers such as Sam Houston Zephyr, Southerner, Sunset Limited, Sunshine Special, Texas Chief, Texas Eagle, Texas Rocket and Valley Eagle routinely picked up passengers there as well.

The first-floor Great Hall still includes much of Union Station's original architectural work. It currently serves as a general reception area for guests, functions as an event space, and houses the Astros Team Store. Each Astros fan who enters Daikin Park through Union Station retraces the steps of passengers who boarded trains in another era.

Today, the conference rooms and event spaces occupying the second and third floor of the renovated Union Station at Daikin Park (open 365 days a year) are named after some of the trains listed above. They are honored as both a tribute to hardworking rail personnel and in remembrance of Union Station's historic importance.

The Houston Astros executive offices occupy the fourth and fifth floors of the building. The sixth floor houses the Roof Deck and Club House at Union Station, where groups of up to 100 people can watch Astros baseball with scenic views of downtown Houston as a backdrop.

Though it sat vacant for a quarter century from 1974-1999, the former transit hub has re-taken its rightful place on the Houston skyline, now serving as the gateway to Astros baseball and remaining an important landmark in downtown Houston.

PLAYING FIELD: Featuring Platinum TE Paspalum grass, the playing surface covers 2.5 acres. The drainage and irrigation systems include 6,682 linear feet of perforated pipe and 4,406 linear feet of PVC pipe, respectively. A total of 51 irrigation heads help make the job for Head Groundskeeper Izzy Hinojosa and his staff much easier.

All grassed areas of the playing field are also constructed to USGA golf green construction specifications, allowing for excellent drainage and a growing media which is ideal for maintaining high-performance turfgrass.

SOUNDS: With a focus on creating the best fan experience, the Houston Astros upgraded the bowl and concourse audio system at Daikin Park to L-acoustics A Series, a system known for its advanced line array technology providing exceptional sound quality with consistent coverage across large listening areas. The upgrade, completed prior to 2025 season, included more than 400 speakers scattered throughout the seating areas, with almost 1,000 speakers along the concourses.

THE ROOF: Architects from the HOK Sports Facilities Group recommended early on that a retractable roof would be appropriate for the Texas climate. Since building the first retractable-roof ballpark – the Skydome in 1989 – designers have crafted several kinds of retractable roofs. Some, for instance, open only over a small central section. The roof at Daikin Park, however, retracts completely off the ballpark to reveal the largest open area of any retractable roofed baseball stadium in existence today. A total of 50,000 square feet of glass in the west wall of the retractable roof gives fans a view of the Houston skyline, even when the roof is in the closed position.

Uni-Systems provided the technical expertise to design the best roof structure for Daikin Park. Mechanized roof panels open and close in 14-20 minutes. The roof moves back and forth an estimated 160 times a year, a distance of 14.6 miles. To cover the ballpark, steel panels roll in sequence along tracks on the east and west sides of the stadium. When the roof is open, the southern and northern panels, each of which measures 537 by 120 feet and weighs 1,905 metric tons, rest at the north end below the large middle section with its dimension of 589 by 242 feet and a weight of 3,810 metric tons. Designers determined the roof's shape – lower side panels flanking the high center panel – by tracking a batted baseball's hyperbolic flight path. Forged steel wheels, 140 in total, measuring 35 inches in diameter transport the three roof panels.

CONCESSIONS: Aramark Sports + Entertainment, the exclusive food and beverage partner of the Houston Astros, continues to set a new standard for culinary innovation at the ballpark. The past few seasons have introduced a variety of stadium updates, including multiple new concessions concepts, additional "Walk Thru Bru" self-service beverage locations and cutting-edge technology designed to enhance convenience throughout the park. In collaboration with Aramark, Daikin Park became the first MLB stadium to feature an Amazon Just Walk Out autonomous store, underscoring the team's commitment to delivering a seamless and memorable gameday experience. Fans can also enjoy premium offerings such as the Gallagher Club—a sophisticated space featuring an open kitchen concept—and a fully remodeled suite level that highlights Houston's local culinary talent. In 2025, Aramark and Daikin Park extended their partnership to further redefine the ballpark experience with innovative and elevated hospitality.

TECHNOLOGY: Following the 2010 season, the Houston Astros installed two new, high-definition video boards and a large ribbon board at Daikin Park in time for the start of the 2011 Major League Baseball season. The new primary video board is located in right field and measures 54 feet high and 124 feet wide (approximately 6,695 square feet), making it the third-largest board of its kind in the Major Leagues when installed. The Astros previous video board that had been in the ballpark since its inception in 2000 was 26 feet high and 45 feet wide. A smaller video board, measuring 24 feet high by 40 feet wide, was installed in left field, and a ribbon board, stretching from foul pole to foul pole and more than 1,000 feet long, was also added. A speed pitch board and an old-fashioned, manually operated scoreboard keep fans on top of the action in the ballpark and in every other big league venue. When it opened in 2000, Daikin Park was the first major sports facility to feature a closed-captioning board for the hearing impaired. Prior to the 2023 season, the video boards and ribbon boards in the stadium were replaced with new 4K Samsung LED boards. Ross Video now powers the control room and integration allowing the Astros to provide fans with award-winning special video features and effects created by Astros Productions.

RENOVATIONS: Prior to the 2017 sesaon, the Astros made major renovations to the center field area. The center field area is now home to new concessions including fan-favorites El Tiempo and Pluckers, the Lexus Club, retail and more. In 2026, the Astros added a Whataburger to their center field area concessions lineup. Following the 2019 season, the Houston Astros renovated the suite level and created the Michelob Ultra Bar. In addition, a new club, Gallagher Club, was added down the left field line to hold up to120 people. Also new in 2026, the Astros completely rennovated their Phillips66 Diamond Club to allow for greater spacial flexibility. The rennovations will also add areas to display additional culinary options, along with an exclusive retail space.

- Bob married Sandra Mahon Moynihan in 2024.
- He is a fifth-generation Galvestonian, and still lives on the island.

MLB GUIDELINES FOR THE MOVEMENT OF RETRACTABLE ROOFS

The decision as to whether a game begins with the roof open or closed rests solely with the home club.

If the game begins with the roof open: it shall be closed only in the event of impending rain or other adverse weather conditions. The decision to close the roof shall be made by the home club, after consultation with the Umpire Crew Chief.

The Umpire Crew Chief shall notify the visiting club, which may challenge the opening of the roof if it feels that a competitive imbalance will arise. In such an event, the Umpire Crew Chief shall make a final decision based on the merits of the challenge.

Once the roof is closed during a game, it shall not be re-opened.

If the game begins with the roof closed: it may be opened when, in the opinion of the home club, the climatic environment has reached a level where fan comfort and enjoyment will be best served by opening the roof to the natural atmospheric conditions. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the following guidelines should be applied to opening the roof during a game.

> The roof may only open once during a game.

> The Umpire Crew Chief will be notified at the commencement of the inning that the roof will be opened at the inning's conclusion.

> The Umpire Crew Chief shall notify the visiting club, which may challenge the opening of the roof if it feels that a competitive imbalance will arise. In such an event, the Umpire Crew Chief shall make a final decision based on the merits of the challenge.

> The opening of the roof shall only commence between innings.
